Sheriff's Posse Not Going To Rose Festival

The Douglas County Sheriff's Posse will not be represented in the Portland Rose Festival.

Sheriff O. T. "Bud" Carter said today that the close schedule with the Rodeo coming up June 17, 18 and 19, and the fact the posse went to Lebanon's Strawberry Festival last weekend make it impossible for the posse to go to Portland this year.

Plans had been made to enter a rose-covered car in which Rodeo Queen Nadene Sparks was to ride, but this has also been canceled, since the Rose Festival Committee required that at least $2,000 be spent on any float entry.
