

Chiefs Trim Prospect, 8-4

Buckley Yields Only 7 Hits, Whiffs 11 Men

Chiefs Pile Up Enough Tallies In First Four Frames To Post Victory

The Umpqua Chiefs defeated Prospect 8-4 Sunday, in a Southern Oregon League game that offered clever pitching by Claude Buckley, a youngster with a terrifically fast ball who struck out eight men in the first three innings and altogether sent 11 men to the bench via the strike-out route during nine innings of hurling.

The Chiefs were off to a fast start in the first inning, when shortstop Bolensheck of Prospect threw Roy Long's ground ball high over the first baseman's head, advancing Long to second.

Virg Sanders smashed a ground single, scoring Long, Sanders going to second on the throw. Then George Sanders then lined a single over the shortstop's head, scoring Virg Sanders. George was trapped off first by a fast relay from the outfield.

Norm West ended the first inning by powering a home run into deep right center field. Buckley, with a three-run lead to work on, gave up one hit in the last of the first and fanned two men. In the Chiefs' half of the second, Buckley, leading off, drew a base on balls. Roy Long followed with a single, then Virg Sanders sacrificed both men alone.

George Sanders grounded out, short to first, with Buckley scoring on the play. Wilkensen, who beat the Chiefs twice last year while playing for Central Point, retired the side without further scoring. In the top of the fourth, Buckley grounded out third to first, then Roy Long singled, but was forced out at second by Virg Sanders. George Sanders followed with a screaming single off the third baseman's shins. Wilkensen walked West to fill the bases, then walked Huggins, forcing in Virg Sanders with run number five. Lovell Baker followed with a line single, scoring George Sanders and West.

Prospect Posts Tallies Prospect scored its first run in the sixth inning, when Prieb, their second baseman, hit a single and Fren, their catcher, who started the season with the Medford Nuggets in the Far West League, caught one of Buckley's fast balls on the nose, making it good for a homer.

The Chiefs matched this with one of their own in the seventh, when Baker hit a single, which was kicked around long enough by the left fielder to allow Baker to make it to third, where he scored on Scherner's long single.

In the eighth, Wilkensen led off with a single and moved to second on a walk to Colly. The Prospect pitcher scored from second when Colly was caught off first on a throw from Huggins to West. While West and George Sanders were running, Colly down, Wilkensen scored.

The Chiefs threatened again in the ninth when Scherner got his third single of the day, Edgar was hit by a pitched ball and Buckley walked. But with the sacks loaded, Lindeman, who had replaced Wilkensen, bore down and retired the side.

Prospect scored its final run in the ninth when Colly walked and scored on Priene's double. Bill Scherner and George Sanders each got three hits for the Chiefs while Lovell Baker and Roy Long bagged two each. Bolensheck hit twice for Prospect.

Medford Team Wins State Prep Track Contest

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 23.—(AP)—The Black Tornado team from Medford captured the school's sixth state track and field class A championship here Saturday in the 23rd running of the event.

Piling up 66 1/6 points, Medford defended its title decisively and finished 26 1/6 points ahead of runners-up from Portland's Washington High.

Union High was a convincing Class B victor with 891 points, displacing Henley from the throne despite the mighty individual effort of Henley's Wayne Gober. The defending champions finished second with 55 points.

The Class A competition saw one new record set, but the Class B school entrants posted four new marks.

George Simons of Albany broadjumped 22 feet, 10 inches. It was 31 inches longer than the 12-year-old Class A record.

The top Class A individual scoring was by Medford's Jack Morris. He scored 224 points, winning first in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 200-yard low hurdles.

The Class B record smashing was paced by Henley's Gober. He finished the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.6 seconds for a new mark, won the high jump and piled up 243 points that stood for individual honors in the division.

Other B records were set by Don Millage, Talent, 20 feet 37/8 inches in the broad jump; Ed McBride, Union, 157 feet, 11 inches in the javelin; and Don Hoelt, Pilot Rock, 11 feet, 6 inches in the pole vault.

Behind Class A Medford with 66 1/6 and Washington with 40 were La Grande with 23 1/6 for third and Salem with 18 for fourth place.

The others: Albany, 16; Bend, 16; Grants Pass, 15; Portland's Benson, 13 1/6; Cottage Grove, 13 1/6; Ashland, 12 1/6; Baker, 12 1/6; Portland's Jefferson, 12; Portland's Roosevelt, 12; Springfield, 12; Pendleton, 12; Forest Grove, 11; Milwaukie, 10; Milton-Freewater, 10; Lincoln, 10; Myrtle Point, 10; Columbia Prep, 10; Oregon City, 8; Gresham, 8; Portland's Cleveland, 8; Klamath Falls, 8; North Bend, 7; Franklin, 6; Ontario, 6; Sacred Heart, 6; Roseburg, 6; Nyssa, 5; Reedmond, 4; Molalla, 4; Newport, 2; Siuslaw, 2; University High, 1; Silverton, 1.

Cougar Thinclads Win North Zone Track Pennant

SEATTLE, May 23.—(AP)—Coach Jack Mooberry, who got things first with the most on Saturday, is looking for a place on the Washington State College trophy hall to nail the 1949 Northern Division track pennant.

The men of Mooberry picked up seven firsts, five seconds and a wide selection of thirds and fourths to lap the field with 62 points. Oregon squeezed past a surprising Idaho team for second with 301, the Vandals collecting 22.

Washington wound up with 191, Oregon State with 16 and Montana with 15.

It was a clear and windless day, but the only record equaling performance was by W.S.C. hurdler Fran Polsoot. He topped the high sticks in 14.4 and the first man to shake his hand was Washington's Steve Anderson, who has held the record alone at the same time since 1930.

Dave Henthorne of Oregon shared high point honors with Polsoot, each getting 10 counters. The Oregonian was first with both dashes and Polsoot took the low hurdles after his stout effort in the highs.

Two races produced the best times the Northwest has seen this year. Warren Johnson of Idaho, not considered a serious contender, stepped out to win the mile in 4:18.5. Washington's Bill Steed ambled two miles in 9:32.3 with Dick Paeth of W.S.C. looming over his shoulder all the way.

George Rassmussen of Oregon sailed 14 feet in the pole vault, missing his own division record by 21 inches. Montana's Dick Doyle, expected to set a new discus mark, missed it by seven feet with a winning toss of 150 feet 71 inches.

Most of the victors will be back this week-end for the Pacific Coast Conference meet.

Rene LaBelle Wins Trophy On Wrestling Card

By CHUCK PLUMMER Flashy Rene LaBelle ended up with a mighty sore shoulder, but received a $200 cash and a trophy for coming out on top in the eight-man wrestling tournament at the Armory Saturday night.

One of the greatest wrestling cards ever seen on the Roseburg mat was witnessed by a packed house of roaring spectators, as LaBelle won a judges' decision over rough-and-tough newcomer Lefty Pacer in the final bout.

Pacer injured the popular Frenchman's shoulder toward the latter part of the 15-minute bout by running him into a ring post. He protested the decision to go to the crowd, but the spectators remained firmly on the Frenchman's side.

In the opening bouts, LaBelle defeated Tony Falletti with a skin-the-cat and Herb Parks slugged, roughed and knee-stomped newcomer Del Wayne to a fall in 2 minutes 40 seconds. In the next bout, between Al Szasz and Tony Ross, a revival of their grudge match last week, Szasz was awarded the judges' decision. Ross was furious and protested the decision so violently that Szasz had the timer ring the bell and invited Ross to come into the ring with him, beating him around the ring until the fight was stopped. In his opening bout with Billy Weidner, Pacer was very rough, beating Weidner into submission and taking the fall with a subduer.

The semi-final match between LaBelle and Parks went the full 15-minute time limit with LaBelle being awarded the decision. In the other semi-windup, Pacer kicked Szasz out of the ring and injured Szasz' left arm and collarbone, and working on the injured arm with hammerlock and arm stomps, took the fall.

By winning the final match over Pacer, LaBelle earned, besides the trophy and purse, a title match with Frank Stojack next Saturday night at the Armory.

Boston Sox Edge Tigers In 12-Frame Tilt

Athletics Twice Down Indians; Dodgers Swap Shut-Outs With Cincy

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sportswriter The Boston Red Sox can thank their lucky stars for pitcher Mel Parnell.

Red Sox fans hate to think where their favorites would be today were it not for the stylish left-hander from New Orleans. If a pinch Boston would be much worse off than its current 14-14 sixth place rating.

While the rest of the pitching staff has been floundering around, Parnell has been well nigh sensational. The 26-year-old sophomore has made seven starts, and won all but one.

One of his triumphs came yesterday when the six-footer had to wait until the 12th before he was able to eke out a 3-2 decision over Virgil Trucks and the Detroit Tigers, to make it a perfect day for the favorite son of the Louisiana Parnells, Mel drove in two runs including the game-winning tally with a 12th inning single.

The Philadelphia Athletics whipped Cleveland twice yesterday, 5-4 and 7-3, marking the sixth and seventh Sunday losses in as many games for the Tribe. The crippled world champions now are in seventh place six and a half games behind the front running New York Yankees.

Shut-Outs Traded

Ken Raffensberger, veteran left-hander of the Cincinnati Reds, shut out Brooklyn, 2-0, on one hit in the second game of a double-header in Cincinnati. The Dodgers took the opener, 3-0, as Don Newcombe, rookie Negro right-hander, won his first start.

Raffensberger had a no-hitter until the eighth, when Gil Hodges, first man to face him, punctured his dream with a single.

The Boston Braves tied the New York Giants for the National League leadership, beating the Chicago Cubs, 7-2, while the Giants divided a double-header with the Cardinals in St. Louis. The Redbirds won the opener, 3-2, on Stao Musial's three-run homer in the third. The Giants walloped six pitchers in the finale for a

Two Main Events Scheduled For May 27 Fight Bill

Some rugged action is offered Douglas County fight fans at the Roseburg Armory Friday, May 27, as Promoters Ernie Nazelrod and Sandy Sanders feature for the first time locally a double main event.

Four clever fighters will pair off in the top half of the week-end fight card, with Dallas Bennett, Douglas County's own "fighting deputy," scheduled to meet Sonny Orrock, Spokane, in a 10-round heavyweight classic, while Al "Pinky" Cowan, Spokane, meets Mickey Gimmell, Redding, California, in an eight-rounder.

Although the Bennett-Orrock go is attracting considerable comment as a potential knock-down, drag-out affair, equal interest is centered in the Cowan-Gimmell bout.

Fans remember fair-skinned "Pinky" as the lad with dynamic dukes, whose harmless looking appearance is not in keeping with his ability to hit. Cowan does not stop fighting one instant during the fight between bells.

He continually dishes out lethal flistic punishment that rocks and jars opponents and frequently sends them to the canvas for the count. In a previous encounter here, Cowan was voted the outstanding puncher on the card.

Gimmell is well remembered here for extremely creditable action against stout opposition. He out-boxed Red Garrison of Spokane, then dropped a close decision to Jerry Marotti, of Twin Falls. This latter action did not lessen the crowd's estimation of the popular Pitt Indian puncher.

Two preliminary actions will balance out the card. 13-4 triumph. Dick Sisler's pinch hit double

In the ninth inning scored Jack Mayo with the run that gave the Philadelphia Phillies a 6-5 victory over Pittsburgh in the first game of a scheduled double-header. The second game was postponed by rain.

The Chicago White Sox scored all their runs in the last two innings to defeat Washington, 6-4. Clyde Shoun, recently obtained from the Braves, won his first American League game, in relief. Rain washed out the double-header between the St. Louis Browns and New York Yankees in New York.

Beavers Tip Oaks Twice; All Other Teams Divide

By JIM HUBBART Associated Press Sports Writer The San Diego Padres split their double header Sunday with San Francisco at Seals Stadium. San Francisco took the opener, 11 to 3, and San Diego won the second game, 10 to 7 for a 4 to 2 edge in the series.

The Padres' Max West clouted the ball all over the lot. He scored three runs in each game. At Seattle, meanwhile, Hollywood took two extra innings to trim the Rainiers, 6 to 2, in the second game of their twin bill. Seattle copped the regulation opener, 6 to 5, but lost the series, 4 to 3.

The oft-pummeled Beavers rose from the mat long enough to register a surprise doubleheader victory over Oakland, 3 to 2 and 4 to 1. Portland took the series, three games to two.

Los Angeles and Sacramento split their twin bill by identical scores of 4 to 3. The Solons annexed the short series, 3 to 2.
