YONCALLA WOMEN'S STUDY CLUB HAS LAST MEETING OF YEAR

The last meeting of the Yoncalla Women's Study Club was held Thursday afternoon in the Epworth Hall of the Yoncalla Methodist Church. The last meeting is also commemorated as Senior Day, as the Senior girls and their mothers are guests of the club on that day.

Delicious luncheon was served to ten senior girls and their mothers and 20 club members. The social committee had charge of the beautiful decorations using the class colors red and white, with flowers on the table, white snapdragons and red roses. The senior girls were presented with lovely red and white carnation bouquets, and welcomed to the meeting by the president, Mrs. Ida Pinkston. Miss Elva Arnold gave a response for the class.

Following the luncheon a short program was enjoyed. Group singing of the Oregon State song, and reading the club Collect by Mrs. Rice. Invocation by Mrs. Reeves, chaplain, was followed by two piano solos by Molly Kingery. A very interesting talk on color in the home was given by Mrs. Art Richard. Mrs. Leslie Chapman gave a very interesting travelogue.

Judges, seated, are Miss Mary Beth Minden, home management specialist at Oregon State College, and Miss Esther Taskerud, assistant state 4-H leader, both of Corvallis. Blue, red and white ribbons were awarded girls judged best in clothing contests here and at Achievement Days at Reedsport and Drain. Champions will be selected at the first annual Douglas County Fair in August. (Picture by Paul Jenkins.)

APPEAL TO PRESIDENT — Imprisoned under a 141-year-old statute because they can't pay fees charged against them for auto accidents, Ralph J. Fugatt (left), who spent time in a Nazi prison during the war, and Bernard J. Smith, also an ex-G.I., look over their Army mementoes in the Rutland, Vt. jail. Fugatt has been imprisoned for 15 months. Neither can be released or put on bail unless, as the law states, they swear they have estates of "less than $20." Many groups are working to free them from the archaic sentences. In an open letter to President Truman, they appealed for his moral support.
