

NATURE'S AIR CONDITIONING — Nature turned on its "air conditioning" and fog poured through the Golden Gate to bring relief to the Bay Area following a record-breaking 92 degrees on June 4. The incoming fog lowered the temperature reading by 23 degrees, to a comfortable 69. This airview takes in the Marin County hills in the background, the bridge partially obscured by fog, and a section of San Francisco in the foreground. (AP Wirephoto.)

Personnel For Camp Fire Girls Camp Selected

The camp personnel, except for a swimming instructor, has been selected for Camp Fire Girls' summer camp at Tye. Any person qualified or knowing of a qualified swimming instructor who may be available for the five weeks' camp, starting July 17, is asked to contact Mrs. Tom Parageter, camp committee chairman, or the Camp Fire Girls' office in the basement at Miller's.

Miss Lois Fitzgibbons is the camp director, and Mrs. Ella Herbison, last year's cook at Rose School, will be camp cook, assisted by Mrs. Ethel Hecathorn, lunch room cook at Roseburg Junior High.

Frances Stein, R. N., nurse in Dr. J. M. Boyles' office, has volunteered her services as camp nurse the first two weeks of camp, and Mrs. Stella Galla, R. N., has been secured for the remainder of the series, so the parents are assured of a registered nurse on duty during the entire term.

While registration for the first two weeks of Camp Fire Girls' camp and first week of Blue Bird camp is full, registrations can still be taken for the third week of Camp Fire, opening July 31, and the second week of Blue Birds, opening August 14. The first three weeks are for Camp Fire Girls' sessions, and the last two weeks are for the Blue Birds.

Four camps were the reward for the Camp Fire Girls who sold tickets to the Spring Festival. The girls won over the Boy Scouts, and received $56, or the equivalent of the four camps.

Patricia Payne alone sold over 300 tickets. She is a member of Iva Camp Fire Group of St. Joseph's School, with Mrs. Rita Smith as guardian. She received one of the camps, and the other three will be divided among three other groups: Okiya, Mrs. Rose O'Brien, guardian; Nawadaha, Mrs. Virginia Russell, guardian, and Cantawasta, of Winchester, Mrs. Dortha Sall, guardian.

Outdoor Council Fire Planned By Girls Unit

Roseburg Camp Fire Girls will hold their first public outdoor council fire, a prelude to Camp Tye summer sessions, at Umpqua Park Monday, June 13, at 7:30 p. m. Parents and friends are invited and all Camp Fire Girls are requested to attend.

The program, which promises to be outstanding in its outdoor setting, will include an Indian pageant by the Potowatom group under the leadership of Mrs. Sidney Domenico.

Each group will send a dream boat, with lighted candles down the river with a wish for Camp Tye or Camp Fire. The songs to be included in the evening's program include "We Come, We Come," "Camp Fire Law," "We're on the Upward Trail," "Burn Fire, Burn," "Star Spangled Banner," "Now Our Camp Fire Fadeth" and "Call of the Fire."

REFUGEE AIDER—Joseph C. Grew, above, former undersecretary of state, announced formation of a committee to aid democratic leaders who escape to the U. S. from behind the Iron Curtain. Besides Grew, the committee includes Francis Biddle, Lt.-Gen. Hugh Drum and Dwight D. Eisenhower. Headquarters will be in New York.

Summer School Offered Here For Makeup Work

Summer school for grade children forced to fall behind in their work and High School students needing extra credit for graduation or makeup work will open next Monday, June 13, announced Paul Elliott.

Registration will be held from 8:30 to 9 a. m. on that day. The summer series will be for six weeks, closing July 22, and the hours are from 9 a. m. until 12 noon.

Elementary classes for grades two to nine will provide two subjects for the children. Senior High students, grades 10 to 12, may take required work in English, American and world history and commercial law. All classes will be in Junior High School. Fees will be $20 for one subject and $30 for two subjects.

As the only compensation to the teachers is from fees, whether or not the classes are held will be determined by the number of students to enroll. Elementary classes will be taught by Mrs. Margaret Adair, grades seven to nine and by Mrs. Jennie Neseth, grades two to six. Senior High classes will be conducted by Miss Ruth Roberts.

Losee, New Dist. Governor, Long In Lions' Service

Forrest Losee, Roseburg, was chosen district Lions governor for Southern Oregon District 36-E, at the conclusion of the Lions Club state convention held June 5, 6 and 7 at Astoria.

District 36-E takes in all of Southern Oregon south of Drain, but excluding Gardiner - Reedport, and east to include Lakeview, Klamath Falls, Bly and Merrill.

This is the first time Roseburg has ever had a district governor. Losee succeeds Lee Murphy of Junction City, and won out over candidates from Klamath Falls and Medford, with the latter two retiring in time to make the balloting unanimous. Medford was selected as the 1950 convention site.

Losee was first Lions secretary of Castle Rock, Colo., 1926-27, a member at large, Colorado, Calif., 1930-34; member

Roseburg Lions Club since 1944; president Roseburg Lions 1947-48, during which time clubs were chartered at Riddle, Canyonville and Myrtle Creek. Local membership increased from 53 to 79, and projects completed numbered 18. He served as deputy district governor in 1948-49.

Ten members of the Roseburg Lions Club and the wives of some attended the Astoria Conclave. They included Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harth, Mr. and Mrs. Buckley Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hellwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Welker, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Klatt, Mr. and Mrs. Losee, Marshall Haughn, Dr. Wikoff, Ralph Turner, and Joe and Mrs. L. M. Lehrbach.
