Gimmell, Gordon, Becoming Roseburg Residents, Working Out Hard For June 17 Bouts

That Roseburg is becoming the boxing capital of the Northwest is still evident in its appeal to boxers who have fought here. Mickey Gimmell, who came here as a substitute fighter one Friday night several months ago, decided he liked it so well, he moved in bag and baggage.

The popular young puncher came into town Sunday and is currently on the lookout for work and a place to live. When he is able to find a home and work, he will send for his wife and three children, ages 4, 21 and 3 years.

Currently, Gimmell can be found working out at the Roseburg Army, in preparation for the Friday, June 17 outdoor fight card. He is scheduled to fight in the eight-round semi-final. His opponent is tentatively scheduled to be Pinky Cowan of Spokane. Gimmell and Cowan, two weeks ago, put on an extremely creditable show, voted by fans as the outstanding performance on the card. Gimmell was also awarded an extra prize purse as the best performer on the bill.

Gimmell has had some 60 fights to date. Of these, he lost 12—11 on decisions and one by being stopped. Gimmell KO'd 10 opponents.

Formerly listed in writeups as hailing from Redding, Calif., Gimmell will now list his fight headquarters as Roseburg. Gordon Also Living Here

Another fighter scheduled to put Roseburg on the boxing map is Babe "Hardrock" Gordon, who will fight Joe Kahut, the Woodburn, Oregon farmer, in the 10-round main event of the coming card. Hailing from Los Angeles, Gordon moved here recently with his wife and is making this city his home.

Although not too well known here for his ring prowess, Gordon is considered a top-flight boxer in California pugilistic circles. He has had 104 ring encounters, both amateur and professional. In his last 33 fights Gordon won 25, lost six, and drew two. This group of ring battles includes 10 KOs. He fought 13 straight without a loss.

Promoters Ernie Nazlerod and Sandy Sanders emphasize that the June 17 go between Kahut and Gordon will not be an exhibition match. "A decision will be rendered by the referee and judges, unless, one or the other is stopped due to a KO or TKO," Nazlerod stated.

Reservations for seats can be made at J.V. Sporting Goods or Monarch Cigar Store. Mail orders can be sent to Ernie Nazlerod, post office box 501, Roseburg.

Class Schedules At Swim Pool Are Announced

Assignments of students to the first swimming class series at the Roseburg Municipal Swimming Pool have been announced. Separate classes for boys and girls are scheduled at the same half-hour period each morning. The 10 o'clock classes are for boys and girls age 6 to 9 years; 10:30 classes for boys and girls of the same age; 11 o'clock classes for girls 9 to 11 years and boys 7 to 9 years; 11:30 classes for boys and girls 10 to 12 years. The series is for 10 days, June 7 through June 17, Sunday excepted. A new class series starts June 21. The list includes:

Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs will hold a hitting practice tonight at Finlay Field, starting at 5:30. This will be the only drill before the Chiefs oppose the Oakland Oaks in a game here Friday night.

The Friday night contest will be unique in that both managers, Earl Sargent of the Chiefs and Hoot Gibson of the Oaks, will do the hurling for their respective teams.

Billed as "The battle of the managers," both Sargent and Gibson will try to last out the first inning, before the ravages of inactivity begin to slow up these former semi-pro pitchers.

Sargent, a knuckleball artist, pitched in the greater Portland League in 1941. He won 12 games and lost none while hurling for Birley's baseball nine.

Hoot Gibson is an old-time chucker who reportedly has struck out opponents left and right. The pitchers' duel promises to be a crowd-pleasing contest, information close to the managers say.

Pete Coor, ailing Chiefs' catcher, presently recovering rapidly from an appendectomy, is expected to start catching again in the near future. Coor is not only a clever catcher, but a reliable hitter as well. The addition of Coor to the Chiefs' lineup is expected to enhance Roseburg's chances for future wins.

Sunday, the Chiefs play Tri-City, an aggregation of Myrtle Creek and vicinity players, at Fin-

Sugar Ray Robinson Kaysos Flores in Third

NEW MEDFORD, Mass., June 8.—(AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson, the welterweight champion, today rated his 155th victory in 156 starts as an ideal workout for his title defense against Kid Gavilan in Philadelphia next month.

The clever Robinson sharpened up his terrific left hooks for that occasion here last night by blasting out Freddy Flores, a rugged fellow New Yorker, in the third round of their scheduled 10-round overweight bout. Robinson weighed 151 while spotting Flores nine pounds.

At Syracuse last night Gavilan knocked out Cliff Hart of that city in the second round.
