

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van De Camp Jr.

Picture by Master Studio

Gladioli, lilies and stock, in large floor baskets, and tall white cathedral candles in candelabra formed the all-white setting for the lovely wedding ceremony Friday evening, June 10th, at eight o'clock at the First Christian Church, when Miss Shirley Ann Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Haines of Umpqua, became the bride of Clarence Van De Camp Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van De Camp Sr., of Okanagon, Wash. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ceremony by candlelight in the presence of 200 friends and relatives.

Mrs. Clarence Trued played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied R. M. Church, who sang, "Through the Years," and "Because." Mrs. Trued played softly on the organ during the ceremony.

Charlene Moore of Oakland, in a floor length gown of white and lavender over pale green, and Scott Henry of Umpqua lighted the altar candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was very beautiful in a floor-length gown of white chiffon fashioned with lace inserts on the bodice and skirts. The long sleeves came to a point at the wrist. Her three-quarter length veil was held in place by a halo cap of lace. She carried an arrangement of stephanotis centered with a large white orchid with a deep pink throat and tied with a shower of white satin ribbons. For the "something old," the bride wore a gold and diamond bracelet, which had been given to her grandmother, the late Mrs. C. S. Henry of Umpqua, on her wedding day by her husband.

Mrs. Dale Woodruff, of Eugene, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a white orchid gown over pale lavender with a huge lavender bow at the back. She wore a white picture hat and carried an arrangement of Esther Reed daisies tied with lavender ribbons. Miss Dorothy Darcunas and Mrs. Robert Gunderson, bridesmaids, wore gowns of white organdy over yellow, designed identically to that of the matron of honor's. They wore large picture hats and carried Esther Reed daisies tied with yellow ribbons.

Donna Hill, gowned in white organdy over pink, was flower girl and Jeff Flury was ring bearer and carried the ring on a pillow fashioned from white organdy and lace.

Robert DeCamp of Roseburg was best man for his brother and Hayden DeCamp, Roseburg, cousin of the bridegroom, and Robert Gunderson were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with a rose-colored hat with grey veil and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white navy polka-dot dress with matching navy hat and white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of orchids.

A wedding reception followed. The bride and groom and the parents of the bride and bridegroom received the guests at the attractive home of Mrs. T. B. Virden on North Jackson Street. Beautiful arrangements of flowers formed the decorations. The wedding gifts were in charge of Miss Ruby Matthews and Mrs. Allena Rose.

The wedding reception was held in the attractive garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Spencer. A huge fire burned in the outdoor fireplace and the garden was beautifully lighted for the occasion. Colorful garden furniture was arranged about the lawn for the guests.

The bride and bridegroom cut the tiered wedding cake, decorated all in white and topped by a bride couple, and which was later served by Mrs. R. J. Schumaker, of Tacoma, sister of the bride, and Miss Virginia DeCamp, Tacoma, sister of the bridegroom. The punch was served by Mrs. Dexter Rice and Mrs. A. G. Moore, aunt of the bride. The two serving tables were covered with white organdy cloths and were decorated with white magnolias. Mrs. Gerald Bacon, sister of the bride, was in charge of the reception and was assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Manning, Mrs. J. G. Bacon and Mrs. Dean Henry.

Mrs. Hayden DeCamp had charge of the guest book. For traveling the bride chose a pink gabardine suit with pink hat and pink and navy accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Following two weeks honeymooning in Canada, they will return to Roseburg to make their home in the Todd apartments on Winchester street.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included the bridegroom's mother and sister, Mrs. Clarence Van DeCamp Sr., of Okanagon, Wash., and Miss Virginia DeCamp of Seattle; the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schumaker and the latter's son Bobby Day, of Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Woodruff of Eugene, cousins of the bride and Miss Jean Wilcox of Eugene.

The bride was graduated from Oakland, Ore., High School and Business College in Salem. She is secretary to Attorney Dexter Rice and will resume her duties in his office, following her return to Roseburg. The bride was the first bride of the week chosen by Lawson's radio program. The bridegroom attended school in Okanagon, Wash., and is employed as a salesman at DeCamp's Real Estate office on South Stephens Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richard Stark

Picture by Master Studio

The First Presbyterian Church was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday, June 19, when Miss Peggy Louise McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Langlois of lower Garden Valley, became the bride of Charles Richard Stark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Stark of Roseburg. Dr. Morris H. Roach performed the impressive double ring ceremony at three o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Floor baskets filled with white lilies and ferns, flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers, formed the background.

Miss Janice Plummer, organist, played softly on the organ the song, "Always," as the guests assembled and accompanied Wallace Overton, who sang, "Because." She played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to advance to the altar and at the close of the ceremony, she played Mendelssohn's Wedding Reconciliation.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride was beautiful in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a short train, long butterfly sleeves and a Peter Pan collar and yoke of French lace.

W. C. T. U. HAS INTERESTING PROGRAM MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. George Leeper was hostess to the W. C. T. U. at her home on South Kane street Wednesday afternoon. Elder Robertson of the Seventh Day Adventist Church was guest speaker and brought a devotional message and a report on the temperance education work of that denomination. He also favored with a solo, "My King Divine."

The work of the flower mission department was the topic and was presented in the form of a question and answer period. Some of the results were revealed in a dialogue presented by Mrs. C. N. Currier and Mrs. P. Moe. Mrs. Stephen Bistran gave a reading on "The Good American."

New members of the year were honored with corsages at the tea hour, when Mrs. Moe and Mrs. B. B. Irving assisted the hostess in serving.

outlined with seed pearl embroidery of tiny pink roses circled the cake, which was flanked by crystal candelabra holding pink tapers. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and was served by Miss Cynthia Turner and Miss Joan Rutter. Miss Mary Anne Caskey, assisted by Mrs. J. P. Molschenbacher, served the punch. Mrs. John Trozelle, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Nancy Caskey.

For traveling the bride chose a grey checked suit with pink and grey accessories. Her corsage was of pale pink rosebuds. Following a honeymoon to Yellowstone National Park and points north, the couple will make their home in Roseburg.

The bride, a popular member of the younger set, was graduated from Roseburg High School this spring. She has taken an active part in various activities of the school and has served as a major in the Knights of Pythias Girls Drum Corps. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1946. He served a year and a half in the U. S. Navy, six months of which was spent in the South Pacific. The last year and a half he has been employed by the California Oregon Power Company as a contact clerk.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Alva Turnbow, uncle and aunt of the bride from Eugene; Jack Herse of Glendale, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hackney of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Tavenner of Myrtle Creek.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The bride's table, covered with an attractive lace cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bridal couple. Sprays of white and pink flowers decorated the table. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Nancy Caskey.
