House Restores
Half Of Slash
In Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON, May 27.—(AP)—Heeding a plea by President Truman, the House Thursday restored half of the $150,000,000 cut from a foreign-aid bill by its Appropriations Committee. The vote was 120 to 39.

It voted to give $925,000,000 for government and relief in occupied areas instead of the $850,000,000 recommended by the Committee. The President had asked for $1,000,000,000. After the Committee cut he said the $850,000,000 would not be adequate.

Earlier House members announced agreement to an administration proposal to let the Economic Cooperation Administration operate during the next year on almost as much money as President Truman requested.

The agreement permits the money to be spent in a shorter period than the Committee had proposed.

"We will not oppose the amendment," Republican Leader Martin told newsmen. "As a matter of fact, we favor it."

Illiteracy data last collected by the Census Bureau in 1930, showed illiteracy in the United States had been cut to 4.3 per cent.

Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan, whose plans for farmers' federal subsidies had been the subject of much debate in Congress, will hold a press conference on the air on tomorrow night's "Meet the Press" broadcast at 7:30.

Many were the enemies of "The Cisco Kid" who would stop at nothing to be rid of Cisco's interference. One such man was a gambler and trickster, who never took a chance himself when he could get someone else to do it for him, as told during tonight's episode on "The Cisco Kid," titled "The Cisco Kid and the Catspaw." (7:30 - 8 p. m.)

Tune in "Straight Arrow" tonight at 8... "Scandinavian Melody Time" at 9:30... and "The Affairs of Peter Salem" at 10. Although Peter's ancestors were stout-hearted whalers, the extent of their descendant's sailing experiences is a trip on a Coney Island ferry. This is revealed during tonight's "Peter Salem" episode, entitled "The Affairs of the King of Babylon."

The first anniversary of the Military Air Transport Service will be commemorated by "The Air Force Hour," broadcast tomorrow at 11:30 a. m. The M. A. T. S. is a unified combination of the Air Force Transport Command and the Naval Air Transport Service, and the broadcast will feature a documentary sequence of M. A. T. S. activities throughout the world—including the Berlin Airlift, its first major undertaking.

Tomorrow night at 7, Jacques C. Trahan, a deep-sea diver; Dick Hart, chief of the window-washing crew for the Empire State Building; and Joseph Patrick O'Toole, a sand-hog currently working on the new Brooklyn-Manhattan vehicular tunnel, head the list of "live dangerously" people who will give emcee Red Benson of "Take a Number" the right answers—they hope.

Senate Rejects Bill To Up Crop Storage Space

WASHINGTON, May 26.—(AP)—The Senate today refused to accept a House-passed bill intended to provide additional storage space for crops under government price-support loans.

A motion to agree to a compromise of different bills originally passed by each branch of Congress was rejected 47 to 33.

Senators William (R-De) and Kem (R-Mo) led the fight against the compromise.

They objected to a provision that would permit the secretary of agriculture to name the directors of the Agriculture Department's Commodity Credit Corporation without approval by the Senate.
