

Umpqua Chiefs Defeat Ashland, 17-11

Lithians Help Winners With Nine Errors

Reed Replaces Buckley On Mound In 6th Frame; West Clouts 3 Doubles

The Umpqua Chiefs smothered four Ashland pitchers Sunday afternoon when they smashed out 14 base hits, five of them good for extra bases and 17 runs to win a free-hitting loosely-played contest 17-11 from the Ashland Lithians. The game, lasting more than three and one-half hours, was filled with extra base hits and arguments with the umpires.

The Chiefs initiated the scoring in the first inning. Barney Koch led off with a walk and Virg Sanders sacrificed him to second. In a nice play, Fitcher, Martindale threw to shortstop Jandreau to trap Koch off second. George Sanders and Norm West walked, however, and scored when Smith booted Huggins' ground ball.

The Lithians tied things up in their half of the first, when DeAutremont hit Buckley's first delivery for a home run. Campbell walked and went to second when George Sanders lost Jandreau's high pop-up in the sun. Huggins threw out Campbell trying to steal third. On an attempted pick-off play, Buckley threw into center field allowing Jandreau to score.

The Chiefs chased across four runs after two were out in the second. Long and Baker grounded out but Scherner got his first of four walks and Buckley walked also. Koch smashed a single, scoring Scherner. DeAutremont dropped Virg Sanders fly to center, Buckley and Koch scoring. George Sanders followed with a triple, scoring Virg.

Ruling Bans Home Run
Koch led off a big Chief fifth inning with a single. Virg Sanders again sacrificed him to second. George Sanders struck out but West doubled to right, scoring Koch. Huggins and Long followed with singles, scoring West. Baker then hit a tremendous drive into right field which bounced over a fence. This led to an argument. Ground rules stated if a ball bounced, then went over the fence, the hit was only good for two bases. This ruling robbed Baker of a home run and led to a long argument by Coach Bunky Hill and Manager Earl Sargent with the umpire. The umpire refused to budge.

Scherner followed with another base on balls and Campbell dropped Buckley's high pop fly, allowing Long and Baker to score. Ashland bounced back in their half of the fourth, when, with one away, Schopf doubled and Buckley hit Farthing. Hisy, third Ashland pitcher, forced Farthing at second, but DeAutremont singled, scoring Schopf. Campbell then blasted a home run. They closed the gap further in the fifth inning, when two walks and a bad throw produced a run.

In the sixth, the Lithians chased Buckley to the showers when he walked DeAutremont, a young

Seattle Rainiers, By Twin Bill Victory Over Padres, Reach Second Spot In Coast Race

By JIM HUBBART

Associated Press Sports Writer
Early in the season, the dopsters were picking the Seattle Rainiers as the team to beat in the Pacific Coast League pennant race. It took the Rainiers quite a while to gather up steam, but today they are holding down second place by virtue of a double victory Sunday over San Diego.

The Padres dropped the opener, 7 to 2 and the second game, 5 to 4. Guy Fletcher, ace of the Seattle pitching staff, turned in his 12th straight triumph and his 13th of the season in the first contest, a 10-inning affair. Bill Ramsey singled to start a five run rally in the 10th which drove Xavier Rescigno to the showers. Reliever Herb Karpel, replacing Denny Galehouse in the fifth, was the second game hurler who sank San Diego to third in the standings. Seattle took the series, 5 to 1.

Los Angeles split with Hollywood. Bob Kelly turned in a three-hit performance for the Seraphs in the nightcap, shutting out the Twinks, 8 to 0. The opener was a free-swinging scrap which Hollywood won, 13 to 7.

Hollywood took the series, 5 games to 1.
San Francisco and Oakland each won one Sunday. The morning game went to the A's, 3 to 2. But the Seals bounced back in the afternoon for an 11-to-8 triumph. They split the series at 3 and 3.

At Sacramento the last place Portlanders took the seven-inning opener, 5 to 4. However, a four-hit pitching job by Bob Gillette gave the Solons a 7 to 2 win in the nightcap.

In the second game, the Solons blasted Bill Sweiger to the showers in the first inning, scoring two runs. They never headed after that.

Philadelphia and Chicago divided a doubleheader; the Phils winning the opener, 7-2, and the Cubs coming back to eke out an 8-7 triumph in the nightcap.

American League Results
The American League leading New York Yankees finally were beaten on the road when they split a doubleheader with the Browns in St. Louis. The Yankees made it four in a row winning the opener, 6-4, but the Browns ended an 11-game losing streak winning the second, 7-6.

The Tigers earned a split with the Boston Red Sox, coming back to win the second game, 11-5. After Boston had won the opener, 5-3. Homers by Ted Williams and Matt Batts, each with one, helped Joe Dobson win over Virgil Trucks.

The Cleveland Indians continued to find Sunday a sad Sabbath losing both ends of a doubleheader to the Philadelphia Athletics, 3-0 and 4-2.

Eddie Joost homered in each game, his 11th and 12 of the year. Washington and the Chicago White Sox split one-run decisions. The Senators winning the opener, 7-6, and the White Sox taking the second, 5-4.

Giants Defeat Cincy, Regain League Lead

Cardinals Down Braves, Pirates Defeat Dodgers; Indians Drop Twin Bill

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
The home run socking New York Giants lead the pack today in another tinging National League pennant race. Yet everybody is watching those old stretch runners—the St. Louis Cardinals.

Two weeks ago—after the first half of a May 22 doubleheader—they were in seventh place, a half step out of the cellar. Now they are in fourth place only a game and a half behind the pace-setting Giants.

The Cards made it two in a row over Boston yesterday, defeating the Braves, 8-1, and dumping them into second place, a half game behind the winning Giants. Al Brazle spaced eight hits for his sixth victory.

The Giants went into first place with a 6-1 victory over Cincinnati. A two-run first inning homer by Sid Gordon, followed by Walker Cooper's four-bagger with two on, gave Pitcher Larry Jansen a wide margin.

The cellar-dwelling Pittsburgh Pirates dropped Brooklyn into third place, a full game from the top, defeating the Dodgers in a 10-inning tussle, 5-4. Ralph Kiner's 13th homer of the season broke up the overtime battle.

Philadelphia and Chicago divided a doubleheader; the Phils winning the opener, 7-2, and the Cubs coming back to eke out an 8-7 triumph in the nightcap.

Jack Cody Resigns Post As Athletic Swim Coach
PORTLAND, Ore., June 6.—(AP)—Jack Cody, who has produced Olympic Champions and national titlists during 36 years as Multnomah Athletic Club swimming coach, resigned today.

The veteran water mentor said he plans to move to Southern California and possibly accept one of several offers made by resorts in that area.

It was Cody who trained the famed Multnomah Athletic Club girls team—the "Cody Kids"—that won 16 relay championships, three national team titles, and numerous individual records. Three of the original "Cody Kids"—Nancy Merkl, Brenda Helser, and Suzanne Zimmerman—competed in the last Olympic games.

MAC said its summer schedule would continue under swimming instructor Jack Pobochnenko.

Sam Snead Wins New Golf Title

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(AP) Sam Snead waved another warning flag today for rivals in the National Open Golf championship.

With the Master's and the P. G. A. championships already dangling from his belt, Slamming Sammy added the national celebrities title to his collection yesterday.

And the manner in which he did it bodes ill for his opponents in the open starting Thursday at Chicago.

Sam shot rounds of 65 and 66 in the two-day event, his 131 total topping that of his closest rival, George Fazio, by four strokes.

The tournament, sponsored by the Washington Post with proceeds going to the campaign to combat juvenile delinquency, was the most successful in the three-year history of the event. An estimated gallery of more than 16,000 watched the competition.
