 DIAL-LOG

A new series of children's adventure dramas, this time concerning the wonder horse, Champion, made its debut on KRNR Monday in the 5:30 p. m. time period as a Monday through Friday feature. Champion has become one of the most famous stars of the Hollywood scene in the past several years. His intelligence and his ability to follow movie-shooting instructions to the letter have resulted in his being co-starred in many top-flight western films. In his Mutual-Don Lee network series, Champion will be pictured as the King of the Wild Horses who has been made the pet of a young boy named Ricky. The boy, his uncle, Smokey, his dog, Blaze, and his horse, Champion, live on a ranch.

Tonight at 7:30 on the famous American painter, Oliver Smith, chooses as his "Favorite Story" Jane Austin's "Pride and Prejudice," her comedy of first-impressions dealing with the flaws in all of us. "John Steele, Adventurer," is the 10 to 10:30 p. m. time period mystery shot.

The story of the old west is the story of the railroad. It was at the time when opposition was the fiercest from those who felt that the railroad threatened their interests, and "The Cisco Kid" answers the call for assistance during the story of "The Cisco Kid and the Iron Gate West" on tomorrow night's program at 7:30.

Hundreds of children received Tom Mix mementoes following last Saturday's big Rodeo parade . . . and a tired KRNR staff went to bed that night—to dream of myriads of TM-Bar arm patches, cattle brands, badges and booklets. An almost similar incident has taken place at Mutual-Don Lee in Hollywood. With the announcement that "Hopalong Cassidy" would debut on the network June 23 (8 p. m.), a number of top executives have gone into hiding. They've been besieged by the kiddies at home for all sorts of "Hoppy" mementoes!

Monkey Braves Fire To Rescue Cloth Lamb

FLINT, Mich., June 21.—(P)—Bongo, a ringtailed monkey, is a hero in town here.

When a second floor fire broke out in the Joseph Potvin home, Bongo was rescued by his mater. But he wouldn't stay rescued, Potvin said.

As soon as he was free outside, Bongo dashed back into the house. Potvin, though clearly outdistanced, re-entered in pursuit. He met Bongo sliding down the baluster, in his arms his prized possession, a black cloth lamb.
