Woman Loses Appeal From Rape Sentence

AUSTIN, Tex., June 23. — (AP) — The court of criminal appeals held in effect yesterday that Mrs. Ruth Thompson of El Paso must serve a life sentence for rape.

The woman and her husband were indicted jointly as principals in the alleged offense against a 9-year-old foster daughter last Oct. 21.

The man was charged with having sexual intercourse with the young girl. The woman was alleged to have aided by holding the girl's hands down on a bed, the opinion said.

Mrs. Thompson denied in testimony any part in or knowledge of the deed.

"We believe the evidence sufficient to sustain the jury's conclusion of the appellant's guilt as a principal," the appeal court said.

The decision affirmed a lower court decision.

Shaking Trees After Rair May Save Cherry Crop

FOREST GROVE, June 23. — (AP) — A Pacific University biology professor suggests that cherries might be saved from splitting after a rain by shaking them.

Dr. John R. Roberts said shaking the tree would remove rain water clinging to the fruit. The cause of cherry splitting is osmotic pressure, which draws the rain water through the cherry skin.

His method—aside from the difficulty of shaking all the trees in an orchard—has a big draw-

CITY COURT CASES

Earl Freeman Wallace, Coos Bay, paid a $20 fine on a drunk charge when arraigned before Municipal Judge Ira B. Riddle on Wednesday. Robert Earl Lucas, Salem, charged with vagrancy, was given a suspended $20 fine or 10 days in the city jail and floated. Leroy Oscar O'Brady, Roseburg, forfeited $20 bail when he failed to appear in answer to a drunk charge, reported Judge Riddle.

It won't work in cases of steady drizzling rain.

Anti-Red Protestant Opposes Catholic Aid

WELLESLEY, Mass., June 23. — (AP) — A New York Protestant theological professor Wednesday urged world Congregational leaders to resist Communism generally but to steer clear of the Roman Catholic hierarchy's anti-Communist crusade.

Speaking at the international council of Congregational Churches' assembly, Prof. John C. Bennett of Union Theological Seminary called for political resistance wherever there is a constructive alternative to Communism.

He said "we should resist its religious error and its totalitarianism means everywhere."

"We should not allow ourselves to become instruments of those who could wage a 'holy war' against Communism. Here Protestants should make it clear that they are not allies of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in its anti-Communist crusade."
