Mr. and Mrs. Ishmel Webb of Coos County were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lutman. The latter is an aunt of Mrs. Webb. She formerly resided at Melrose and will be remembered by her friends as Cleo Wilson.

Reedsport

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Covell of Portland are spending a few days in Reedsport at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Leach. Mr. Covell is now an engineer at Providence Hospital in Portland, but the family formerly resided in Reedsport.

Delegates to the Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, in Portland this week, from Martha Chapter No. 48 of Gardiner, are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Melvin of Tahkenitch Lake, and Mrs. L. The largest shad run of the present season, which opened on the Umpqua River May 10, appeared over the weekend. William Dewar, who has nets on Smith River, is reported to have delivered approximately 950 shad Monday. An unusually large crowd of sportsmen spent the weekend here fishing for striped bass in the Bass Derby, but no outstanding catches were reported.

Many local farmers are taking advantage of the present good weather to start their haying, especially in Ash Valley and on Smith River. Loggers are not so fond of present weather conditions, as they are often forced to discontinue their logging by noon or shortly afterwards, due to low humidity. Many of the local camps will close down shortly after July 1, for the balance of the summer, according to reports being circulated, as the supply of logs on hand is reported as exceedingly large.

returned to their home at Callahan Trail in the evening.

Roy Davidson and his brother moved last week to Callahan Trail district. They are formerly from Newberg, but resided last winter at Wolf Creek. They are employed by the Bates Logging Company.
