MISS ETNA DAVIS, KENNETH W. DUNN WED IN ASHLAND

ASHLAND — Miss Etna Davis, daughter of Mrs. Achash E. Davis, 537 East Main street, Ashland, and Kenneth W. Dunn, son of Mrs. Howard N. Dunn of Junction City, were married at the First Church of Christ in Ashland on Thursday, June 9. The Rev. Earl Downing read the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a traditional gown of white satin. Her lace-edged fingertip veil was held in place by a bandeau of white stephanotis and she carried a bouquet of pink gladiol and stephanotis. Miss Louise Wood, Portland, as maid of honor, was dressed in pink net and carried white gladiol.

The flower girl was Joyce Iverson, and Howard White, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Philip Dunn, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ushers were Charles A. White and Jacob P. Lahr, brothers-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Thelma Gimberling, Roseburg, was pianist. She played the wedding marches and accompanied Arden Hall, who sang.

Candle lighters were Mrs. Monroe E. Davis, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Loring Martin, the bride's cousin. Both wore light blue gowns.

The church was decorated with white gladiol, white peonies and other flowers, along with candelabra. For the wedding, Mrs. Davis wore a blue silk dress, and the bridegroom's mother wore a suit of light blue. Both wore gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor, which had been decorated by Miss Louise Wood. Roses and candelabra centered the bride's table. Mrs. Charles A. White, sister of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Ted Ward and Mrs. Ed McLain, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. M. F. Bergerson and Mrs. Merle Gimberling poured and Mrs. Jacob P. Lahr, sister of the bride, took charge of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Sams Valley high school and of Southern Oregon college and for the past 10 years has taught, the last five in Roseburg at the Rose school. The bridegroom attended Oregon State college and is now with Pacific Greyhound lines.

Guests included Mrs. Howard N. Dunn of Junction City, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dunn and Mrs. Frances Moffet of Springfield, Mrs. Merle Gimberling, Mrs. M. T. Bergerson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred France of Roseburg, Mrs. Sam Redding, Dallas Redding and Mrs. Gordon Stanley of Eagle Point, Mrs. William Bishop of Central Point and Mrs. Norma Miller of Medford.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Dunn will reside on the bridegroom's ranch near Junction City, Ore.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE TO HOLD CLEAN-UP

Riversdale Grange men are spending this afternoon and the early evening hours cleaning the grounds, after which the ladies of the Grange will serve a seven o'clock dinner.

Regular Grange meeting was held Friday night at the hall with the Overseer, Myron Lehne presiding in the absence of the Master, Lester Spencer, who was at the state convention at Coos Bay.

There were 40 members present and the four visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Armour of Alpine Grange, Prineville, Calif., and Mrs. Emery and Mrs. Rogan of South Deer Creek Grange. Mr. Armour, who is master of Alpine Grange, gave a talk.

Ray Deadman reported on measures brought up at the state convention. The Grange voted on a candidate and submitted a proposal for membership for another to the committee in charge. The third and fourth degrees were conferred on Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson. The Home Economic Chairman reported the next meeting will be held at the Healy home.

Social night will be held by the Grange Saturday evening, June 25, at the hall. Mr. and Mrs. George Osterman and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Schneider will be in charge.

The lecturer's program was in charge of Mrs. Anita Stark. A contest was held and the three men not knowing the license number of their own car included Myron Lehne, C. T. Tipton and Mr. Dailey, who as a result presented a stunt for the entertainment of the members and guests.

Women of the Grange presented a mirror for the men's room and new tools for clean-up day.
