Billy Burch, producer of "The Adventures of Champion" series (week-days, 5:30-5:45 p. m.), recently wrote a letter to Dorothy Kemble, New York continuity director for the Mutual Network. Seems that Miss Kemble, as the network's official censor, had been cutting out too much of the scripts to suit Billy. So here is exactly what he wrote:

Counterfeiters Nabbed in Raid in U. S. Capital

WASHINGTON, June 29 —(AP)— Secret service agents have seized almost $100,000 in counterfeit bills in a raid only a half dozen blocks from the White House and Secret Service Headquarters.

The money was being made, the Treasury said, in an office suite at 1807 H Street, Northwest, in the same block with World Bank headquarters.

Four men and a woman were arrested.

A formal statement by the Treasury said charges of manufacturing and passing counterfeit currency were placed against Eugene Hammon Creighton, 25; Walter Wilbur Kidwell, 30; William F. Hughes, 28, and his wife, Josephine, 25; and Arthur M. Behar, 35. All gave Washington addresses.

The Treasury said Creighton and Kidwell "admitted manufacturing the counterfeits" in their business office suite.

They rented the suite March 30, and had inserted in the lease a clause permitting them to "operate a duplicating machine," the Treasury said.

The notes were manufactured in early April and immediately afterward there was an "air tour of the country" to pass them. But, the Treasury said, it was "only meagerly successful."

The population of Los Angeles County, Calif., has increased from less than 34,000 to almost 4,000,000 in the last 70 years.
