HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

NOTICE

Evergreen Home Economics Club met Thursday at the hall for a noon polluck luncheon with Margaret McCord, Betty Ferger-son and Rosa Heinbach, host-Social items submitted by tele-phone for the society page must be turned in before 12 o'clock Monday through Thursday and by 10 a. m. Fridays, at which time the social calendar and Saturday's society page are closed weekly.

EVERGREEN GRANGE HAS MEETING FRIDAY

Evergreen Grange met at the hall Friday night with Charles McCord, master, presiding. Roll call found six officers present and 32 members in attendance.

and 32 members in attendance.

The agriculture report was given by John Lander Jr. The members voted to sponsor two 4H Jessie Thomas, Garnet Folmsscholarships. The social night chairman reported a splendid turnout to the last social and appointed Mr. and Mrs. B. Stafford on the entertainment committee and Mr. and Mrs. V. Folmsbee and Mr. and Mrs. V. Folmsbee and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jenkins and hear and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jenkins and hear and Mr. and Mrs. Benkins and hear and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jenkins and hear and Mrs. R. Jenkins and hear and Rubie Bloom.

The next meeting will be May 26 at the hall with Garnet Folmsbee, Renie Jenkins and Margaret McCord, Neil Lander, Blanche Tipton, Cora Jackelle Racing Charles Charle of refreshments for June 4. All members and their invited guests are asked to attend.

The lecturer, Jessie Thomas, presented a most enjoyable program carrying out the Mother's Day theme and included, "The Origin of Mother's Day" by Mrs. Ruby Belle Kobernik; recitation by Joan Thomas; two piano solos by Stanley Harryman: poems by Isabelle McDowell, Gladys Stafford and Margaret Burt.

Prizes were given to the oldest mother, the youngest mother and the mother having the greatest number of children and who were: Nel Lander, Cora Prussia and Cora Jackson, Songs and games brought the delightful program to a close.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. E. Kobernik, Mrs. A. Kobernik and daughter, Miss Carolyn Kobernik.

The next meeting will be a 6:30 o'clock polluck supper and business meeting May 27 at the hall.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

DILLARD P.T. A. TO INSTALL OFFICERS
The Dillard P.T. A. will hold installation of officers Friday night at 8 o'clock at the schoolhouse. All members and friends are invited to be present. JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB
ANNUAL SPRING DANCE
TO BE HELD SATURDAY
The Junior Woman's Club annual spring dance will be a charming affair of Saturday night at 9 o'clock at the Roseburg

EVENING INTER-SE

The Home Economics Club of

Phone 695-R-2

CHAINED TO YOUR

HOME?

CHRYSTALITE TILE INC.

You won't feel chained to your new Chrystalite Tile home. So cool in summer and so warm in winter. Your home will be the best looking place in the block.

Country Club.

Miss Betty, Jewei is general chairman and is being assisted by Mrs. Hazel Scott, Mrs. George Crocker and Miss Dorothy Daracunas. Music is in charge of Mrs. Allena Rose and Mrs. Ralph Ohman is in charge of the tickets, which are on sale at Lawson's Jewelry store. Members and their invited guests are asked to attend.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING Riversdale Grange will meet at 8:15 o'clock Friday evening at the hall. Refreshments will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. George Osterman, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lehne, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Schombel, Rose Goberville and Eldred Trussell. The sales tax will be discussed at this meeting. All members are urged to be pres-

A. F. Walter Kresse, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon U. S. National Bank Annex Room 217 Office Phone: 1500

Res.: Hotel Rose-Phone 622 Office hours: Mon. Thru Sat

Pacifie Hwy. N.

Mrs. Jean Whittenburg BY IANTHE SMITH

Members of the Roseburg Busi-ness and Professional Women's Club have made their club one of Club have made their club one of the outstanding organizations of the state by their investment in furthering international friendship, also an investment in improved home life for China is the belief of Miss Ava B. Milam, dean of the school of home economics at Oregon State College at Corvallis, Dean Milam made this assertion in speaking of the $800 scholarship which the Roseburg club presented to Caroline Chen, head of the home economics department at Yenching Univerdepartment at Yenching Univer-sity, who has been a student at the Oregon State College this past Roseburg members of the B. P. W. club can gain great personal satisfaction from the knowledge that no one can estimate the far reaching possibilities of such an investment they have made in humanity.

an investment they have made in humanity.

Miss Chen was one of the 20 students who studied home economics with Dean Milam when she opened the first course in China in 1923. It was through Dean Milam that the Roseburg club learned of Miss Chen.

Not only have the women of Roseburg, who have come to know Caroline, but many other women throughout the state as well as the students on Oregon State College campus, have come to admire the strength of character and brilliant mind that are hers.

hers.
Through her quiet way she has acted as a sort of intermediary between foreign students and their readjustment to life on an STUDY CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT The Evening Inter-Se Study Club will meet tonight, May 18, their readjustment to life on an American college campus. Caroline gained first hand knowledge of life in these United States in 1928 when she received her master of arts degree from Columbia University, New York. That same year she went to Corvallis where she spent two terms before returning to China.

Miss Chen will return to China next fall and paramount among her interests will be aiding to bring about better home life among the Chinese. Child development is another of her prime interests.

A native of Hangchow Miss at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. M. Campbell, 949 Winchester street. All members are cordially invited. METHODIST STUDY CLUB TO MEET

The Methodist Study Club will meet Thursday at a 1 o'clock potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lucien Cobb, 740 South Jackson street. The study book will be in charge of Mrs. L. W. Irwin. All members are urged to be present.

P. W. E. CLUB TO MEET AT POTLUCK The P. W. E. Club will meet at a 7 o'clock potluck supper to-night, May 18, at the home of Mrs. Frank Wickham. All mem-bers are urged to be present.

interests.

A native of Hangchow Miss. Chen was brought up in Peiping. She was graduated from a Methodist school in Tiensin in North China and in 1923 she enrolled in Dean Milam's courses at Yenching University, where she will again head the department of home economics when she returns. She was also graduated from Yenching with a bachelor of arts degree.

From 1928 to 1937 she was at Yenching as a teacher and from the conomics when she returns. She was also graduated from Yenching with a bachelor of arts degree.

From 1928 to 1937 she was at Yenching as a teacher and from 1937 to 1938 she taught in Southwestern University. Miss Chen then went to Shanghai where she stayed until 1945. She started the department of home economics in a Catholic woman's college. She has also been instrumental in opening departments of home economics in other colleges and schools in China. the Fair Oaks Grange will meet Friday at the home of Mrs. Dor-othy Norton. All members are urged to be present.

schools in China. In 1945 Miss Chen returned to Yenching and re-opened the de-partment there. She remained there until coming to America there until coming to America last September.

All who meet Caroline Chen are charmed by her petiteness, her quick brilliant mind and friendly manner.

Always mindful of a responsibility to the persons who have made possible her opportunity for study at Oregon State her acquisitive mind is ever alert for new ideas to take back to her native country and apply them as tive country and apply them as she meets with the students who

Come and Bring the Family

The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.—Wed., May 18, 1949 Dinner Chairman Supreme Court Upholds Bequest To Woman On Basis Of Friendship

SALEM, Ore., May 18.—(P)—A portland Italian woman, who barely could speak English and who is described as "vivacious," became $5,383 richer today because she was the only true friend that a 47-year-old Spaniard had.

The State Supreme Court Tuesday unanimously gave the woman, wife of a cook, the money which the Spaniard had left to her in a joint bank account.

The woman's name is Mrs. Ida Giannini. The man, who died three years ago, was Jim Jiminez, a lonely, unmarried logger who

The woman's name is Mrs. Ida Giannini. The man, who died three years ago, was Jim Jiminez, a lonely, unmarried logger who saved his money.

When Jiminez came in from the woods, he used his $5 a month room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Giannini, and their son and daughter.

The Gianninis and Jiminez got along fine. They never had but one serious argument. That was when Mr. Giannini wanted to boost the rent to $8 a month, but the rent stayed at $5.

the rent stayed at $5.

Justice George Rossman's opinfon told how Mrs. Giannini and Jiminez talked long hours togeth kind."

"Men who are cautious and dubious by nature generally find buoyancy for their sagging spirits in women of the positive, spirited

Miss Lola Villalba Leaving May 31 On North European Countries Tour

MISS LOLA VILLALBA Assistant Chief Nurse at Rose-urg Veterans Hospital, leaving on for study tour in Europe. burg Veterans Hospital, le soon for study tour in Et (Picture by Paul Jenkins).

Miss Lola Villalba, assistant chief nurse at the Veterans Hospital, Roseburg, will leave May 31 for Hartford, Conn., where she will join a selected group of nurses for a "Health Care in Europe" study tour, sponsored by the Division of Nursing Education, Teachers College, Columbia University.

tion, Teachers College, Columbia University.

The party will include 50 nurses, all members of the American Nurses Association. They will fly from Hartford, leaving June 7, to Helsinki, Finland, and will travel by plane in Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, Holland, Belgium, France and Switzerland. High point of the tour will be attendance at the International will be in her department at Yenching. Business and Professional Wo-men's Club members of Roseburg men's Club members of Roseburg can always feel they have assist-ed in no small way in bringing about a better understanding be tween peoples of the United States and China, Posterity can and will profit from the investment in Miss Chen.

The nurses will visit hospitals, The nurses will visit hospitals, public health centers, and rural health districts. They will inspect the Central School and Children's Castle in Helsinki, the Edith Cavell school of nursing in Brussels, the Sal Petrie and Hotel Dieu schools of nursing in Paris and the World Health organization in Geneva.

Geneva.

The return trip will start from Geneva and the group will return to the United States July 4.

to the United States July 4.
Miss Villalba served with the Army Nurse Corps during World War II in stations in Britain,
France, Belgium and Austria.
"I was unable to get into any of I was unable to get into any of the Scandinavian countries during the war and it will be a pleasure to see something of them," she said. "The only part of Europe I will be seeing for the second time is Paris—and that won't be bad!"

Lower Umpqua Sea Lions, Seals Will Be Erased

REEDSPORT, Ore., May 18 - A hunting expedition to rid the lower Umpqua River of sea llons and seals is being organized

Frank Taylor, chairman of the Lower Umpqua Chamber of Com-merce Sports Committee, said the State Game Commission had ap-proved the hunt aimed at ridding the river of a major threat to

The sea lions and seals have been killing hundreds of salmon in the River and just outside across the bar, he said.

Fire Razes Sea Station Of B. C. Forest Service

VANCOUVER, B. C., 1ay 18.— CP) — Fire Tuesday destroyed a ection of the British Columbia (CP) — Fire Tuesday destroyed a section of the British Columbia Forest Service marine station on the Fraser River here, causing property damage estimated at $75,000. The origin of the blaze is unknown.

Exploding paint drums flashed flames 100 feet into the air after a watchman discovered the fire in in a storage room.

ELGAROSE SCHOOL TO

HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC
The Elgarose School will hold training annual picnic at Umpqua Park Sunday, May 22. All students, parents and friends are invited to enjoy the occasion.

R. D. BRIDGES

Savings Representative Equitable Savings and Loan Ass'n. Phone 442 Oakland, Ore.

Marion School Districts Reject Merger Plan

SALEM, May 18.—(P)—Proposals to dissolve three Marion County union high school districts were rejected Monday in special elections.

North Santiam district rejected the proposal, 466 to 434. The Aumsville-Turner district voted 507 to 203 against the proposal and St. Paul turned down a simiand St. Paul (trined down a similar issue 323 to 110.

In another election, Stayton Union High School district approved a $280,000 bond issue for a new building at Stayton.

Multnomah Gets Third County Commissioner

PORTLAND, May 18.—(P)— Multnomah got its third county commissioner Tuesday when Gene W. Rossman, 39, was approved by Commissioners Frank Shull and M. James Glesson.
Approval of Rossman, Portland motor truck salesman, ended a deadlock of several weeks. He fills the vacancy created by resignation of Al Brown. Shull, a Republican, and Gleason, a Democrat, had been able to agree on a successor. Rossman is a Republican.

He is a 1931 graduate of the University of Washington.

ACTIVE CLUB TO BE HOSTS

The Roseburg Active Club mem-bers will entertain their wives or lady friends Thursday at or lady friends Inursday at p.m. at the Country Club. Members are also asked to bring guests or prospective members. Those planning to attend are asked to call Paul Wray by Wednesday evening, phone 1378 or 70283. or 702R3.

Railway, Steamship Clerks Accept Recommendations Of Fact Finders

NEW YORK, May 17. —(P)—A presidential fact-finding board's recommendations for settling the Railway Express Agency labor dispute have been accepted by the AFL Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks.

Terms similar to those in the board's settlement formula had been offered by the company.

been offered by the company. Local and national officials of the union are scheduled to meet with company officials within a week to draw a contract on the basis of the board's recommenda-

The union leaders' agreement to the settlement formula was announced during the weekend by Danlel J. Sullivan, district general chairman of the Brotherhood.

agreement, Sullivan said.

The board's recommendations provide a cut in the work week from 44 to 40 hours, effective Sept. 7. They also include a wage increase of seven cents an hour, retroactive to last Oct. 1. The union said the average hourly pay under the old scale was about $1.33.

ELECTROLUX -Cleaner and Air Purifier

Sales, Service, Repairs and Supplies Wayne Overbeck Phone 373-R-2

We specialize in prompt claim service. For better service see

636 S. STEPHENS

Paul H. Krueger

District Agent 636 S. Stephens St. - Roseburg - Phone 218

Plain Willowood Diamar Stripe Confetti with Confetti .

for Today's Living . . .

COLORFUL FABRICS

by Schumacher

and WAVERLY!

They'll blend in your home, too . . . these glorious fabrics, gay as the Gold Rush days. Their perfectly harmonized colors give your rooms exciting new warmth. See them at JOSSE'S today . . . Use them in rich, unusual decorative schemes. Also see the exquisite and rich colors of colonial fabrics that have been faithfully reproduced by Schumacher from originals at "Colonial Williamsburg."

Fabrics . . . 2nd Floor

Just Phone

330

PERSONALIZED SERVICE FOR THE HOME

Just in . . . that new plastic floor covering-FLOR-EVER. A vinylite plastic floor covering that is absolute tops in every way. Non-porous, it will NOT absorb dirt. No waxing ever necessary with FLOR-EVER, Fade and acid resistant. In all wanted colors-In rolls, six feet wide. Have FLOR-EVER in YOUR home

Dress Up Your Floors With Feature Strips

Your floors will look neater, more inviting with feature strips . . . we have many designs to harmonize with your

F AND W FLOOR COVERING 327 S. Stephens St. Phone 1478-R

Douglas County's Most Unusual Eating Place Opening Friday, May 20

DINNERS

DELICIOUS FRIED CHICKEN CHICKEN AND DUMPLINGS

BREAKFAST

Available Soon

STEAK AND FISH DINNERS LUNCHES

FOUNTAIN

VIVIAN AND CRYSTAL ARE HERE

TO PLEASE YOU AS IN THE PAST Fishermen's Shacks

17 Mi. up North Umpqua River. Just above Lone Rock Bridge