

Charles Beats Walcott In Title Bout; Umpqua Chiefs Blank Giustinas, 8-0

Battle Goes Limit; Verdict Is Unanimous

Walcott, Thrive On Verge Of Knockout, Backpedals In The Closing Rounds

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
CHICAGO, June 23.—(AP)—Ezzard Charles, who wanted to be a ring champion ever since he started boxing at the age of 14, has realized his burning ambition.

Last night, after 13 years of slugging his way to the top, this 27-year-old Cincinnati Negro won the NBA version of the world heavyweight title vacated by Joe Louis by decisively defeating Jersey Joe Walcott in a 15-round battle.

Charles won the unanimous decision of the three officials, approval of the National Boxing Association, the consent of Louis and the blessing of the newly formed International Boxing Club, promoters of the bout, which has an exclusive three-year contract with Charles.

But now Charles has to convince the New York Athletic Commission, which is on record as favoring a tournament among contenders, and Massachusetts, which does not belong to the NBA. England, too, will have a champion of its own Sept. 6 when the British Board of Boxing Control recognizes the winner of the Lee Savold-Bruce Woodcock bout for the crown.

The contest was fought in Comiskey Park, home of the Chicago White Sox, where 12 years ago to the night Louis won the championship by knocking out Jimmy Braddock.

The crowd of 25,392, which paid $246,544, was not disappointed to Arthur Wirtz, James D. Norris and Louis, who formed the IBC. However, it was in sharp contrast to the 45,500 fans who paid $715,470 to see the Brown Bomber get off the floor in the first round and flatten Braddock in the eighth.

Age Tells On Walcott

Charles' victory over the 35-year-old Camden, N. J., family man was decisive. Walcott stalked everything on a knockout blow in the first two rounds. But the faltering veteran, who one year ago was beaten into submission by Louis, had lost much of his speed and ring cunning as the result of a year's absence from the ring.

Charles fought a cautious battle. He had his aging foe on the way to a knockout in three different rounds, but Jersey Joe possessed the ring generalship to escape a knockout. He backedpedaled and failed to fight in the closing rounds. Between the 12th and 13th, Joseph Triner, chairman of the Illinois State Athletic Commission, ordered Referee Miller to tell Walcott's handlers to make him fight.

Walcott apparently fought only to remain on his feet until the finish.

Charles at 181 3/4 gave away 13 3/4 pounds to Walcott, who scaled 195 1/2.

The announcement of the unanimous verdict knocked Jake Mintz, one of Charles' four managers, into a complete faint. He collapsed in a neutral corner when Charles was proclaimed the new champion. He quickly recovered, however, and left the ring under his own power.

Keeps the boys on their milking toes!

"Boys will be boys," my friend Ted said one day. "They start talking or dreaming about dates and girls, and first thing you know, they forget to watch the milker."

"That's why I like my new McCormick with the plastic milk hose and timer bell—the milker that says 'When.' You can see and hear when the cow quits giving."

"Just set the dial for the number of minutes needed to milk each cow. Then—when the bell 'dings'—strip the cow with the milker and take off the test cup."

"It's simple. No matter what they're doing—feeding a new calf, carrying milk to the milk house, or just dreaming—they never forget the milker.

"The boys milk faster now, too, and get more milk. They like the way the McCormick varies the vacuum to suit each cow, how it protects tender teats and udders."

"How's the pulsator working?" I broke in.

"Fine! No trouble at all. Operated perfectly, even at 20 below! No oil to gum it up—it just keeps clicking away!"

Folks, the McCormick milker is everything Ted says—and then some. Come in and see for yourself. Ask us about McCormick cream separators and International milk coolers, too.

First Sacker Jones Sparks Cardinals' Winning Streak; Brooklyn's Lead Dwindles

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Vernal (Nippy) Jones, the 24-year-old sophomore first sacker, in his colorless, but efficient way, is doing a bang-up job for the St. Louis Cardinals.

In the Cards' last nine games with Brooklyn, Philadelphia and New York, Jones has wrecked enemy pitching with 17 hits in 38 times at bat. He's driven in 17 runs and boosted his season mark 41 points to a respectable 311.

Jones collected three hits last night to help the Cards defeat the Giants, 11-8. The victory moved the Redbirds to within a half-game of the first place Brooklyn Dodgers, who were defeated by Cincinnati, 4-3.

Cincinnati had to go 11 innings to defeat the Dodgers. Three successive singles by Peanuts Lowrey, Grady Hatton and Walker Cooper furnished the winning run after two were out. Ewell Blackwell, pitching two-and-a-half innings of relief, received credit for his first victory of the season.

A trio of homers by Herman Reich, Hank Sauer and Pitcher Dewey Adkins helped the last place Chicago Cubs outlast the Boston Braves, 9-8.

Restelli Clouts 2 Homers

Dino Restelli, rookie Pittsburgh outfielder, celebrated the end of his first week in the majors by blasting two homers—his fourth and fifth—to lead the Pirates to a 12-3 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies. Vic Lombardi went all the way to notch his first victory of the season.

The Detroit Tigers regained second place from the Philadelphia Athletics, defeating the Red Sox in Boston, 13-4, while the As were bowing to the Cleveland Indians in a 14-inning thriller, 7-3.

The triumph, coupled with New York's split in its double-header with the St. Louis Browns, left the Tigers four games behind the front-running Yankees.

The Yankee received a scare from the cellar-dwelling Browns who whipped them, 5-1, in the opener. However, the Yankees came back to outscore the Browns, 10-8, in the nightcap. In the other American League game, the Chicago White Sox, behind the steady hurling of southpaw Bill Wight, defeated the Senators in Washington, 4-1.

The Browns came within an eyelash of winning a doubleheader from the Yankees. They knocked out Vic Raschi, belaboring the ace righthander with 13 hits in less than six innings of the nightcap, but Tommy Henrich's 14th homer in the last of the sixth, with one man aboard broke up an 8-8 tie.

Dale Mitchell's triple with the bases loaded broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Indians a 14-inning triumph over the As. The win moved the Tribe into fourth place past the Red Sox. Bob Lemon, who replaced starter Gene Bearden in the eighth, allowed one run in seven innings to receive credit for his seventh victory. Carl Schreib was the loser.

Walcott Accuses Charles Of Dirty Tactics In Fight

CHICAGO, June 23.—(AP)—Having flung his leather at Ezzard Charles without avail, Jersey Joe Walcott has decided to fling some mud.

While Charles, newly-crowned NBA heavyweight boxing champion, was paying somewhat of a tribute to loser Jersey Joe by saying "he can take it," Walcott called the 27-year-old Cincinnati better "a sneaky puncher."

Weary Walcott, a shopworn contender who missed his third try at the crown last night on a unanimous decision, told a dressing room crowd that "Charles is not a great fighter—he's a sneaky puncher who hit coming out of the clinches. When the referee broke us, I stopped fighting, but that dirty fighter kept banging away."

Felix Bocchicchio, Walcott's manager, chimed in:

"Charles kept hitting low every round—they were punches that hurt my boy."

Davey Miller, veteran referee, discredited Walcott's charge.

"I thought both fighters broke pretty well for big guys," he observed. "I didn't see any punches thrown coming out of clinches."

Walcott, 25-year-old father of six children, is not ready to call it quits.

"I'll fight Charles again next week, if it could be arranged," he insisted. "I'm going to Camden (N.J.) to rest. Then I'll be ready to fight anybody."

Charles wants to be a fighting champion—"like Joe Louis," "I want as many fights as I can get," he said. "But now I just want to go home and play some golf for a while. Although I trained at a golf course (Sunset Hills near Monmouth, Ill.) they wouldn't let me play."

"I want to be a champion like Louis and I want to play golf as good as him."

Joey Maxim, who gave Charles a rough 15 rounds before losing last winter, may get another crack at him.

"I'll tackle anybody the Champ says," added Charles, who still calls Louis "Champ."

Charles insisted that the only time Walcott bothered him was "when he wouldn't fight."

Seven Tallies Scored In Rampage; Richardson Allows Only Six Hits

By DAN MINDOLOVICH
News-Review Sports Writer

Seven is a lucky number for the Chiefs.

For two nights in succession, Roseburg batsmen suddenly came to life and clobbered their opponents by running up big counts in the seventh frame. Monday it was Reedsport, last night it was the Glusina Reds who suffered from the Chiefs' seventh inning batting spree, in which seven runs were scored.

The final score, 8-0, gave winning pitcher Wally Richardson, who went the route, a shut-out over the visiting Glusina Reds. Roseburg's iron-armed moundman allowed only six well-scattered singles.

Only in the eighth, with two away, did Richardson appear to be in any trouble. With the bases loaded, the result of two singles and a walk, Richardson settled down and struck out the next batter. The first batsman fled out to him. He also struck out the second batter that inning.

Three hits, three walks, a wild pitch and an error put losing pitcher Hal Thompson in an untenable situation in the seventh. He was relieved by Stan Anae. After striking out Virg Sanders, then allowing Jerry Coen to get a long single off him that permitted Norm West and Lovell Baker to score.

The entire Roseburg lineup got a crack at bats that inning. Barney Koch, singling for the fourth time in as many times at bat, started the parade. Ted Wilson walked, then George Sanders firsted on an error.

With the bases loaded, Thompson walked West, forcing in Koch. Baker singled on his first hit of the evening, bringing in Wilson and George. Jerry Huggins walked, Virgie fanned, then Coen hung up his single, scoring two men.

Huggins scored on Thompson's wild pitch and Coen crossed the platter when base umpire Al Flegel called a balk on the pitcher and motioned Coen home. That did it for Thompson.

Richardson drew a walk off Anae, then was picked off going to second when Koch grounded to short. Wilson struck out and the balance of the game was anticlimax.

Both pitchers held their opponents to scattered hits in the first six innings. Virgie Sanders, who firsted on an error, scored in the third on Koch's single and after that, until the seventh, the game was even-Stephen.

Beavers Buy Pitcher Lynn From Los Angeles

PORTLAND, June 23.—(AP)—The Portland Beavers have purchased Japhet (Red) Lynn, veteran right-handed pitcher, for an undisclosed price from the Los Angeles Angels.

He had been sold by the Angels to the Chicago Cubs and then to Dallas of the Texas League, but was returned to Los Angeles when Portland and other Pacific Coast League teams refused to waive him.

The combination of George Sanders to Koch was good for several put-outs that might have caused trouble. Jim Barnes, the opposing shortstop, also robbed Roseburg of several potential hits, managing to snag pop-ups and grounders with apparent ease.

A neat double play in the fifth cooled the visitors in short order, when George Sanders, who was all over the infield during the game, picking up grounders and nabbing pop flies, threw to Koch, who in turn fired to West for a third put out.

Koch's four for five was the high batting average of the evening, while Coen's one for one looks better in the percentage column.

The Chiefs rest up for a big deal with Myrtle Creek Friday night, the game to be played here. They currently lead the league and Roseburg players are itching to even the score. Although Friday night's joust is an exhibition performance, fans are assured some real action.

The Chiefs are doing a bang-up job on the diamond, having only lost four contests in 18 starts. They rate some solid support by the citizenry.

Riddle Roping Club Schedules Rodeo July 3-4

Taking advantage of the double holidays July 3 and 4, the Riddle Roping Club is sponsoring a two-day rodeo in that city. Ike Orr, club president, and himself, a leading rodeo contestant, announced that some top cowboys are expected there for the big show.

A complete program for the two days is scheduled, said Orr. Selection of a queen and her court of princesses will be held Sunday, July 3, at 10 a.m. Nadene Sparks, Roseburg Rodeo queen, will be one of the contestants. The names of others will be announced later.

The rodeo each day will start at 2 p.m. and is slated to be run off as quickly as possible to provide a two to three-hour show of fast action, which will give the audience plenty for their money, Orr said.

Sunday evening there will be a barbecue starting about 7 o'clock, with a dance at 9 p.m. following.

On Monday, July 4, a street parade is scheduled at 10 a.m. In the evening, following the final rodeo show, an hour's fireworks display is slated, with the dance to follow.

Tickets for each day's Rodeo, which sell for $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children, will entitle the holders to attend the barbecue or the fireworks display on their respective nights.

Cash and Belts Posted
Blackie Smith, who supplies many smaller rodeos, is bringing in some outstanding stock. Some $650 in prizes will be offered for the two-day show, along with special belts for winners.

Featured events will include cow milking, calf roping, bareback riding, bull riding, saddle bronc riding, barrel race, stake race, and kids' calf scramble.

Last year's Riddle Rodeo attracted about 45 cowboys said Orr, and a similar number is expected for this event. All entries must register by the night of July 2.

Plans are being made to accommodate larger crowds this year. An additional 100 feet is being built on to the present 1,500-seat grandstand.

Tickets are currently on sale in several stores in Riddle, and a rodeo headquarters will be opened next week.

A belt buckle for the all-around champion is being presented by Brown's Saddle Shop of Roseburg. The queen will receive an engraved belt buckle.

Making glassware by hand was America's first industry. In 1608 a "glass-house," or factory, was built by the colony at Jamestown, Virginia.

Football Schedule At Multnomah Stadium Set

PORTLAND, June 23.—(AP)—Multnomah Civic Stadium released its fall football schedule today, showing 16 games to be played from Aug. 27 to Dec. 3.

The season opens with the Portland-upstate high school all-star game for the Shriners' Hospital Saturday night, Aug. 27. It closes with the state high school championship contest Saturday afternoon, Dec. 3.

In between will be seven other high school games and seven college contests. University of Portland will play in the stadium four times, Oregon State College twice against California, Oct. 1 and Michigan State, Nov. 12—and the University of Oregon once—against Washington, Nov. 5.

The town of Medora, N. D., was founded by a Frenchman, the Marquis de Moers, who named the site after his wife.
