

HEINLINE PIANO PUPILS GIVEN AUDIENCE BY ELIZABETH NEWMAN

Piano pupils of Mrs. C. S. Heinline are receiving congratulations from her this week for their wonderful success in the auditions held Monday and Tuesday by Miss Elizabeth Newman...

Five of the students received local certificates, they presented not less than three pieces and their corresponding scales, chords etc.; seven made the District (program of not less than five numbers); twelve made State Certificates (not less than 7) and two made National (10 or more memorized and advanced numbers).

This is Miss Newman's second year to hold auditions in Roseburg. She is a celebrity in the musical world in her own right. Her books have been used by Miss Heinline for many years in the teaching of piano students.

She taught for several years at the Music School Settlement and the Harriet Ayer Seymour Music School in New York City, after which she established her own Creative Music Studio.

Miss Newman is a lecturer, teacher, author, graduate of Youville Academy, Buffalo, N. Y., with high honors, Drexel Institute of Philadelphia, and holds N. Y. State Regent's diploma. She has studied music with the greatest instructors of the time.
