KDND DIAL-LOG

Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney, (D.) of Wyoming, will be the interview guest for "Meet the Press" this evening at 6. He will answer questions posed by Warren Francis of the Los Angeles Times, Ruth Montgomery, New York Daily News; Phelps Adams, New York Sun, and Lawrence Spivak, editor, American Mercury Magazine.

SUNDAY PROGRAM NOTES: One of those unusual cases in police annals, "The Crime Without Clues," where every clue uncovered by authorities led up a blind alley, will be heard on "True Detective Mysteries" at 1:30. Coffee was responsible for a truck driver's death and it is coffee that catches his murderers, with some assistance from "Nick Carter, Master Detective," during "The Case of the Coffee Killers" at 3:30.

At 4:30 Sunday, Lloyd Nolan will be the host and Jeanne Cagney will be starred when "The Family Theater" program presents "The Hidden Heart." It's a story about a self-made businessman who finds that his philosophy of self-sufficiency has many flaws. A bad accident makes him realize the error of his methods. At 6, details of an alleged plot involving collaboration between Hitler's generals and the Soviet Union, which is reported to have taken place at the time of the battle of Stalingrad in World War II, will be dramatized during the "Secret Missions" broadcast. Rear Admiral Ellis M. Zacharias, war-time deputy commander of the Office of Naval Intelligence, will act as narrator during the broadcast. Tune in Jack and Jeanne Josse with another informal chat at 6:30 on "Life Begins at Home." At 8, soprano Maggie Teyte, long-time favorite French song stylist, will be guest of the week for the "Twenty Questions" broadcast.

PROGRAM CHANGES: Beginning Monday, "The Modern Home," with May Matthews, will be heard 8:30 to 8:45 a. m. Monday through Saturday. "Wally's Coffee Time" has been rescheduled at a time to be announced in Monday's "Dial Log."

Youngsters adore peanut butter frosting on cookies or cake. To prepare it, cream a quarter cup of butter or margarine with a quarter cup of peanut butter until the mixture is extremely well blended and fluffy. Add a cup of confectioners' sugar, beating well after each addition. Thin to a good spreading consistency with about 4 teaspoons of water, adding a teaspoon at a time and beating well. Decorate the frosted cupcakes or cookies with peanut halves.
