Becomes Bride Of Roy E. Crain

Mrs. Roy E. Crain

In a double ring ceremony Saturday evening, June 11, performed by Rev. William Kettlitz in the Presbyterian Church at Independence, Iowa, Miss Beatrice A. Frye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. Frye, became the bride of Roy E. Crain, son of J. R. Crain of Grand Junction, Colo. Two-hundred guests attended the wedding.

Four seven branch candelabra holding tall white tapers and large baskets of white peonies and syringa decorated the sanctuary. Mrs. Arda Davis played the organ music and accompanied Mrs. Beldon Lemons, who sang, "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was charming in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a full court train. The sleeves came to a point at the wrists and the neckline was a round marquisette yoke trimmed with imported lace. Her veil of illusion was held in place with a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweetpeas centered with pink roses.

Mrs. Glen A. Rogers of Percival, Iowa, was matron of honor for her sister and wore a gown of orchid marquisette over taffeta with matching tiara and mitts. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Betty Fieking, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a gown of pale pink with matching tiara and mitts. She carried a bouquet of deep pink roses.

Norman S. Frye Jr., brother of the bride was best man and Orlo Naugle of Greeley, Colo., nephew of the bridegroom, was groomsman. Ushers were Glen A. Rogers of Percival, Iowa; Dr. Milton Fieking, Washington, Ia.; Joe E. Mumaw, Jesup, Ia.; and Warner Frye, Independence, Ia.

The bride's mother wore a gray silk dress and a corsage of yellow roses.

MAY REPEAT TAX VOTE BEAVERTON, July 2.—(AP)—Beaverton is considering that increasingly popular tax system of try, try again. After voters turned down a special $16,656 levy by a 77-to-47 margin, city officials began debating whether to hold the election over again. The trouble is, said Mayor H. H. Jefferies, that otherwise Beaverton can't run. The city has only $8,000 to last out a year.
