Gardner, 24, University of Washington students, await their marriage in Los Angeles, which they hope will settle an argument over heredity. The bride contends brown eyes will predominate in their offspring; Gardner says it's the other way around. They decided to marry to settle it but Priscilla stressed "don't think that's our only reason for getting married." (AP Wirephoto)

BAKER, June 17.—(AP)—Grasshopper infestations are reported in three Baker County areas with Durkee, Keating and Pondosa hay crops threatened. Spraying operations have begun under the direction of County Agent Leroy C. Wright, who declined to release what he calls "alarmist" reports about the possible extent of the damage if the insects are not headed off. The next 10 days will tell the story, he said. Hay is the principal crop threatened in all the areas with peach and apricot orchards at ing the three days of the show. The figure includes the $500 purse to be awarded by the Roseburg Elks Lodge to the all-round champion cowboy at the close of the Rodeo Sunday.

Carter said the show has attracted more cowboys here this year than ever before, because of the increased prize money to be awarded the contestants, and the show is gaining a reputation as being one of the larger type. Several top-ranking cowboys signed in at the close of registration last night.

Today's performance at the Fairgrounds was to begin with the grand entry at 1:30, led by the Rodeo queen and her court, the Douglas County Sheriff's posse, riding clubs of neighboring communities, and all cowboys taking part in the show.

Main contest events include calf roping, bareback riding, daily team roping, saddle bronc riding, bulldogging, and bull riding. Feature events include the cowboy saddle horse race, stake race, trick riding and roping, pony express race, wild horse race, and calf and lamb scrambles.

This evening, the official Rodeo dance will be held in the Roseburg Armory under sponsorship of the Sheriff's Reserves and the Sheriff's posse. The dance will start at 10 o'clock, with music provided by Lou Franco and his Happy Valley Cowboys. A Rodeo "jitney dance" will be held tomorrow night at the Armory following the wrestling matches. Lou Franco will play at tomorrow's dance, also.

Refreshments will be served in the grandstands at the Fairgrounds during the Rodeo by members of the Roseburg Lions Club, who have the food concession.

Relief Task Increases In Various States

ed in Dayton, O., as early as December. Now it has spread to at least six bigger metropolitan areas, reports the American Municipal Association. They are: Detroit, 1,156 persons; Chicago, 155; Cincinnati County, more than 300; Los Angeles, 488; Cleveland, 141; Milwaukee County, 201. The totals are as of April or May; they may have risen.

Some new problems are looming, and some old ones are returning to plague states and cities which have been free from them during the seven flush years of war and reconversion. For instance:

Relief Costs Soaring

1. Relief costs per relief family have soared. Ohio says it costs 2 1/2 times as much to keep a family going as it did in 1942. 2. Rents must be paid. Nowadays, landlords evict non-paying tenants. In the depression, many people who couldn't pay stayed on anyway because the landlord couldn't find other tenants. Now the state or city must either pay the rent or re-house homeless families.

3. Longer relief rolls are embarrassing city treasuries. Already squeezed between frozen tax revenues and higher costs for every city service, cities find the new relief burden raises "serious financial problems," says the Municipal Association. In 16 states cities shoulder their whole relief load; in the rest, state and city share.

4. Some western states report migrants on the march again. Nothing like the "Grapes of Wrath" era but incoming transients are causing concern in Colorado and Wyoming, for instance, and even in Oklahoma whence came the "Okies" of dustbowl and depression days.

5. Aid to dependent children is rising faster than other relief. Missouri thinks it is because women who worked to support children are losing jobs. Louisiana thinks wartime marriages are breaking up.

The first steam carriage on record, built in France in 1769, traveled at three miles an hour and had to be refueled after 15 miles.

Not to be overlooked, Mrs. Byrd was presented with a corsage by Thelma Greer, clerk in the trainmaster's office.

Don Hellwell and Al Parr served as judges. Del McKay was master of ceremonies during the awarding of prizes in the theater. Mayor Flegel announced the winners and spoke briefly to the children. The program was recorded for later broadcast.

While the children attended the show, Active Club members put Scotch Lite tape on each of the bicycles. "This tape glows at night when lights are shown upon them. Chief of Police Calvin Baird directed the work.

VI.), would authorize only seizure. This is supported by the Democrat leader, Senator Lucas of Illinois. The showdown might come early next week.

New Provisions Added
Consideration of national emergency strikes began yesterday after the Senate passed two more non-controversial amendments to the Truman administration's labor bill.

That bill, in addition to its original purpose of repealing Taft-Hartley and restoring an enlarged version of the 1935 Wagner Act, now contains provisions for:

- (1) Non-Communist and non-Fascist oaths from union and company officers;
- (2) financial reports from unions and companies;
- (3) keeping salaries of National Labor Relations Board members at the present $12,000 a year instead of $17,500 in the original Truman bill;
- (4) guaranteeing "free speech" to labor and management alike;
- (5) Requiring both to bargain in good faith.

A general get-together of the Choral Society is planned before school opens in the fall.

over 12 months. Robertson said Committee members realized that any large cut would be "impractical."

"I'm satisfied the Committee won't go beyond my suggestion" he said. This is to give ECA $168,000,000 more than the House gave it—but require the program to be spread over 12 months.

A Republican member said privately he believes the Committee will give Hoffman the same figure voted by the House and require him to spend the money in 12 months.

Hoffman laid before the Committee yesterday a report showing that a $1,000,000,000 cut in ECA funds would wipe out these purchases of American products: wheat, $30,000,000; corn, $75,000,000; tobacco, $50,000,000; cotton, $100,000,000; fuels, $100,000,000; metals and ores, $85,000,000; and machinery, $125,000,000.

There were others in the list but this gave Senators an idea of the impact of a cut on the American purchases for foreign aid.

Oregon Grangers Still Opposed To Sales Tax

COOS BAY, June 17.—(AP)—The solid front has been broken, but the State Grange still is against a sales tax.

A resolution proposing a "fair and impartial" sales tax went down to overwhelming defeat at the Grange's annual convention here yesterday.

The proposal was brought to the floor by a majority of the tax committee. It also was known several Granges had gone over to support of a sales tax in the last year, but the great majority of delegates swarmed the resolution under.

There was a long debate first, with proponents asserting it would reduce property taxes, while opponents said it only would shift the tax burden to the poor.

Quadruplets occur, on the average, once in every 551,271 births.
