Picture by Bud Mason

Ardyth J. Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Hill of Roseburg, became the bride of Raymond Hough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hough of this city, Sunday, May 29th, at the First Baptist Church. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. P. Sconce, who is attending the conference in San Francisco, the double ring ceremony was performed at three o'clock by Rev. Ralph Askew, assisted by Rev. Kenneth W. Knox.

One-hundred friends and relatives attended the ceremony. An arch of ivy and roses formed the background for the ceremony. Floor baskets, filled with mixed spring flowers, and flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers, completed the decorations. Miss Abby Moore and Miss Marie Wakefield of Camas Valley lighted the candles. They wore pink formals and wristlets of white carnations.

Mrs. James Strasburg played the wedding music and accompanied her husband, who sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of ivory brocaded satin fashioned with long train, long sleeves and a net yoke with round neckline. Her three-quarter length veil was held in place with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by a white orchid with a pink throat and tied with a shower of pink satin ribbons knotted with stephanotis.

Miss Wanda Morris was maid of honor and wore a gown of blue organdy. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations circled with white net and tied with yellow ribbons.

Miss Lorraine Tanner, wearing yellow organdy with lace insertions, and Miss Vivienne Goule, wearing a pink taffeta trimmed in net, were bridesmaids and carried bouquets of pink carnations, circled with white net, and tied with pink ribbons.

Norma Joyce Hill, sister of the bride, was flower girl and wore a gown of blue taffeta and carried yellow carnations, flecked with pink and tied with pink net loops and pink satin ribbons.

Jack Royer was best man and ushers were Arnold Nashund and Leighton Hill, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a navy dress with grey accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua dress with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The beautifully appointed table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bridal couple and wedding bell. Yellow and white streamers and an arch of ivy and wild lilac blossoms decorated the room.

The cake was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. W. H. Scofield, assisted by Mrs. Dwight La Bore, Mrs. Harry Krug poured the coffee and Mrs. Roy Bell, cousin of the bridegroom, served the punch. Mrs. Vernon Keel assisted with arrangements for the reception and assisting was Mrs. Alvera Peterson, Mrs. Calvin Baird and Mrs. W. H. Scofield were in charge of the table decorations. Mrs. Vern South and Mrs. Louis Neureiter were in charge of the gifts and Miss Virginia Mack had charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Fred Reelfs of Palo Alto, Calif., and Mrs. Ada Chapman, of Gridley, Calif., aunts of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cahill of Albany; Miss Janice Whipple and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rydell and daughter, Donna, of Drain; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Heddon, of Elkton; Mr. and Mrs. L. Royer and Miss Mary, Miss Helen and Robert Royer, and Miss Frances White, all of Eugene.

For traveling the bride chose a pink three-piece suit with white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon to Seaside, they will be at home to their friends at 822 Eddy Street in Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and is employed as long-distance operator for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. The bridegroom was graduated from Neola, Iowa, High School and is employed by Hudson-Duncan Company.
