

Whiskers, Pioneer Atmosphere Will Mark Benefit Carnival At Tiller

Gay-bonneted dance hall girls, bewiskered rugged men of the mountains, French trappers, pioneer women and children will mingle Saturday night, May 28, at the Whiskerino-Ber Carnival at Tiller.

George Aker Jr., William Howell, Vern Lerwill, Ray Charters and "Doc" Krantz have grown a fine crop of hirsute adornment. Competition between the gentlemen is keen. Fuzzy whiskers, trim goatees, wide sideburns and just plain whiskers are the modes of the moment in Tiller and Drew.

Principal Children of the Days Creek School, George Aker Sr. of Myrtle Creek, and V. V. Haney, manager of the Myrtle Creek Branch of the United States National Bank, have been invited by the Tiller P.T.A., sponsoring the carnival, to act as judges of costumes and other events the night of May 28.

Moving pictures will be shown and a magician's show will be two of the many attractions scheduled for Tiller's carnival. Toy automobiles and toy trains will attract the little folks, and Mrs. Robert Bell will be in charge of "the ten rides in a toy locomotive for a dollar." Fancy work will be sold by ladies of the Drew P.T.A. Coffee, "hot dogs," ice cream and chili will be on the refreshment menu.

This carnival is being held for the benefit of the Tiller grammar school lunch room and additional equipment will be purchased with the proceeds from the affair, according to Mrs. William Howell, general chairman and president of the Tiller P.T.A.

Negotiations In Ford Strike Still Deadlocked

DETROIT, May 24.—(AP)—Attempts to end the 18-day Ford strike stood still Monday as both sides sat back and waited for the government to bring them together again.

Federal mediators said they were "confident" that sessions could be resumed soon following a 24-hour cooling-off period.

Negotiations were still deadlocked after 12 days of heated debate.

Both the CIO United Auto Workers and the Ford Motor Co. accepted a mediator's proposal for the cooling off period. Each side said it would be willing to return later to the bargaining table at government request.

Kenneth Gilkeson scored 94 and Ted Rice 93. Tom Rice scored 25 in the handicap shoot.

Twenty-three squads shot over the traps at Winchester and chalked up high scores.

Other scores: R. Gardner, L. D. Owens, Charles Klingler, 24; Verdun Boucock, Ivan Pickens, Roy Stander, 23; Dr. C. B. Wade, Roy Hill, H. Hannon, Walter Edmonds, 22.

The third and last registered shoot for the season will be held at the Roseburg Club's traps June 5.

Cerdan Agrees To Give LaMotta Chance At Title

DETROIT, May 24.—(AP)—Middleweight Champion Marcel Cerdan agreed Monday to defend his title against Jake LaMotta of the Bronx, N. Y., in a 15-round fight here June 15.

It will be the first title defense for the hard-hitting Frenchman who took the crown from Tony Zale via the knockout route last September.

Outside Labor Required Now For Harvesting Oregon's Fruit Crops

Start-up of the strawberry harvest and pick-up of other farm activities all over the state are resulting in increased demands for outside help from many offices of the Oregon State Employment Service.

Most areas in Northwest Oregon will need berry pickers before the end of the week (May 23-28), and Ontario's farm labor shortage has increased to include 300 workers. Both single men and family groups can be used in Eastern Oregon beet fields.

Berry picking got off to a fast start in the Lebanon area during the past few days, but so far no shortage of workers has developed. Both Portland and Salem local offices expect to need 1,000 outside pickers by the end of the week, while McMinnville and Oregon City also anticipate early shortages. By June 1 the berry harvest should be in full swing. Several Eastern Oregon areas also may need help in gathering berries and early fruit crops, but the principal demand from this section will come about June 10, when the pea harvest is to get under way. Mostly single men are needed and the season will last well into July. Freewater, Pendleton and Ontario are the main centers for peas.

Cabins in farm labor camps are available at Dayton, Hillsboro, Salem and Ontario, but workers should be ready to furnish their own bedding, utensils and dishes in all areas.

Before moving, prospective workers should check latest available information on crops, housing, prices and labor demand with the nearest of the 26 local offices of the employment service, it is suggested.

Boy Robber Faints When Bullets Whine Over Him

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—(AP)—The high whine of bullets overhead was just too much for the young robber. He fainted.

Robert Dyer, police station attendant, told police the boy—only 14—entered his station early today, threatened him with a hunting knife and took $10 from the till.

As the boy ran off, Dyer whipped out a gun and fired twice high over his head. The boy collapsed in a faint.

Police revived him and took him to jail.

China's Currency Drops To Nothing In Canton

CANTON, May 24.—(AP)—In this temporary capital China's currency is practically worthless.

The gold yuan which was valued at four to $1 last August today was 240,000,000 to $1.

These figures in effect mean nothing. Nobody here deals any more in gold yuan. Money from the British colony of Hong Kong is the main medium of exchange now.

Possibly the most striking fact about China's gold yuan is that the government itself is paying some of its employees in Hong Kong money.

Long Beach To Honolulu In Life Boat Aim Of Pair

LONG BEACH, Calif., May 24.—(AP)—Long Beach to Honolulu—2,400 miles—in a lifeboat!

That's the voyage the brothers Swarthout, Francis, 23, and James, set out upon Sunday as veteran coast guardsmen shook their heads dubiously.

"We've been planning this trip since we were nine years old," James said before casting off. "We're not going to be discouraged now."

Their craft is the 22-foot boat Carick. She was rebuilt at a cost of $1,200. She has been decked over and fitted with sail, a 1,200-pound keel and an auxiliary engine.

Aboard are 35 gallons of drinking water and a 60-day food supply. The brothers Swarthout expect to make Honolulu in 30 to 45 days.

TOASTMASTER CHAMPS

PORTLAND, May 23.—(AP)—The Northwest regional speech contest sponsored by the International Toastmasters Club was won Saturday by Mrs. Jean Rickert, Lewiston, Mont.

Miss Lorraine Meusey, Salem, was second.

The winner among entries from five Pacific Northwest states will attend the national convention competition in St. Paul, Minn., in June.

Wallace Denies Support Of Soviet Genetic Ideas

PORTLAND, May 24.—(AP)—Henry Wallace, in a letter to the Oregonian, has disclaimed support of genetic theories advanced by a Soviet scientist.

The letter was a response to statements issued by Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State College, following a public appearance of the former vice president here recently.

Wallace said in his letter to the newspaper that "nobody today can know how far right or wrong Lysenko (the Soviet scientist) is," Wallace said that in commenting on the dismissal of two OSC faculty men—which involved the Lysenko theories—he merely was "trying to serve as a bridge to re-establish objectivity in this (the OSC) whole controversy."

Dr. Strand had stepped to the Civic Auditorium platform after Wallace spoke and criticized the Progressive Party leader for his comments on the campus situation.

"The soil of Florida is of coral formation."
