MARY-MARTHA CLUB HAS FINE MEETING

The Mary-Martha Club of the Sutherlin Christian Church met at the church Friday, with Mrs. Ada Abeene and Mrs. Bertha Sanders, hostesses.

A potluck dinner was served at a table centered with a beautiful crocheted May basket filled with white iris, flanked by pink tapers with miniature May poles at both ends of table.

Mrs. Jean Barnes and Mrs. Dorothy Longbrake were presented with a birthday cake, Mrs. Barnes' birthday being on Sunday, May 8 and Mrs. Longbrakes on Monday.

After the dinner Mrs. Barnes, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Nellie Maddox, was in charge of the devotionals, which used "Mother" for the theme. She read from the scripture, Psalms 113: 9, Isaiah 66: 13, and Ezekiel 16: 44.

Mrs. Maddox gave a short talk on "Are Mother Indispensable?" bringing out the virtues which a good mother should possess. She also read two poems, "When Mother Stays in Bed," and "A Mother's Love."

Mrs. Ada Abeene gave the prayer.

Roll call was answered with scripture verses. Sixteen members and one visitor responded.

Mrs. Kleinfeldt read portions of reports made by the Missionaries in foreign fields and urged more of a missionary spirit. Mrs. Ada Abeene read interesting items about the people of Okinawa, from letters received from Royal Abeene, Jr., while he was participating in the invasion and occupation of that island in 1945.

The group for the day was making layettes for Okinawan babies. The group has taken the missionary project of assisting in the work there.
