Catch-the-lamb scramble and various other activities at the Rodeo grounds this afternoon? Well, if you didn't make it today... remember, two more big days of thrills and spills are in store out there... Tickets on sale, by the way, in front of Roy's Store on Jackson Street.

"Sammy Kaye Showroom" hits tonight's 7:15 p. m. time slot as usual... featuring as its musical selections "On the Alamo," "Once and For Always," "Having a Wonderful Wish," "Tea for Two," and "Million Miles Away." Speaking of "Tea for Two"—have you heard the Gene Meigs Trio version of this number?... Especially like that "up to their eyeballs in teaballs" they throw in for diversion. Ask 'em to play it for you next time you're at the Shalimar.

Mystery surrounded the man who made his home in the forbidden territory of the Badlands, until "The Cisco Kid" revealed it as a hideout for criminals wanted by the law, in the adventure titled "The Cisco Kid and the Baron of the Badlands"—tonight—7:30. Don't miss the Joe Kahit-Gordon bout tonight—beginning at 9:15. We feel quite fortunate in being able to bring this one to you... Then catch "The Affairs of Peter Salem" for a mystery-spiked eve of listening.

Expect to have a big turnout for our Tom Mix give-away routine following tomorrow morning's Rodeo parade. If the small-fry in your family haven't heard about the free gifts we're giving away up here, tell 'em to get along with it and come a'runnin' for these terrific Tom Mix mementoes we have for them.

Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois, Democratic leader in the Senate, will hold the "Meet the Press" conference over KHJ-Mutual Don Lee tomorrow evening at six. He will be interviewed by Carlton Kent, of the Chicago Sun-Times; Marshall McNeil, of the Memphis Free Semitar, and a group of Texas newspapers, Phelps Adams, of the New York Sun and Ernest K. Lindley, of Newsweek Magazine. Albert L. Warner, MDL's chief correspondent in Washington, will moderate. And that does it.

CWA Plans To Strike If Necessary To Gain Bell System Recognition

CHICAGO, June 17. — (AP) — The CIO Communications Workers of America announced today a campaign for recognition by the Bell Telephone System, to be backed by a nation-wide strike, if necessary.

Delegates at the CWA's third international convention approved a motion instructing the Union's executive board "to take such action as may be necessary" within the next 90 days "to make effective all division contracts now being violated and dishonored by the companies and to restore recognition of the divisions as bargaining agents."

Such action, the resolution said, may include "economic strike, political and any other" steps.

Joseph A. Beirne, president of the CWA, said that Bell Telephone Companies have withdrawn recognition from 37 of the Union's divisions since May 6 when the CWA membership voted to join the CIO.

The CWA membership, claimed by officers to number 230,000, was taken into the CIO May 9, when a charter was issued by the large congress of unions.
