

U. S. And Mexico In Parley Over Labor Problem

MEXICO CITY, July 2.—(P)—Mexico and the United States still are talking over a new Bracero agreement but complete accord is not in sight.

The agreement would send Mexican farm labor to help in U. S. harvests. Mexico canceled a former agreement Oct. 18, 1948, when U. S. Immigration authorities and Texas officials allowed thousands of Mexicans to swarm across the border at El Paso, Tex.

The indications are that both countries want an agreement—U. S. farmers can use extra harvest hands and Mexico needs the dollars they send or bring home.

Government authorities said minor difficulties have been solved but there still are some big disagreements.

One hitch is the cost of transportation to and from jobs. Mexico wants Braceros recruited from

Long Period Of Tension Ahead, Gen. Bradley Says

FT. LEAVENWORTH, Kas., July 2.—(P)—Gen. Omar N. Bradley said yesterday this country must "anticipate a long period of tension" in its military planning.

The Army chief of staff, in a talk delivered before graduation exercises at the Command and General Staff College here, said "militarily speaking, the situation is as stable as it is going to be for some time to come."

"In the four years since V-J Day," he said, "I think the advantage has swung to our side and that the aggressor, who was once a friend, is now on the defensive."

"Rather than expect a long period of friendly cooperation, however, we must anticipate a long period of tension, with alternating day-to-day improvements or setbacks, which must not be allowed to destabilize the long-range plans for security."

The general spoke before a class of 415 officers—365 from the United States and 51 from other countries.

GREEN GUARDS ALERTED

SALEM, July 2.—(P)—Almost 20,000 Green Guards, who are from 8 to 16 years old, are on the alert to prevent fireworks from setting fires in dry grass and forest lands.

The Keep Oregon Green Association, which sponsors the Green Guard, appealed for help in preventing fires caused by fireworks.

KDND DIAL-LOG

Senator Eugene D. Millikin of Colorado, ranking Republican member of the Senate Finance Committee, will be interviewed by Marquis Childs, syndicated columnist; Tom Reynolds, of the Chicago Sun-Times; Bill Mylander, of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, and Lawrence Spivak, editor, American Mercury Magazine, on tonight's "Meet the Press" program at 6. Albert L. Warner will be the moderator. The "Take a Number" quiz show oughta be good tonight ... when a crew of madcap gag-writers appear as contestants on the broadcast. (7-7:30 p. m. PST)

Uncle Sam Closes Nation's Biggest Bargain Shop

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(P)—The government closed up shop yesterday on what once was the nation's biggest merchandise bargain counter.

The War Assets Administration went out of business after handling disposal of surplus war property with an original price tag of $27,000,000,000 during its often hectic four-year existence.

Final agency records showed a return to the treasury of about $4,250,000,000 from WAA transactions. That's about 22 cents received for every dollar spent on the mountains of combat-essential commodities and properties which ranged from multi-million dollar war plants to canned beef.

The thousands of war leftovers in which the agency did a land office business through regional salesrooms from coast-to-coast are now largely in private hands.

Still on the books, however, is a $1,829,000,000 original cost inventory. Officials said the figure mainly represents real estate now leased to private companies and individuals — surplus property which ultimately will be sold.

These future transactions — as well as disposal of any odds and ends of remaining surplus property—now become the responsibility of the newly-created Government Services Administration, which President Truman yesterday signed into law.
