

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Two Heads Are Better Than One (Or None)

I get a kick out of buying stuff down at the hardware store. And I always ask for a little advice from one of the two brothers who run it, because I know beforehand exactly what the answer will be.

Like when I needed a new garden hose. "Henry," I says, "how about this new plastic hose—is it really as good as rubber?" "Well," he says, "I'm inclined to think it is—but you'd better ask Tom."

I found Tom in back and asks him the same question. "Well," says Tom, "in my opinion it is—but you'd better ask Henry." "I already have," I says, "and when you two cautious old codgers agree I'd bet my life on the decision."

From where I sit, your own opinion is worth a lot—but so's the other fellow's. That's why I keep saying, over and over, let's be tolerant of the other person's point of view—whether it's on politics or farming—or whether you like milk shakes and he prefers a temperate glass of beer.

Discarded 'Buttons' Prove Gold Coins; Old House Also Yields $40,000 Cache

CHICAGO, May 26 — (AP) — Mrs. Lucille Schader last week threw away a jar containing $300 in Mexican gold coins from her father's house in Duquoin, Ill.

Wednesday she was dazed by news that tenants to whom she had rented the house had found an estimated $40,000 worth of jewelry, oil and rail stocks, and government bonds while redecorating.

Mrs. Schader said a Duquoin attorney, Clarence Kimmel, had given her the news. She gave this account.

Her father, Michael Bradley, 53, a coal miner, died March 28. She went to Duquoin subsequently to tidy up his house preparatory to renting it. She found a jar containing "buttons" and threw it out without examination.

Neighbors noticed the bottle. The bank identified the "buttons" as Mexican coins, and they were placed in escrow. The house was rented to Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Schadle of Duquoin. They started to redecorate the dining room and found a box in a hole beneath the wallpaper. The box contained jewels belonging to Mrs. Schader's grandparents along with the bonds and stocks.

So now Mrs. Schader, who lives in Chicago, is going again to Duquoin.

Destroyed Chimes Will Be Replaced At University

SEATTLE, May 26 — (AP) — Melodic chimes will ring again at the University of Washington.

After fire Tuesday destroyed the historic chimes tower and its bells, university authorities disclosed that plans already had been prepared to install modern chimes in the new administration building.

In contrast to the 15,000-pound chimes which had rung in the old tower since 1911, the new ones will be about the size of "teacups," said Dean Herbert Condon. They will have a magnavox amplifier.

George Bailey, blind chimes ringer for 32 years, will have to take lessons for the new ones.

Soldiers Play At Quick Draw; One Meets Death

KYOTO, Japan, May 26 — (AP) — Pvt. Anderson Bryant Jr. and Donald Cornelison passed each other going on and off duty at the provost marshal's office.

Playfully each grabbed for his pistol in true Western bad man style. They repeated the performance several times, trying to see who was quicker on the draw.

Cornelison's pistol went off. Bryant fell dead.

An army spokesman said Cornelison, of Rome, Ga., was overcome with grief. He was not

Tragedy Hits 2 Boys While Flying Kite

NEW YORK, May 25 — (AP) — Atop a five-story building, Rubin placed under arrest but a formal investigation was started.

Ubinas, 15, was trying to get a new kite into the air yesterday. His eyes fixed on the kite, he walked backward towards the roof's edge.

From a nearby rooftop, Anthony Martin, 17, saw the danger. He tried to leap a 10-foot airshaft to stop Ubinas. The shaft was too wide. Martin didn't make the other side.

Simultaneously, the two boys plunged to the ground. Ubinas was killed. Martin was reported in critical condition today at a hospital.
