Smith and Ethel M. Lewis of Eugene.

He also leaves seven grandchilder, Robert Wrenn, Lt. Althea Luttrell, Alleen Loomis, Alta Bartram, Wilma Moskal, James Narcisse LaRaut, and Verna Lee being trained.

Ray B. Hampton, fire control officer of the Umpqua Forest, is in charge of the school. He is being assisted by district rangers, assistant rangers, and guards. Representative of the regional forester at the school is Jack Bowen, Portland.

The school will be exceluded.

The school will be concluded Thursday afternoon with the annual compass and pacing contest over a laid-out course. A prize will be offered the man who most closely follows the course.

There will be athletic contests, in which the men will buck logs, play baseball and volleyball, and pitch horseshoe. The district placing highest in these contests, as well as in examina-contests, as well as in examinations on regular training, will be awarded a plaque.

Last year, the North Umpqua
Ranger District, with headquarters at Glide, won the plaque.

Nelson said that the Wolf Creek Training Camp has a new cook house this year. Roof of the former cook house caved in under heavy snows during the winter. The previous mess hall at
