

Truman Administration Sabotaging Own Program, Senator Cain Charges

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—(AP)—There's a "governmental sit-down strike in Washington by which, obviously, the Truman administration is seeking to sabotage its own so-called legislative program," Sen. Harry P. Cain (R., Wash.) declared here.

In his talk to the 11-state Western Republican conference, he said: "We have the spectacle of a newly-elected president with a Congress including majorities of his own party in both the Senate and the House, not only failing to translate into law any of the administration campaign promises, but actually doing everything within its power to prevent action on legislation in line with the pledges made by Mr. Truman and the Democrat platform of 1948."

"Don't misunderstand me," Cain added hastily. "It would be the greatest calamity ever suffered by our nation if that program should be by some mischance enacted. But, he said, Mr. Truman claims a mandate from the people and one would expect the Democratic House and Senate to try, yet "not only are they not trying, but at the direct instigation of Mr. Truman, they are making sure that no move of any consequence is made to fulfill those promises."

Cain said that "this all must add up to something. It does. It adds up to the necessity—the absolute necessity, in my opinion—for us to elect a Republican Congress next year."

ADMINISTRATOR NAMED

J. G. Stephenson has been appointed administrator of the estate of Ella B. Harris, who died in Douglas County May 25, 1949, at the age of 65 years. The appointment was made by County Judge D. N. Busenbark upon petition of Karl Henry Faulkner, a son, and Betty Moore, a daughter of the deceased. Named as appraisers were Morris Bowker, R. E. Dixon and L. E. McClintock.

DEPUTIES TAKE

Deputy Sheriffs Ira Byrd and Walter Wilson left Friday morning for Salem, where they took two men sentenced to serve in the state penitentiary. The men were Dale Zitek, 19, charged with parole violation, and Rayford Boyce Hilburn, who was sentenced by Circuit Judge Carl E. Wimberly on a charge of larceny by baillee to serve two years in the state penitentiary.

Old Flame Wins Out In Rivalry For Mate Seeker

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 11.—(AP)—Lucille Archibuteo—lucious Lucy, the husband hunter—changed her mind Friday.

She brushed aside all the eligible males at the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce convention, and decided that an old flame had taken on a new glow.

Lucy came here for the announced purpose of finding a husband. It was a radio program stunt, but the 23-year-old Los Angeles accounting clerk really went to work at it.

She picked out her man—Sandy Crews, a blond Canadian. Before that romance could jell, Jimmy Ahearn, a southern gentleman from Atlanta, and George Von Tobel, a cowboy-booted engineer from Las Vegas, Nev., bid for her hand.

Ahearn took her to dinner last night. They ate fried chicken. "It was delicious," said Lucille. The whirlwind courtships apparently blew the embers of a smoldering love into a burning fire. Lucille said that Jay Kinzer proposed by telegram from Wenatchee, Wash., and started driving to Colorado Springs.

Lucille said she had a few dates with Jay in Los Angeles where he was a law student in Los Angeles City College.

"I'll accept," she told reporters. "Where's the nearest town we can get married without delay?" She expects Jay today.

Housing Shortage Still Problem In California

SACRAMENTO, Calif., June 11.—(AP)—The Legislature was asked Friday to enact a four-point program designed to help solve California's "still acute" housing shortage.

The program, outlined in a report of the Senate Interim Committee on community redevelopment and housing, asks:

1. A state redevelopment agency to aid private housing projects.
2. That California appropriate money so it may share in housing legislation which may be passed by Congress.
3. "Further study of means of providing dwellings which will rent for $50 a month or less."
4. Formulation of a workable program for maximum use of private capital and minimum state financial assistance.

"The housing problem," the report said, "is still acute in three main categories:

"Insufficient housing . . . in the low price field."

"Lack of provision for those now living in temporary war housing which must be eventually torn down."

"Lack of temporary dwellings for families who now live in slums and who will be displaced when community redevelopment begins."

JUDGMENT ASKED
Earl Reed and Milton Corwin, co-partners, in a suit filed in Circuit Court against Lester Andrews, P. Chilton and William Johnson, doing business as A. and C. Lumber Company, ask judgment for $1,022.78. The plaintiffs allege this sum is the balance due for labor and services in falling, bucking and scaling logs between May 30, 1948, and July 15, 1948.

DIAL-LOG

Republican Senator Bourke Hickenlooper of Iowa, whose charges against Atomic Energy Commission Chairman David Lilienthal have caused a bit of a stir, will hold a press conference on the air this evening at 6 on "Meet the Press." At 8:30 tonight, a special half-hour of barbershop ballads will be aired—replacing "Sylvan Levin" one time only.

SUNDAY: It's the "Ghost of Sampson's Gulch" on "House of Mystery" at 1. At 1:30, on "True Detective Mysteries," a case is solved by the hard work of a young newspaperman who refused to believe that sudden disappearances of some half-dozen people in the same community could be merely accidental during the story of "The Monster of Maple Hill." "The Case of the Guilty Bystanders" titles the "Nick Carter" whodunit at 3:30.

At 4:30 Sunday, the drama "Hound of Heaven," based on the life of Frances Thompson, will become the fifth story in the 21-year broadcasting history of "The Family Theater," to be re-presented by popular demand. Mark Stevens, who starred in "The Snakepit," will return to do the starring role for "Hound of Heaven," with Rod O'Connor as co-star. Jack Benny will be the host.

Listener loyalty knows no bounds as far as Johnny Desmond, singing star of "The Johnny Desmond Show" (Sundays, 7:25 p. m.) is concerned. Though he has thousands of air-fans, one New York group of teen-age youngsters scornfully spurns the offer to appear personally at each of Johnny's broadcasts. Each week, armed with cameras, autograph books and dreamy smiles, six young ladies sit patiently through rehearsal and broadcast, waiting for the moment when at last they can meet their idol face to face. Limited studio space permits only six girls to view each show. "But they're all happy," he adds, "because next week, six more kids from Johnny's Manhattan fan club will be in . . . and the next week six more. Where does it end?"

Don DeFore, handsome young Hollywood leading man, will play "Twenty Questions" with the panel of experts Sunday night at 8.

DAV Speaker Raps Plan To Cut Hospital Funds

KLAMATH FALLS, June 11. Proposed cuts in veterans hospital facilities are a breach of faith with the American veteran, National Adjutant Vivian D. Corby of the Disabled American Veterans declared in a speech at the state DAV convention here Friday.

Corby vigorously attacked the Hoover Commission recommendations on VA hospitals and urged members of the DAV to carry on a powerful campaign to prevent hospital cuts asked for in the Truman budget recommendations.

Veteran cooperation is needed, Corby stated, to save the U. S. veteran rehabilitation program.
