To Be Bride Of Edward Jackson

Miss Jean Mettauer

Picture by Clark's Studio

Announcement has been made of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Jean Mettauer to Edward Jackson of this city. Miss Mettauer, formerly of Eugene, is the attractive daughter of Herman J. Mettauer of Eugene. She is employed by the Wilbur Lumber Company.

Mr. Jackson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson of 1147 Corey Ave., Roseburg. He spent six years in the armed forces with the 34th Infantry Division and is now employed at Browning's Richmond station.

The wedding date has been set for July 18th at the Evangelical Church in Eugene with Rev. Mr. Fogg officiating.

The bride-to-be was honored last Friday evening at a shower given at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ray Walker, in Eugene.

GRAY LADIES HOLD INTERESTING MEETING AT HARBAM HOME TUESDAY

Mrs. Alice Prall, San Francisco, assistant director of services for Veterans Hospital, American Red Cross and Miss Charlotte Rogers, field director for the Veterans Administration domiciliary at Medford, were special guests at the Gray Ladies meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. V. V. Harpham on the Deer Creek road.

Mrs. Prall gave an interesting talk on her work. She was introduced by Mrs. Edward Titcomb, chairman of Volunteer Service for the Roseburg Veterans Hospital, who also introduced the new chairman, Mrs. Joe Boudreau. Other new officers include Mrs. Paul Barcus, vice-chairman and Mrs. L. G. Twoby, secretary.

Others present were Miss Mariana Peterson, field director of the Roseburg Veterans Hospital; Mrs. Ralph Herman and her guest, Mrs. George Collins of San Pedro, Calif.; Mrs. Newhouse, Mrs. McClain, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Grace Raymond, Mrs. Leland Van Allen, Mrs. G. C. Blake, Mrs. Ethel Min-turn, Mrs. Paul Barcus and the hostess, Mrs. Harpham.

Mrs. Peterson capped Mrs. McClain as a new Gray Lady.

Plans were made for a birthday party to be held at the hospital on June 21st with Mrs. Barcus and Mrs. McClain as co-chairmen. A Red Cross dance was planned for the evening of July 11 at the hospital and it was announced the V. F. W. Auxiliary will sponsor a dance at the hospital the evening of June 20. All women interested in assisting as hostesses, are most cordially invited to attend the dances.

The next meeting will be July 5 at 8 p. m. at the hospital picnic barbeque grounds with Mrs. Boudreau and Mrs. Raymond as co-hostesses.

Following the meeting Mrs. Harpham served lovely refreshments.

MR. AND MRS. WOODCOCK CELEBRATE FORTY-NINTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Woodcock, well-known Roseburg residents, celebrated their forty-ninth wedding anniversary at a family dinner at their home on West First street the evening of June 3rd. Their daughter, Mrs. James Hommel, of Portland came to Roseburg for the occasion. Their son, Virgil, who is an attorney in the east, was unable to be present.

On Tuesday, June 7, Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock had as overnight guests, the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Virgil Vinyard, of Yuba City, Calif., who left Wednesday for Eugene to visit their daughter, Rev. Mr. Vinyard has been pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Yuba City for the last eight years.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB HAS "KID" PARTY WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Happy Hour Club members and guests enjoyed a delightful "kid" party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nell Christian with Mrs. H. B. Kruse, co-hostess. Beautiful bouquets of flowers were arranged about the rooms.

Mrs. Dale Guiley won the prize for the best costume and Mrs. R. L. Harmon won the prize for the guessing contest. At the tea hour Mrs. Christian and Mrs. Kruse served delicious refreshments to: Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. R. L. Harmon, Mrs. W. E. Buell, Mrs. Dale Guiley, Mrs. Don Guiley, Mrs. A. C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. William Cox, Mrs. Janice Andrews, Mrs. Eva Poley, Mrs. Lillian Womach, Mrs. Mary Gault and son, Grady; Mrs. Evelyn Harry and Mrs. Marion Hill.

GENEVA GUILD HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING

Geneva Guild members of the First Presbyterian church were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Wray. The group heard a discussion on "Lot's Wife," given by Mrs. Wm. D. Green Jr. The program for the September meeting will continue the discussion of women in the Bible with two Guild members presenting Martha and Mary.

The business meeting, presided over by Mrs. John Dingley in the absence of the president, Mrs. Fred Field, was devoted to routine matters. The members volunteered service at the nursery held each Sunday morning during church hours for the benefit of parents attending the Presbyterian services. Tentative plans were made for a picnic to be held during the summer.

A social hour closed the evening. Attending were the Mesdames Marc Brown, John Dingley, Robert Evans, Wm. D. Green, Jr., W. H. Allen, Roy Harford, W. S. Henson, H. C. Lentz, Dave McCarroll, Donald Munro, Tom Pargeter, Lee Sharman, Paul Wray, Nels Lindell, Alva Laws, James Loomis, Leigh Myers, Glen Jones and the hostesses.

MRS. HOMER GROW CLOSES MUSICAL WORKSHOP FOR SEASON WITH RECITAL

The fourth of the regular series of public recitals was given by Mrs. Homer Grow at the Methodist Church last Monday evening. The program was arranged to include piano music from the classic and modern libraries, a variety of organ numbers, piano duets and an organ and piano duo. Beginners, playing for the first time in public, opened the program. An interesting group of junior players who were heard in public recital last year showed marked improvement in style and progress in technical ability. Some of the advanced students gave their last performances as members of the Musical Workshop as they will be members of college groups next year.

Because of the illness and unexpected absence from town of some of the programmed players, other members of the Workshop gladly took their places, showing a pleasing feeling of responsibility and cooperation fostered by membership in this group.

Large baskets of pink and white gladioli and blue larkspur were used as decoration. Older members of the Workshop acted as hostesses and greeted the guests. Each announced the title of the composition to be played, and of the name of the composer, and of the arrangement if the original version was not used. In this way the students are prepared to meet the varied requirements of gracious public performance.

The Musical Workshop will be closed for the summer with the exception of one day a month when the beginners and junior pupils will receive refresher lessons which will carry them over to the fall work which will begin with the opening of school in September. Membership this year was:

Vera Wilson, Jimmy Keefe, Kendele Cairnes, Janet Reed, Carmen Dyson, Stephen Reed, Anne Mellis, Nancy Allen, Joe Phillips, Olive Lewis, Judy Hebard, Judy Edwards, Marjorie Bowker, Patricia Riley, Lauren Loveland, Billy Riley, Mary Ellen Holbrook, Janet Urbaneck, Myrabeth Gilek, Gilda Holderman, Robert Church, Nancy Allen, Janet Sherwood, Faith Rhodes, Janet Church, Sonja Rhodes, Janet Kelly, Carolyn Jackson, Lenetta Kelley, Karen Drager, Carol Ann Knox, Norma Jean Wilcox, Jean Hewett, Judy Hewett, Delberta Simonson, Sandra Siefarth, Frank Churchill, Tom Churchill, Jerry Jones, Mary Margaret Cobb, Robert Johnson, Loren McClure, Penelope Bevans, Judy Ott, Carolyn Burr, Nancy Bodin, Barbara Pattison, Betty Roach, Carolyn Pargeter, Joyce Ferguson, Doris Anne Long, Shirley Butler, Blake Conn, Charlotte Davis, Patricia Elliott, with Janice Plummer and Norma Cox, organists.

New officers include: president, Shirley Meek; junior past president, Ada Hixson; vice-president, Helen Fenwick; chaplain, Lilly Franzen; secretary, Clara Stewig; treasurer, Mildred Coltrin; conductress, Winnifred Travis; inside guard, Earla Hockett; outside guard, Helen Linchicum; trustees, Annabelle McClure and Pauline Holzer. The auxiliary drill team, wearing formal gowns, had charge of the installing. A social hour with the aerie members followed and refreshments were served.

SUPPER PARTY IS CHARMING AFFAIR AT BICKNELL HOME THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bicknell and son, Richard, entertained at a charming supper party at their home Thursday evening, having as guests Miss Doris Mariott, Sutherlin, Miss Anne Mariott, Miss Ida Talley and Miss Mary Crow, who are members of Mrs. Bicknell's ninth grade girls Sunday School class of the First Baptist church.

White and pink roses formed the attractive decorations, while a bowl of red roses graced the prettily appointed table. During the evening the group discussed plans and work for the summer months, after which a most enjoyable social hour was held.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Mid-Week Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the parish house by Mrs. Augusta Erny and Mrs. William Vogt.

Under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. W. A. Sylwester, the purpose and the benefits of holy baptism were studied and discussed.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. E. W. Carter. Final plans were made for housing the members of the Lutheran Hour Chorus, who will be presented in concert at the Senior High School the evening of June 23. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the noon luncheon to be held the day of the Mission Rally, which will be an event of July.

A pleasant social hour followed and lovely refreshments were served by the two hostesses. The next meeting will be at two o'clock July 7 at the parish hall.

W. B. A. COMMITTEE MEETING IS HELD THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Maggie Patterson, Mrs. Jessie Vinson, Mrs. Alce Wells and Mrs. Cora Little met with Mrs. Helena Hays Thursday afternoon at her home on West Lane street to make plans for the visit of Mrs. Kathryn Bowen, Seattle, tri-state field director, who will pay her official visit to Roseburg next Thursday, June 16.

Medical examinations will be held from 12:30 to 5:30 o'clock at the Hotel Rose. Members are asked to call between those hours. Questions will be answered regarding this department.

At seven o'clock in the evening, a school of instruction will be held at the home of Mrs. Hays, 120 West Lane street. Members and prospective members are invited and those planning to attend are asked to notify either Mrs. Hays or Mrs. Little. Refreshments will be served later in the evening.

W. S. OF C. S. MEETS AT OTLUCK LUNCHEON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met in the social rooms of the Methodist Church Thursday for a delightful potluck luncheon. The tables were very pretty with spring flowers and the special birthday table was centered with a large decorated cake in honor of members having birthdays in April, May and June. Circle No. 1 members acted as hostesses and furnished the coffee and dessert.

The business meeting followed in the Primary Chapel. Mrs. W. A. MacArthur gave the devotions entitled, "I'm the Light that Has Shined in the Darkness," followed by a program on "Darkness Turns to Dawn in Africa," presented by Mrs. William C. Woods.

Mrs. Lucian Cobb, president, conducted the meeting and presented the budget for the new year.

Plans were made for an all-day meeting of all Circles for June 23 at the home of Mrs. Ned Dixon. Those desiring transportation are asked to meet at the church at 10 a. m. A program will be presented and a potluck luncheon will be served at noon. All women of the church are invited.

Interesting reports were followed by a discussion of church business and the pledge service, which was conducted by Mrs. William Hoelt.
