

National Ritualistic Honors Sought By Roseburg Elks' State Champions

REPRESENT OREGON—Winners of the Oregon State Elks ritualistic contest, Roseburg's ritualistic team pictured here will leave Wednesday night, July 6, for Cleveland, Ohio, to represent the state at the National Elks convention. They include (left to right) Exalted Ruler Hal Ayotte, Bob Simmons, Dr. A. E. Dalros, Allen Cordon, Harry Pinniger, Ed Nolte, A. J. Ellison and Roy Weeks. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

A party of 22 members of the Roseburg Elks Lodge 326 and their wives will leave Roseburg at midnight Wednesday, July 6, enroute to Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the national convention of the B. P. O. E.

Included in the group will be the Roseburg ritualistic team, which won state honors during last year's convention held in Roseburg. The members include Hal Ayotte, the present exalted ruler; Al Simmons, Dr. A. E. Dalros, Allen Cordon, Harry Pinniger, Ed Nolte, A. J. Ellison and Roy Weeks.

All are taking their wives, and will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Al Henninger, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Krewson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ryan.

From Roseburg the group will go to Portland, and leave there at 3 p. m. on Thursday. They expect to arrive in Cleveland July 9. The ritualistic team is scheduled to compete for national honors at 9 a. m. Tuesday, July 12.

The team members are making sure everyone will know the town and state from which they come. They will be wearing jackets, bearing the lettering "Roseburg, Oregon Timber Capital," on the left side.

On the back of the jackets is the Elks' emblem. The special lettering and design work is done by a patient at the Veterans Hospital. This patient does what is considered especially fine work and earns money for his own use doing it.

Dr. J. E. Campbell Conducts Meeting Of Roseburg Lions

The Roseburg Lions Club held a brief meeting Thursday night, under the direction of the new president, Dr. James E. Campbell.

Report was made that Riddle Lions Club will hold an installation at 6:30 p. m. July 5, and Canyonville will install July 11. As many members as possible from the Roseburg club were urged to attend.

Treasurer Walter Welker reported the club's concession at the Douglas County Sheriff's posse rodeo recently was very successful.

Leo Walker, son-in-law of Dr. L. M. Lehrbach, visiting here from San Francisco, Calif., was a guest.

The name of James Daugherty was omitted from the published list of members who received 100 per cent attendance pins during the installation of officers last Saturday night at the Country Club.

District Governor Forest Losee conducted installation ceremonies at Sutherlin Wednesday night. He was accompanied by Phil Harth, his cabinet secretary, and Mrs. Harth. Tuesday night he installed the Lions at Medford and Mrs. J. P. Molschenbacher, who with Mr. Molschenbacher accompanied him, installed the Lady Lions in that city.

Motorist Uses Gun To Get Help K-Falls Charge

KLAMATH FALLS, July 2—(AP)—A motorist who is accused of using a rifle to flag down help was in the county jail at Alturas today.

Modoc sheriff's officers identified him as Edgar Capps, 22, from Oklahoma.

They said that Capps, Sammy Danner and Marlin Faddis, both of Alturas, were driving toward Klamath Falls on Highway 139 early yesterday morning and their car became stranded on a high center beside the highway when they attempted to turn around.

After several cars passed without giving help, Capps is accused of firing several shots at one car which slowed down and then sped on.

The officers said that Danner and Capps crawled under a roadside fence but Capps stayed with the car and later fled down Carl Erhardt of Glendale, Ariz., by brandishing the gun.

Erhardt, obeying order, was engaged in pulling the stranded car back into the road when Joseph Walter Thompson of Cedarvale approached in a southbound car.

Thompson became confused by the lights ahead and his car collided with the Erhardt machine.

The drivers of the damaged cars reported to authorities and officers arrested Capps in the vicinity of Canby. They also picked up Danner for questioning.
