

STUDENT ARTISTS-These artistically inclined Roseburg Junior students entered posters which received national recognition in the 1949 Scholastic Magazine, New York, contest. Miss Barbara Fowler, right, ninth grader, received honorable mention, group I, with her water color entry. Ralph Turner's water color entry "placed" in the exhibition, meaning that it was selected among the entries to be placed on exhibit. Ralph is an eighth grader. The two poster entries were selected with other outstanding exhibits from Oregon, under Meier and Frank sponsorship, to be entered in the national contest. Miss Fowler won a $10 packet of art supplies from American Crayon Co., Pittsburgh. The students are members of Miss Margaret Carr's art class at Junior

INGENIOUS DEVICE—Arthur French, pond saw man at the Engle and Worth mill near Canyonville, operates the controls of a saw equipped with an ingenious device—a water-jet apparatus which washes away the sawdust after logs are cut. The water jet is not operating in this picture. This pond saw is soon to be moved to the opposite side of the pond from its present location. (Picture by Paul Jenkins.)

Clothing Contest Winners Of Scholarships To 4-H Summer School Announced Scholarships to 4-H Summer Schools and trips to the State Fair were awarded girls who participated in clothing contests in the 4-H Spring Achievement Days here last week. Blue, red and white ribbon winners in all classes will compete for championships at the Douglas County Fair, in August. Frank von Borstel, county 4-H Club agent, today said the coveted 4-H Summer School scholarships have been awarded Barbara Sinyder, Days Creek, winner in clothing division II control and Pat Rumphries. Riversdale, winner in division III; trips to the State Fair were also awarded Pat and to Ann Roth, Brockway, and Joanne Richman, Robbon winners at Reedsport and Drain. High Court's Free Speech Verdict Seems Wise Despite Risks Involved By BRUCE BIOSSAY

The Supreme Court has handed down a decision on free speech

The Supreme Court has handed down a decision on free speech that goes to the roots of a dilemma in our democracy.

Here's the pizzle: Do our freedoms include the freedom to urge the destruction of the very liberties we prize?

Should free speech be permitted to a Communist or Faszist who advocates a system that would destroy free speech. Should a place on the ballot go in the man who, if elected, would abolish the ballot?

The men who made our Constitution were anxious to erect every possible safeguard for individual liberties. But it is hard in the birtial suicide of a democratic regime. The majority possible safeguard for individual liberties, and the suicide of a democratic regime. For Straying From Party

LONDON, May 26 — (P) — Prime Minister Attlee laid down to the law of Parliament who have been straying from the labor line.

Anxious to restore a united front against the growing challenge of Winston Churchill's conservatives, Attlee and party leader the Herbert Morrison faced the rebels at a closed door session in the House of Commons. It was considered certain that they rebuked the rebels severely for recent voting against party justicutions and insisted as leading to the supplementation of the law personally Wednesday to more than 70 Laborite members of Parliament who have been straying from the labor line.
