

Susan Motschenbacher Aspires To Reign Over Sutherlin Celebration

Smiling, brunette Susan Motschenbacher, above, of Roseburg was announced today as the first candidate for queen of the 1949 Douglas County Timber Days Celebration at Sutherlin July 2, 3 and 4.

Susan is a 17-year-old graduating senior at Roseburg High School who plans to enter Oregon State College in September. Her ambition is to be an accountant.

Whether Susan will be chosen queen will be decided June 10. All the candidates representing high schools of Douglas County will participate then in a talent show, to be held in connection with Sally Hill's variety show that night in the Senior High School auditorium.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Motschenbacher, 1088 Winchester St., Susan has been in the public eye, as lead bugler in the Knights of Pythias Girls Drum Corps. She has also been a queen.

Last month, as a climax to her high school career, she was chosen queen of the annual May Fete. She also has served as queen in Job's Daughters, of which she is a member. She's taken part in many high school class plays and was business manager of the senior play this year.

Susan was born July 24, 1932, at Klamath Falls and moved with her parents to Roseburg at the age of four years. She stands 5 feet 4 inches tall and weighs 130 pounds. Her talent is reading.
