Mother Sues To Regain Custody
Of 2 Children

Two young children are "imprisoned and restrained of their liberty" by their father and another woman, their mother charged in her application for a writ of habeas corpus filed in the Circuit Court Monday.

Circuit Judge Carl E. Wimberly ordered that there be issued a writ of habeas corpus, commanding the father, Walter Jensen, and Mrs. Robert Moore to bring the children to a court hearing today.

The mother, Clarice Jensen, alleged in her application that the children were "imprisoned" by her husband at the home of Mrs. Moore, on the Pacific Highway four miles north of Roseburg. Jensen is claiming, said his wife, to "care for the children and Mrs. Moore is... acting as his agent in this regard."

Mrs. Jensen charged that the "imprisonment" was illegal for the reason that her husband allegedly "continuously imbibed alcoholic beverages" for the past six months and made himself "obnoxious" to the children; allegedly used profane and obscene language; allegedly became so intoxicated that he lay on his bed and permitted the bed clothes to catch fire; allegedly neglected to supply the children with proper food and clothes, and that Mrs. Moore is not related to the children.

Stating that her husband is "contributing nothing" toward the support of three other minor children, although earning $300 monthly as a carpenter, Mrs. Jensen asks care and custody of the two "imprisoned" children and $150 monthly support money.

The Jensens were married at Chamberlain, S. D., Jan. 25, 1936.

Achievement Day Dates Announced For 4-H Workers

The annual 4-H Spring Achievement Day for Douglas county 4-H'ers is to be held Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21, in the Junior High School in Roseburg.

There 4-H Club members will display their projects which include such work as sewing of all kinds, cooking, camp cookery, knitting, homemaking, arts and crafts, forestry, woodworking, bird study and posters. Members will come from the Central and Southern parts of Douglas County, as western Douglas County and northern Douglas County each have an achievement day in Reedsport and Drain, respectively.

Exhibits are due in the Junior High School gym by 11 a.m. Friday, May 20 when the judging will start and continue all day. On Saturday, May 21, beginning at 10 a.m. there will be movies for the early arrivals. Between 1 and 2 p.m. home economics contests are scheduled and these will be followed by demonstration teams.

Twins Born On Both Sides Of Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., May 17.—(AP)—Mrs. Norman B. Keyser had a baby on the East Side of Portland Monday. A few minutes later she had another on the West Side of town.

The first of the twin boys was born at her home. Then an ambulance arrived, and rushed her to a hospital before the second arrived.
