Game Decided In Seventh Inning Batting Rampage That Produces 5 Tallies

News-Review Sports Writer Ball games can be exciting, but extremely rough on the nerves. Witness Tuesday night's exhibi-tion contest between the Rose-burg Chiefs and the visiting Reedsport clan. Spectators slitting in the Finaly Field bleachers al-ternately saw the Chiefs come from behind, eat dust on the trail-ing end of the score, then surge ahead in a wild, free-hitting sev-enth Inning which saw the entire Roseburg lineup parade to bat. When the final Reedsport bat-

Roseburg lineup parade to bat. When the final Reedsport bat-ter flew out, Roseburg was on top of a 7.3 score. Roy Long, who pitched the last two innings, was credited with the win, after pinch-hitting Bunky Hill replaced starting hurler Vic Lewis in the batting order, while the Chiefs were still down by a run. were still down by a run. Hill started the seventh inning rally with a looping pop-fly into short right field, just over the stretched-out glove of second baseman Bob Fox. Bobby San-ders reached third on a single by Barney Koch and a bad peg by Junior Dewitt, which caught bat ter Ted Wilson on the hip. George Sanders dribbled one into the infield, which was picked up and relayed home as Bobby Sanders tried to tie up the game. George took first on the choice throw. Then Norm West made a hero out of himself by smacking a sin-gle into center field that per-mitted Koch and Wilson to cross home—the tying and winning runs—putting Roseburg ahead, 43. champion last March. As time for the 15-round affair neared, the eight-years-younger Charles was a dwindling 10 to 13 favorile. Apparently the gam-blers, like the fight writers, were beginning to minimize Ezzy's age advantage in the face of Wal-cott's 130-pro bout experience and two avite performances avainst two agile performances against then-champion Louis.

More and more, they recalled how Walcott toppled Louis twice in their first meeting and lost a highly-debated decision only be-cause he climbed on his bicycle in the closing rounds.

Each fighter will get 25 per-cent of net receipts, plus a like alice of radio and television sugar, estimated at $35,000.

43. George was knocked in by brother Virgie, who slammed a base hit. West and Virgie advanced on double steals, then Lovell Baker, in one of his rare hitting moods, parked the ball in left field, to gain his third base hit in four trips. He also scored West in the process. Virgie scored the final Roseburg run when Pete Coor grounded out short to first. Reedsport started the scoring in the third in a wild pitch after singling. Barney Koch opened the count in the Chlefs' portion of the third when he was knocked in by Ted Wilson's single. Recanting on an umpire's deci-sion almost cost Elkton an Ever-green League game Sunday at Florence, but the visiting Elks hung on and won 8.5. Elkton's lead was never threat-ened except in the fifth when Chapman drew a walk, Roach singled, then Chapman was caught between second and third. Umpire Rash called Chapman out but reversed his decision, claiming too many Elkton play-ers were on the base line. He placed Chapman on third, Roach advancing to second on the play. A perturbed Elkton pitcher walked two men, forcing in Chap-man. He hit the next batter, fore-ter of the two the second on the play. The Yankees and St. Louis Browns had an off day.
