KOd PLAYER GETS ASSIST—Group of Myrtle Creek ball players wait for Bud Shirtcliff, lying on ground, to revive being struck by beseball in an odd play Sunday. In the eighth inning Don Reed, Roseburg pitcher, reached first on a sharp single. Barney Koch, second baseman, hit a line drive which bounced off Shirtcliff's head. Pitcher Don Loghry caught the ball before it struck the ground and touched first base to double Reed. To cap the odd play, the unconscious Myrtle tending to business and visit. Creek first baseman was given an assist on a fly ball put out. Shirtliff apparently was not seriously hurt, but was removed from the game. (Picture by Rod Newland.) and family.

Huge Salaries Dwindle After Uncle Sam Takes His Tax Cut

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(#)
It's commencing to look like earning a million dollars a year—much less keeping that much after taxes—is a thing of the past, at least if you work for a cor-

Comparatively few people ever did make that much and no one it appeared from treasury records today, has been able to get that much pay out of a company since mid-war 1944, when film-producer Leo McCarey was credited with $1,113,035 for 12 months efforts.

A new treasury list shows America's best paid corporation employee in 1947 (or fiscal years spilling over into 1948) got $810,000—$175,300 less than he got to be No. 1 the previous year also. The list showed salaries as they stood before payment of heavy taxes. neavy taxes.

Childless Man Voted 'Outstanding Father'

PORTLAND, June 13.— (AP)— Henry Larsen has no children of his own—but he has been cited as the "outstanding father of 1949."

The retail trade bureau here noted that Larsen, 58, has been foster-father to 28 youngsters at his farm home near here.

Presently, Larsen has seven children at his home. The others have come and gone since 1941, except a grand-niece he and his wife reared from infanthood until age 19.
