Phils Smash Five Homers In Eighth Inning Swatfest

Record Tied In Win Over Cincinnati

Cardinals Beat Dodgers In 14 Frames; Leonard Of Chisox Blanks Giants

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Staff Writer

Five home runs in a smashing eighth-inning rally last night put the 1949 Phils in the record books alongside the 1939 New York Giants. The Phils had six round-trippers for the night, one short of the National League record.

Andy Seminick, who nicked Cincinnati pitching for three homers last evening, made the Phils' feat distinct because he hammered two in the same inning. That tied a major league mark shared by several players. The last time it was done was by Joe DiMaggio, June 24, 1936.

Del Ennis' homer started the big inning, which opened with Ken Raffensberger enjoying a 3-2 lead. Seminick came next. Before it was over, 10 runs were home and Puddin' Head Jones, Schoolboy Rowe and Seminick again had hit the ball out of the park. Seminick's second of the inning came with two on. The final score was 12-3.

Warren Spahn boosted the Boston Braves' National League lead to two full games by defeating Pittsburgh, 4-1, while both the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers lost.

Cardinals Win in 14th
Brooklyn's Don Newcombe blew a 4-1 lead in the ninth and the Dodgers finally succumbed to the St. Louis Cardinals in the 14th, 7-4, on Stan Musial's two-run triple and Chuck Diering's double.

Dutch Leonard silenced the powerful Giants with three singles in Chicago's 3-0 victory over Sheldon Jones. The veteran knuckler had a one-hitter until the eighth.

Tommy Henrich, who beat the Chicago White Sox Wednesday night with a homer, added his 11th homer and a triple to lead the New York Yankees to a 12-7 victory. The win and Boston's night loss to Cleveland increased the Yank's lead to 5 1/2 games.

Lou Boudreau, playing with a broken finger, backed up Bob Lemon's five-hit pitching with a double and single as the crippled Cleveland Indians topped the Red Sox, 8-3.

Washington, the surprise team of the league, moved to within 5 1/2 games of the lead by handing the St. Louis Browns their eighth straight loss, 4-1. Eddie Yost's homer with two on capped a four-run rally in the eighth.

Detroit again nipped Philadelphia in the 10th inning, 5-4, with Evert Evers the hero. Evers doubled and scored on Johnny Groth's single. In the eighth Evers hit his second homer of the year with two on to tie the score.

Stars Shut Out Angelinos; Oaks Blank The Seals

By JIM BACON
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Pat Greeny bobbed four outfield chances to help the Pacific Coast League-leading Hollywood Stars to a 6-to-0 win over Los Angeles, last night.

The Angels' Don Watkins, in losing, hurled six-hit ball. The Stars' Jack Salveson, meanwhile, gave up eight hits to the Angels but got iron-clad support in the clutches for a shutout.

The win kept Hollywood six games ahead of the San Diego Padres, who beat Seattle, 11 to 10, in 10 innings. The Rainiers scored seven runs in the first of the ninth to go ahead, 10 to 8. Tien the Padres scored two in the last of the ninth to tie up the game.

Bob Wilson doubled in the tenth and then came home with the winning run when Al Lyons overthrew second base. Wilson also homered in the sixth.

Lou Tost, with great support in the clutches, pitched the Oakland Oaks to a 3-to-0 shutout over San Francisco. Tost gave up six hits but the losing pitcher, Al Lien, gave up only five. Lien had pitched no-hit ball until the fifth.

The cellar-dwelling Portland Beavers exploded for eight runs in the last three innings to overcome Sacramento, 10 to 7. Eddie Basinski doubled in the tying and winning runs in the ninth with the bases loaded. Luis Marquez singled in two more for good measure.

Stojack Faces Tough Challenger In Rene LaBelle

Tex Hager, a headliner in most of the nation's wrestling capitals, selected an inopportune time to make his first Douglas County appearance in several months. The popular little Oregonian, who once wrestled for the world's light-heavyweight championship and is an ex-coast titleholder, will wrestle rugged Tony Filletti, the bashing Brooklynite, in the semifinal attraction at the Roseburg Armory Saturday night.

The headliner, which is expected to attract a near-capacity crowd, will feature a Pacific Coast junior heavyweight championship battle between titleholder Frankie Stojack, Tacoma, against challenger Rene LaBelle, Montreal.

The Hager-Filletti skirmish may match the title tilt for fireworks. Filletti is a rough-and-tough matman and Hager may be forced to use like tactics to protect himself. Hager is quite capable of dishing out as much punishment as the ordinary villain hands out.

Quite a few local ringbirds, who study their grappling form charts as carefully as a "horse player," predict a new Coast champion after Saturday night.

LaBelle is certainly as formidable as any matman to show here in the last six months. He has racked up one victory after another and his spectacular drop-kicks and double leg Nelsons have made him the most-feared wrestler now campaigning in the Pacific Northwest. He recently won a one-night elimination tournament from a fast field, and then teamed with Pierre LaBelle to beat Filletti and Tony Ross, the "Salem Sadist," in a tag-team test.

Stojack, who has demanded a $250 guarantee and a re-match in case of a loss, holds LaBelle in high respect or he wouldn't have bothered to make the demands. The former WSC athlete, who uses the airplane spin for most of his triumphs, is always tougher when his title is at stake. Except for a two-week period, when Al Szasz held the crown, Stojack has been reigning as king of the coast junior heavyweights for more than a year.

The opening bout will get under way at 8:30 p.m. Elton Owen will referee both bouts.

Junior Legion Baseball Will Start Saturday With Roseburg vs. Drain

Junior Legion baseball, under Coach Barney Koch, starts league play at 8 p. m. Saturday night, at Finlay Field, against a formidable Drain organization. The Drain roster will be well-filled with members of the state championship B League baseball club of Drain High School.

Coach Koch said Pitcher Mickey Coen and Catcher John Rauchert will be the starting Roseburg battery. Other players will include Glen Schofield, first base; Dexter Garey, second base; Louis Ripberger or Frank Olson, shortstop; Lloyd Stumbo, third base; "Diz" Burnett, right field; Howard Stumbo, center field; and Norm Stumbo, left field. Other players may include Bob Barrow, Claren Hooper and Bob Sullivan.

The Roseburg Junior Legion Club has been outfitted with brand-new uniforms. They are white, trimmed with red. Red caps and red and white socks complete the ensemble. Ford Motor Company and American Legion emblems identify the players as being sponsored by the two organizations.

Season tickets, admitting fans to all Junior Legion games, may be had from American Legion members or Boy Scouts of Troop 7, according to Frank Hammerschmidt, Junior Legion baseball chairman. A $1.50 donation, to be used to defray the cost of uniforms and other baseball equipment, will entitle the donor to a season pass.

Six league games and several exhibition games are on the agenda for Junior Legion players. On June 11, Sutherland will play Roseburg in Finlay Field, and on June 18, Tri-City comes here. The Roseburg club takes to the road after that, playing Drain there on June 25, at Sutherland on July 2 and a day game at Tri-City on July 9.

Six teams are scheduled to participate in the City League. They include Scherner Squirts, headed by Fred Scherner; Roseburg Elks, headed by Lyle Harrell; Sutherland Pastime, headed by Goose Mardin; Montgomery Ward, headed by Lewis McAllister; Pepsi Cola, headed by Louis Fullerton, and Umpqua Plywood.

Mardin is president of the League.

North Umpqua Fishing Outlook Unpredictable

PORTLAND, June 3.—(AP)—Scattered good fishing spots, from Odell Lake in the Deschutes country to the Douglas County coastal area, were reported by the State Game Commission Thursday.

Many areas, however, promised only fair angling for the week-end.

The weekly fishing bulletin said in part:

Douglas County—Reedsport—streams and lakes in area are in excellent condition for weekend angling. A few striped bass have been caught in lower Umpqua. Trout angling good. Bass fishing improving at Loon Lake. Trout, perch and cutfish being taken at Tenmile Lake.

Douglas County—Roseburg—upper Umpqua area stream levels fluctuating making predictions difficult. Trout angling should be good if water is okay.

Woodcock K. O.s Mills; Takes On Savold Next

LONDON, June 3.—(AP)—Bruce Woodcock, a fugitive from ring oblivion, is being hailed today as a worthy foe for American Lee Savold in their Sept. 6 bout which Britain, at least, terms a world heavyweight championship affair.

Woodcock retained his British Empire and European heavyweight titles last night by knocking out world light-heavyweight king Freddie Mills, also of England, in the 14th round.

Woodcock beat Savold on a controversial fourth-round foul last December.

Roseburg Golfers To Vie At Cottage Grove

The Roseburg Country Club will send about 25 golfers to Cottage Grove Sunday, to participate in a dual meet. This is one of a series of meets scheduled throughout the summer months.

Bowling Scores

Roseburg bowlers continued to rack up strikes and spares at the local kegling emporium. Summer league play, going into its fifth week, sees team number one of the mixed league leading the field, while team number six in the doubles league pace all others.

Team one included M. and E. Batt, D. Root and T. Mix. Team six is made up of Teany and Esberg.

Amie Young led the mixed league in high individual game and series scores this week, with a 236 and a 591 score. Bill Teany, with a 243 high individual game score and Teany and Baughman, tied with a 584 series score, led doubles league players in games Thursday night.

Auto Race Driver Dies Of Speedway Injuries

INDIANAPOLIS, June 3.—(AP) George A. Metzler, 38-year-old Indianapolis auto race driver, died today of injuries suffered May 28 when he crashed during a practice run at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Metzler, a veteran dirt track driver, was married and the father of one child. His death marked the 22nd driver fatality at the Indianapolis track since 1909.

The ancient Romans often built huge ponds in which they kept decorative fish.

Chiefs Will Play Ashland Sunday

The Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs travel to Ashland Sunday, for their fourth Southern Oregon League contest. Manager Earl Sargent revealed that Claude Buckley, sensational young roundsman from Oregon College of Education, will start the action from the hill this week-end.

Buckley, who has hurled two games so far for Roseburg, allowed only seven hits in a league action with Prospect. He struck out eight men in the first three innings of the game. Altogether, he fanned 11 that day.

Pitching against Crescent City on May 29, Buckley allowed only five hits, one in the second, third and seventh innings, and two in the ninth. He struck out seven batters.

Other league games scheduled for Sunday include Medford at Crescent City, Central Point at Ashland and Tri-City at Grants Pass.

Playing Field Sought By Softball League

Lack of information as to the availability of a playing field is holding up softball play in the Roseburg City League. Jeff Jeffries indicated when queried Thursday.

The Roseburg City League softball secretary said the teams are ready to play, but efforts to secure a ball diamond have not been successful.

Six teams are scheduled to participate in the City League.
