

Umpqua Chiefs Play Bandon On July 3, 4

Games To Be Feature Of Big Celebration On Coast City's Field

Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs have a big schedule on hand for the Fourth of July weekend. They travel to Bandon for a two-day series of games with the Bandon baseball club, July 3 and 4.

The games will highlight Bandon's Independence Day celebration, which will also feature dances, parades, fireworks and a fish fry.

Bandon's roster includes Ray Baird, 1b; Jerry McNeil, 2b; Pete Taylor, ss; Dub Owens, 3b; Don Goddard, 3b; Don Dorrill, 3b; Jim Scott, lf; Chas. Mickelson, lf; Pete Goodbrod, cf; Del Koch, c; Chuck Smith, rf; Frank Jarvis, cf; Phil St. George, utility; Herb Scott, mgr.

With five pitchers on the Bandon roster, the Chiefs will be out to see that all get a crack at mound chores, as Roseburg batters attempt to pound them out of the box. Bandon's star hurler, Jack Shafter, is a southpaw. He has won two games so far. John Nauman and Frank Dierick, both right handers, have won one each.

Roseburg will probably carry the following players with them: Barney Koch, 2b; George Sanders, ss; Earl Hampton, 3b; Jerry Huggins, lf; Dick Debernardi and Ted Wilson, cf; Virg Sanders and Hal Edgar, lf; Pete Coor and Bobby Sanders, c; Dexter Gary, 2b; Lovell Baker, 3b; Jerry Coen, rf; and pitchers Mel Krause, Wally Richardson, Don Reed and Roy Long.

Motorcyclists To Vie At Meet At Cottage Grove

Thrills and spills will be the order of the day, as the top cycle riders of the Northwest tackle the course provided by the Cottage Grove Motorcycle Club for a Hill Climb the 4th of July.

Weeks of preparation have gone into making the hill climb in grand condition to provide the riders and spectators alike with the best hill climb of the season. The best riders available will be on hand to tackle the hill—one that will provide obstacles for the best of them.

In addition to the element of competition in vying for top honors during the meet, the contest has the appearance of a personal duel between two former national champions, Casey Jones of Springfield and Johnny Martinich of Portland. On June 5, when these riders tackled Wagner's Butte near Corvallis, Martinich was the only rider to scale the complete climb. Later, however, in The Dalles, Jones beat Martinich in both the 45-cubic inch and 50-cubic inch events and the Portland star will be out to recapture the top position among the Northwest hill-climbers.

But neither of these two will have things all their own way Monday afternoon. For such star riders as Joe Nyes of Beaverton, Ralph Moores of Bend, and Ray Hyland of Eugene, to name but a few, will be on hand to force the "rated" experts to the limit.

The site of the Cottage Grove Hill climb is located eight miles south of Cottage Grove on Highway 99, with plenty of parking space available. District Referee Tommy Bolen of Milwaukie will officiate. Approximately 20 riders are expected to enter in the three divisions, expert, novice and amateur.

SIGNS BASEBALL CONTRACT
PORTLAND, July 2—(AP)—Bill Corvallis, 20-year-old Portlander who didn't make the varsity at Oregon State, did better with the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Major League club signed Corvallis to a contract after seeing him play in the Brooklyn baseball school near Seattle. He has been farmed out to Santa Barbara of the California State League.

Fishers Original Ghosts Booked For Sunday Softball

The City softball league will pool its talent for Sunday night's action against Fisher's Original Ghosts. Roseburg's All-Stars will face the Negro club at Finlay Field, starting at 7:15 p.m.

The Ghosts float in from Sioux City, where they have been haunting the local baseball park recently.

Sunday night's action is expected to be a spirited affair. Admission is 75 and 50 cents. The visiting team has been enjoying one of its best seasons, holding an .867 average in wins and losses against all competition.

Previously a hard-hitting team, the Ghosts this year have on their roster five men who can travel a 100-yard course in 10 seconds, so are mixing drags and bunts with extra-base hits to keep opponents off-balance.

In addition to top-notch softball, fans will see plenty of comedy. Top comedian is "Two-Ton" Favors, famous catcher and team captain. Favors keeps up a running fire of gags and comments on everyone participating in the game, including his teammates and the umpires.

The greatest single attraction in comedy, however, is the shadow-hall game. Almost impossible to describe, it is a full inning of softball, played without a ball. The colored balls choose up teams, and furnish their own umpires. This "contest" features line drives, rited into home plate for put-outs in nothing flat; tantalizing slow balls which take a full minute to reach the plate, and a game of burnout in which at least one player generally winds up on the turf. The last two putouts are made in slow motion and include a slow motion slide into third base which has to be seen to be believed.

Bullet In Waitkus Not Located By Surgeons
CHICAGO, July 2—(AP)—Eddie Waitkus, first baseman for the Philadelphia Phillies, who was shot by his most fanatical admirer, had his lung re-expanded yesterday but surgeons did not find the bullet near his spine.

Surgeons at Billings Memorial hospital, where the 29-year-old star was taken, operated to re-expand the lung which had been partially collapsed by blood released by the wound. Waitkus was on the table more than two hours.

The surgeons also looked for the bullet which is lodged near Waitkus' spine, but did not reach it. They said another operation to remove it would not be performed.

Waitkus' condition was reported as satisfactory after the operation. No one would say whether he would be able to play ball again this season.

Sandlot Rules Forgotten; Hitter Forgets To Run

By JIM HUBBART
Associated Press Sports Writer
There's one baseball rule every sandlot player knows by heart. Namely: scoot for first base when the catcher drops the third strike.

San Diego's Orestes Minofo forgot it Friday night in a Pacific Coast League scramble with Seattle. And apparently nobody told Sammy White, the Rainiers' catcher, about the third strike rule. The result was a grotesque miscarriage of the national pastime.

Bobby Wilson singled in the first inning and moved up on a wild pitch. Minofo fanned, then stood at the plate and watched as White dropped the ball.

Confusion Mounts
Trying to nab Wilson, White threw to Leon Mohr at second. Mohr then hit Wilson in the back on toss to third. Seattle shortstop Bob Sturgeon retrieved the ball and fired it to Pitcher Jack McCall, who tagged Wilson at the plate, but straightaway dropped the leather like a hot potato.

Meanwhile, Minofo was prodded by his Padre teammates and started running. He got all the way to second as the Rainiers stood around bemused, but the umpires ruled Minofo was out since he got some assistance in finally setting sail down the base path. Manager Bucky Harris protested, but San Diego went on to take a legitimate 5-2 verdict without the services of their attorney. The series stands at 2-2.

Oakland Erupts
At Hollywood, Oakland erupted with an eight-run sixth inning and performed a 126 outburst on the league-leading Stars. Hollywood pitchers Pinky Woods and Walt Olsen provided the comedy relief in that one, hitting one batter and walking five others. The Oaks needed only two hits in the inning. They evened the series at two each.

Portland's Hal Saltzman registered a neat five-hit shutout, beating Sacramento, 4-0. Luis Marquez' homer inside the park sparked Portland's attack. The Solons hold a 3-2 edge in the series.

Los Angeles descended further into the cellar by losing to San Francisco, 4-3. The Seals won it on a pinch-hit double by Brooks Holder with two on in the eighth. The victory gave the O'Douls a 3-1 bulge in the series.

Roseburg And Sutherlin Legion Teams Matched
Attracting almost as much interest as the coronation of the Timber Days Centennial Queen last night, will be the Roseburg-Sutherlin Junior Legion League game to be played at Sutherlin this afternoon.

Barney Koch's talented group will travel to the north side city in full force. Expected to participate in today's action are the following Roseburg players: Mickey Coen, lf; John Rauschert, c; Glen Scofield, lf; Leo Bowers, ss; Claren Hooper, p; Stumbo, 3b; H. Stumbo, cf; Dix Burnett, rf; and Dexter Gary, 2b.

Night Pitching Star Fails To Repeat Wins

Harry Brecheen Proves Disappointing As Cards Lose To Cincinnati

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
What happened to Harry Brecheen after dark magic? The wiry little St. Louis Cardinal southpaw was poison at night last season. Under the lights he had a 14-3 mark enroute to his fine 20-7 season.

After winning three night starts early this season, he lost his touch. The Cat has failed to finish his last four owl starts. His latest disappointment really hurt.

With a chance to tie the Brooklyn Dodgers for the National League lead by whipping Cincinnati last night, the Red Birds flopped, 10 to 2. Brecheen started, but faded for a pinchhitter in the fourth. St. Louis trailed 3-0 and the lowly Reds had four hits off the Cat who walked five. Normally he passes only one or two in a nine-inning job.

Third Card Loss
The pasting by Cincinnati, which has been staggering toward the cellar, was the third Card loss in their last five games against second division opposition.

Brooklyn stubbed its toe on New York's Dave Koslo in an afternoon setback, 4-1, that gave St. Louis a chance to close the gap. Don Newcombe was unable to hold an early 1-0 lead and finally was knocked out for the first time in a month while the Giants were enroute to a three-run rally in the eighth.

Vern Bickford gave the Boston Braves control of third place as he hit the 10-win mark with a 12-inning decision over the Phillies, 2-1. The young righthander singled to start the 12th, rode to third on Eddie Stanky's single and scored on Al Dark's game-winning single.

Muncrief Winning Pitcher
Bob Muncrief, recently sold by Pittsburgh to Chicago for the waiver price, pitched the Cubs to a 6-5 edge over the Pirates in a 12-inning game at St. Louis after Dutch Leonard was knocked out in the fourth.

Charley Keller, another one of Casey Stengel's cripples, took his turn at giving the New York Yankees a lift. He hit a pinch hit, a four-run rally in the ninth inning. The Yanks came from way back to nip Washington, 5-4, with Joe DiMaggio confining his activities to one single and a walk in four trips.

Eddie Joost, the Philadelphia A's sparkplug, had a great night, driving in five runs with three hits, including his 17th homer, in a 11-5 romp over Boston. The victory left the A's five and a half games back of the leading Yanks.

Cleveland took over third place by doubling the St. Louis Browns, 3-1, on Al Benton's six-hitter, while Detroit was being blanked by Chicago's Bill Wight, 4-0.

Sneed Hits 'Em Hard But Fails With Putts
WASHINGTON, July 2—(AP)—The crowd comes out to see golf's four-run hitters, but the payoff still goes to the man who can drop those putts.

This was well illustrated here yesterday in the $15,000 Washington State open tournament. Sam Sneed, the sweet swinger from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., was doing some nice driving, as usual.

But though he was long with his drives he was short with his putts. The gallery groaned in sympathy at No. 12. "Git in, you dog," cried West Virginia Sam.

The ball stopped a good foot from the cup. It was that way all day, and Sneed wound up with a 69, three under par, but still five strokes behind the leader, Al Smith of Weston Salem, N. C.

Ted Neid, Walla Walla, Wash., tied for fourth with 34-33-67.

Corvallis Girl Loses In Golf Quarter-Finals
LINCOLN, Neb., July 2—(AP)—Gracie De Moss, Corvallis, Ore., was eliminated from the trans-Mississippi golf tournament in the quarter-finals yesterday.

Miss De Moss was defeated, 4 and 2, by Betty MacKinnon of Mount Pleasant, Texas.

Miss MacKinnon teed off against Marjorie Lindsay, Decatur, Ill., in a semi-final today. The other semi-final pits Polly Riley, Fort Worth, against Betsy Rawls, Austin, Tex.

Whipple Sand Flees Beat Drain Lions Club Team
The Whipple Sand Flees defeated the Drain Lions Club softball team 10-8 in a league game played at Drain earlier this week.

In the first part of the double header, the Kilowatts rode herd on the Woolley Cattle Rustlers by a score of 10-3. The cattle Rustlers were without the services of Big Jim Stoop, their curve ball artist. His absence reportedly worked considerable hardship for the Rustlers.

Another softball team has been added to the Drain league. Entitled the Whipple Tuba Scantlings, they start play next week.

HERE WEDNESDAY—Albert Cartmill is the Kansas City Monarchs' capable shortstop from Ft. Madison, Ia. He was one of the outstanding players ever to come from that territory. Cartmill is only 19 and is the youngest man on the team. He handles himself like a veteran, however, and is a long ball hitter with plenty of power.

Exhibition Baseball Tilt Scheduled With Monarchs
Roseburg is scheduled for a real baseball treat Wednesday, July 6, when the Umpqua Chiefs play the Kansas City Monarchs in an exhibition tilt at Finlay Field.

The Kansas City Monarchs are touring the United States and Canada, playing about 160 games with ball clubs in most of the Central, Western and Northwest states and three provinces of Canada. The Monarchs last year played to over 200,000 fans in their 50,000 mile tour and won 96 per cent of the games played.

Last year the famous Satchel Paige started the season with the Monarchs, playing 27 games with them before being sold to the Cleveland Indians. Many of the players on the team are boys picked by Paige himself and the team's greatest pleasure is hearing that "Old Satch" won another game.

Managing the Monarchs is a man who has rated along side Paige for the last 20 years as one of the greatest outfielders in Negro baseball. His name is "Cool Papa" Bell. He was nicknamed "Cool Papa" because of his coolness while on the field. For over 20 years, Bell was the fastest man in Negro baseball and today, like Paige, is still a dangerous man to play against. Bell managed Paige's All Stars last fall in several post-season games in California against Gene Bearden's All Stars. Paige's group won two out of three games in the series.

J., nearly 24 days previously. One bottle contains Atlantic Ocean water, the other—newly filled—Pacific Ocean water. He had made several bets totalling more than $350 he could make the 3,046.2-mile trip in less than 30 days. (AP Wirephoto)

Rooms Needed For Housing 75 Swim Stars
The Junior Chamber of Commerce urges that townspeople who have room available to house swimmers over-night contact the Chamber of Commerce. Nearly 75 swimmers, representing athletic clubs throughout the state, will be here to participate in the first annual Southern Oregon Invitational meet July 9 and 10.

The Oregon AAU sanctioned swimming meet's results will be entered as official AAU records for this year. Roseburg's Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the affair and all proceeds will be turned over to the swimming pool fund, to be used for the many improvements still necessary to make the pool one of the best in the state.

Already, several swimming groups have released tentative lists of participants. A party of 31 swimmers will be here from the Portland aquatic club to put on a water spectacle Saturday night. They are the famed Aquanettes, coached by A. J. Schorn. They will arrive here Friday, July 8.

The Northeast Y. M. C. A. in Portland and the Athletic Club at The Dalles are sending 12 contestants each. The Multnomah Athletic club, famed for its world-famous Cody Kids, will be here in full force. Leo Harris, athletic director at the University of Oregon, indicated desire to send a team here from Eugene.

Also scheduled to appear is Al Patnik, former Olympic diving star who will present a diving exhibition. Patnik will fly in Saturday morning, July 9.

WINS TENNIS TITLE
LONDON, July 2—(AP)—Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., today captured the Wimbledon women's tennis championship with a 10-8, 1-6, 10-8 victory over Mrs. Margaret Osborne du Pont of Bellevue, Del.

Ted Schroyer of La Crescenta, Calif., yesterday captured the men's division of Europe's top court tournament.
