This couple will have a number of surprises in store for them as they are personally interviewed during this thrilling new half-hour weekly feature sponsored by Lawson's Jewelry. Don't miss it!

At 8 tonight, Colin Clements and Larry Ryerson's rib-tickling comedy hit, "The Divine Flora," will be air-adapted on "Comedy Playhouse." Tune in "The Fishing and Hunting Club of the Air" at 8:30... a musical treat at 9:30 with the Gene Meigs Trio direct from the Shallmar Room... and "The Adventures of the Falcon" at 10.

Noticed a bit of new music being beamed your way over KRNR lately? Has quite a different flavor, hasn't it? All stems from the fact that we packaged our Standard Transcription Library and performed a swap-deal with our sister station, KFLW in Klamath Falls, which in turn, gave us their NBC Thesaurus Transcription Library. Know you're gonna like it.

Ailing Teacher Gets Refund After Resigning Job

ATLANTA, June 2.—(AP)—A determined teacher who has been staging a sit-down strike for $65.78, was promised her money Wednesday, but only after she gave up her job.

The 54-year-old woman, Dr. Willie Melmoth Bomar, home economics teacher of Glenwood, Ga., began her strike Monday in the office of the State Teachers' Retirement Board.

She wanted to collect the $65.78 deducted from her salary for the retirement fund to pay for treatment of a cancer.

J. L. Yaden, director of the retirement system, said she could not refund the money unless she resigned. Last year, he added, the pension money was returned to Dr. Bomar, who said she was going to quit, then failed to do so.

Wednesday morning, the teacher wired her resignation to Wheeler County School Superintendent T. C. Fulford. Yaden said he would return Dr. Bomar's money as soon as he received word from Fulford that the resignation had been accepted.

Close Guess On Flight Of Pigeons Wins $1,000

VICTORIA, B. C., June 2.—(CP)—Dr. S. Youlden will receive $1,000 tonight because he noticed how fast pigeons fly past the windows of his downtown dentist's office.

Dr. Youlden guessed within one minute the time it took a pigeon to fly from Spokane, Wash., to Victoria, B. C., in a contest staged by the Cordova Bay Community Club in conjunction with the Victoria Racing Pigeon Club. The pigeon took eight hours, 43 seconds.
