

Umpqua Chiefs Edge Craters, 7 to 6

Three Runs In Ninth Inning Spell Victory

Koch, Geo. Sanders Lead Offensive Punch With Perfect Day In Batting

Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs edged Medford Craters, 7-6, in a close ballgame that saw the Chiefs behind, 5-4, until the final inning last night at Medford.

Bunky Hill, pinch-hitting for winning pitcher Wally Richardson, started a Roseburg rally in the final frame, with a double that should have been a triple, had not Hill been hobbled by alling stems. He was relieved at the second sack by newcomer Bobby Sanders, who completed the circuit for Hill, to tie up the game.

Two additional tallies by Barney Koch, steamboating second baseman, who snapped out of a recent hitting slump to crack out five singles for as many trips to the plate for a perfect 1,000, and George Sanders, who also hit 1,000 with three for three, put the Chiefs in the lead, from which Medford failed to recover.

The Chiefs started off in the first frame with a run by Koch, who got on after a hard-hit ball slipped through shortstop's glove.

Craters batsmen parlayed two bases on balls and a triple into two runs in their half of the first, to take the lead until the fifth inning, when Koch singled and Virg Sanders beat out a bunt. George Sanders advanced the pair on another sacrifice, then Ted Wilson scored both men on a screaming single to center.

Roseburg led, 4-2, in the seventh, when Koch got his fourth hit of the night. He went to second on Virg Sanders' third sacrifice and to third on George Sanders' single. West fled out to center, and Koch beat the throw-in.

The game seesawed again in the eighth, when Craters scored three runs to take a 5-4 lead. Roseburg's ninth inning rally cooled the game for the Chiefs, as it turned out.

Both Bobby Sanders and Koch scored on George Sanders' booming double, then Norm West singled, scoring Sanders. Medford attempted to rally in its portion of the ninth, but were able to garner only one more tally.

Vic Lewis started on the hill for the Chiefs, but he was relieved by Richardson after tiring. Wilson did a brief hitch on the

Classy Bouts Will Support Kahut-Gordon Headliner On Friday Card At Finlay Field

Considerable interest will be centered in the supporting card of Friday night's outdoor boxing show, to be staged at Finlay Field starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Mickey Gimmell, who now lives in Roseburg, and Al "Pinky" Cowan, colorful Spokane puncher, come back for a return match after fighting to a draw here nearly three weeks ago.

Both punchers put up a torrid battle that saw the advantage go from one boxer to the other before the final bell ended the fight. The crew voted the Cowan-Gimmell fight the best on the card and each was awarded extra-money. Gimmell also won an additional purse after being voted the best fighter on the bill.

The six-round special event of Friday's boxing show brings back Paul "Tiger" Kennedy, another fighter who wins extraordinary purses locally. He decided to come here several months ago. The fight was voted the outstanding scrap on that card.

Kennedy will battle Kenny Kaas, a Roseburg resident, who puts on a crowd-pleasing performance in his own right.

A four-round preliminary brings a couple of new faces here in Sonny Leary of New York and Ron Collins of Salem.

Fighting the main-event, will be Joe Kahut of Woodburn and Babe "Hardrock" Gordon of Roseburg.

Promoters Ernie Nazelrod and Sandy Sanders announce that children will be permitted to see the fights at $1 each. Other prices were advanced to meet the tariff set by Kahut and his manager.

Trucks Blanks Athletics On One-Hit Work

Feller Defeats Bosox; Dodgers Trim St. Louis To Boost League Lead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Virgil (Fire) Trucks, Detroit's strong-armed righthander, is challenging New York's Vic Raschi for American League pitching honors.

With the season only one-third gone, the 35-year-old Alabamian already has won nine games against three losses. Only Raschi, with 10, has won more. Newhouser has won seven.

Trucks gave further indication last night that he was out to make this his greatest year when he limited Philadelphia to one hit as the Tigers blanked the Athletics, 4-0. Only a fifth-inning single by Hank Majeski prevented him from hurling the season's first no-run, no-hit game.

The Tigers iced the game in the first inning, scoring three times against Carl Scheib.

The victory left the second-place Tigers three games behind the Yankees.

Raschi Beats Chisox
Raschi notched his 10th triumph against one defeat with one hit as the Yankees shelled the Chicago White Sox, 15-3. An eight-run sixth inning at the expense of loser Bill Wright, Allen Cretzer and Marino Pieretti, changed a tight pitching duel to a rout.

The apparently revitalized Cleveland Indians vaulted from sixth to fourth place in the American League standings after soundly trouncing the Red Sox in Boston, 10-5.

Bob Feller, who had lost his last five starts, went all the way for the Indians to gain his second victory of the season.

Joe Gordon hit a grand slam home run in the first innings.

The St. Louis Browns finally beat Washington, 7-2, after losing eight straight decisions to the Senators. Lefty Joe Ostrowski pitched six-hit ball to gain his first victory of the year.

Mickey Haefner was the loser. Dodgers Trim Cardinals
Brooklyn increased its National League lead to three games over the Cardinals with a 7-2 triumph over St. Louis. Prescher Roe beat the Cardinals with a 10-hit effort for the Dodgers' eighth straight triumph.

Wally Westlake rapped a ninth-inning double to drive in the tying and winning runs in Pittsburgh's 4-3 victory over the Boston Braves. He previously had hit a homer, triple and single.

Larry Jansen registered his first shutout of the year as the New York Giants defeated the Reds in Cincinnati, 2-0. Jansen allowed four hits in winning his sixth game.

The Philadelphia Phillies ruined Frankie Frisch's debut as manager of the Cubs. They walloped Chicago, 9-2. Andy Seminick paced the Phils' 11-hit attack with a three-run homer, his 12th.

Moran, Noted Umpire And Grid Coach, Dies
HORSE CAVE, Ky., June 15.—(AP)—Death has called the last strike for Charles B. Moran, 70, former National League baseball umpire.

Moran, who gained national fame both as a baseball umpire and as football coach at Centre College at Danville, Ky., died of a heart ailment at his home here yesterday.

As coach of the "Praying Colonels" at Centre, Moran tutored such football stars as Bo McMillin, Red Roberts and Red Weaver. His 1921 team defeated Harvard, 6-0.

He retired in 1939 as a National League umpire after spending 23 years in that job and had devoted most of his time in recent years to operation of his farm near here.

He took great pride in the umpiring profession and was noted for his famous expression: "It ain't nothing until I call it."

Cerdan Favored To Beat LaMotta In Titular Battle

By JACK HAND
DETROIT, June 15.—(AP)—Marcel Cerdan, the career fighting man from French Morocco, risks his world middleweight title for the first time tonight at Briggs Stadium against squat Jake LaMotta, an 8 to 5 underdog from New York's teeming Bronx.

Cash from Jake's home province, where he has an interest in two small fight clubs beat down the price on Cerdan who opened a 5 to 12 choice. It may go even lower by ring time for the 15-round bout, scheduled at approximately 10 p.m. The fight will not be broadcast or televised.

From this corner it looks like Cerdan, largely on the basis of the old cuts around LaMotta's eyes that keep re-opening in every fight, Marcel doesn't hit hard enough to dump Jake on his pants but his slashing hooks are just the thing to slice tender brows.

LaMotta never has been knocked off his feet in 88 fights. Beaten, yes, 13 times, including a "knockout" by Billy Fox, Nov. 14, 1947, but never on the deck. Even in the Fox affair, stopped by the referee to save Jake from further punishment, he sagged but refused to go down.

LaMotta has one style—a swarming, bullish attack. When tired, he pauses and sticks out his head, inviting punches to his solid jaw. Only a body puncher can whip Jake. Cerdan is a canny master, capable of fighting several different styles. He will throw the book at one-style LaMotta.

Cerdan lost only three of 99 fights. The only legitimate Cerdan loss was to Cyrille Delannot at Brussels, May 23, 1948. The other two were on fouls.

Roseburg And Sutherlin Legion Juniors To Play

Roseburg Junior Legionnaires sally forth tonight at Finlay Field to engage Sutherlin Junior Legion in a league contest, Roseburg's second this season.

Coach Barney Koch added Leo Bowers to the local club's roster. Bowers, who recently played a creditable game with the High School Indians, will continue in a like manner with the Junior Legion group, playing shortstop.

Other infielders will include Lloyd Stumbo, third base; Dexter Garey, second base, and Glen Scofield, first base. Playing the outfield will be Diz Burnett, right field; Norm Smith, left field; and Harold Stumbo, center field. John Rauschert is tentatively scheduled to catch, while Mickey Coen will start in the pitcher's box.

Game time is 8 o'clock.

Pro Baseball Eyed For Anti-Trust Violations

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP) A decision is expected shortly on whether the Justice Department will file an anti-trust suit against organized professional baseball.

If a suit should be filed, investigators said it would deal with alleged "restrictive business practices" and not with player contracts or farm systems.

The department's anti-trust staff was assigned to examine the

First Mexican Jumper Rejoins N. Y. Giants
CINCINNATI, June 15.—(AP)—The Mexican jumpers started coming home to organized baseball last night.

George Hausmann wasn't the first major leaguer to dash across the border to the lure of big money in 1946, but he was the first of the 18 jumpers to get back into the fold.

Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler approved the players' reinstatement two weeks ago.

Now 32 years old, Hausmann rejoined the New York Giants at Crosley Field, where the visitors beat the Cincinnati Reds 2-0.
