FIREWORKS BANNED

Mayor Edwin Johnson of Glendale issued a proclamation last week that no fireworks are to be shot off within the city limits of Glendale except on the ball field of the school grounds, ducted by the Forest Service. Campbell, a former Forest Service employe, lost his life over Germany Nov. 2, 1944, when his crippled bomber crashed.

Campbell Falls, located on the South Umpqua River 13 miles east of Tiller, were officially dedicated to the memory of Robert G. Campbell at a memorial service held at the Falls Sunday, June 26. A visor of the Umpqua National bronze plaque, appropriately placed on a huge boulder near the falls, was unveiled at the impressive ceremony.

The plaque is treatly a ville.

(Pi—Attorneys for Harry Bridges filed a new brief in federal court Tuesday. It said they will renew, on July 6, a request that the indicted CIO longshore leader be permitted to visit France. Federal Judge Michael J. Roche several days ago turned down Bridges' request that he be permitted to aftend a mid-July conference of maritime unions at Marseilles. It is sponsored by the World Federation of Trade Unions.

Chiefs Dated Tonight

Against Junction City

The Junction City Reds invade Roseburg tonight, and a fast encounter may be expected when they meet the Roseburg Chiefs in a return match, on Finlay Field, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Junction City beat the Chiefs in their second game this season. The final 8-0 score has been a sore spot with the home club ever since, and a determined diamond play is anticipated, to even the old score.
