

RETIREES—Clyde C. Byrd, center, with his fishing equipment, is pictured with a group of fellow Southern Pacific workmen upon his retirement Thursday. An informal get-together was held in the station and Byrd is shaking hands with Roadmaster P. M. Krutzler. At the age of 65, he has completed 44 years of railroad work, 37 of which has been as a section foreman with the Southern Pacific in the Eugene district and most of the time he has been stationed in Roseburg.

Condemnation Suit For Highway Job Filled

The State of Oregon, by and through its State Highway Commission, T. H. Banfield, Ben R. Chandler and Charles H. Reynolds, have filed suit against T. E. Davis, Peggy A., and John Doe Carr, to condemn property desired as right-of-way on the Umpqua Highway. The property contains 6.19 acres, located in Government Lots 2 and 3, section 23, Township 22 South, Range 10 west, Willamette Meridian.

K D N D DIAL-LOG

A man who can sell coffee and soap is Frank Hemingway, many-charactered newscaster of the KHJ-Don Lee airwaves. His sponsors, Folger's Coffee and White King Soap, have renewed Frank as a network feature for another year.

Senator Hem 'n Haw's reaction was: "As a representative of the people of this mighty Pacific Coast, I am glad, sir, that they have seen fit to perpetuate me in office for another term."

Frank is heard Monday through Saturday at 7 a. m. and 4:15 p. m. PST.

Whether the giving away of three-quarters of a million dollars is a good thing or a bad one, is the question to be answered by George Valentine, when the story titled "The Next to the Last Guest" is presented during the "Let George Do It" broadcast tonight at 8. Another eerie tale by "The Mysterious Traveler" will be heard tonight at 10. "Rhythm Rendezvous" at 10:30... and the U. S. Army Band will play a musical tribute to the students at Hobart and William Smith Colleges, Geneva, N. Y., during tonight's "Campus Salute" broadcast at 11.

Lumber Company Asks Foreclosure

Tyce Lumber Company has filed suit in circuit court against Ernest W. Winglar and Wanda L. Wingler, John L. Wingler and Isabel S. Wingler to foreclose a mortgage on real and personal property held by the defendants.

The complaint alleges that on July 14, 1948, the plaintiff loaned to Ernest Wingler $6,159.11, and that given as security was a tract of land containing 17.59 acres, on which was located a Caterpillar power unit, Russell sawmill, edger, John Deere power unit, conveyor and two circular saws.

The plaintiff seeks judgment for $4,247, plus $1,000 attorney fees as the balance alleged due, or that the mortgage be foreclosed. The property is located in the Sutherland Land & Water Co. tract.

Other Suits Filled Suit has been filed by Ralph Shirliff against Coyne Parker and R. Parker, doing business as Parker Brothers. The plaintiff asks judgment for $287 for logs hauled between April 19 and 21, and $69.63 on an assigned claim.

John Steeck has filed suit against Herman Steeck in which he asks judgment for $416.62 as the balance alleged due on a note for $1,785. In addition he asks judgment for $401 for meals taken by the defendant at the plaintiff's home.

Edward Monahan seeks to recover $269.30 as the balance due on an original loan for $300 in a suit filed. Named as defendants is George Baroz. The loan allegedly was made March 10, 1944.
