NEW YORK, July 6.—(AP)—Chiang Kai-shek appealed for United States aid in combatting the spread of Communism in China, in an interview reported by Clyde Farnsworth, Scripps-Howard staff writer.

The interview was obtained at Taipei, Formosa, with the 62-year-old generalissimo confining nearly all his publishable comments to written answers to questions submitted in advance, Farnsworth said.

Chiang retired from the presidency of China last January but kept his leadership of the Kuomintang Party. He declared in answer to one question that regardless of whether he holds any political office, he could never "give up my revolutionary leadership" of the Chinese people as long as independence and freedom are yet to be achieved.

EXHAUSTING CONTEST—Only two out of six contestants were able to complete their cut through the 36-inch log at the hand bucking contest in Sutherland's Timber Days celebration Monday afternoon. Photo above shows Jim Wright, second place winner, nearing the end of his five minutes, 47 seconds cut. Doug Parazoo, first place winner, beat Wright by five seconds.

He answered "yes" to the questions: "Do you feel that if the Communist forces aren't now checked in China the Communist movement will spread through Asia?" and "Do you believe this spreading Communist movement is part of a plan of the Soviet Union to dominate the entire world?"

The question with reference to American aid was: "How can China win this new war of resistance? What help does she require? Can the national government survive without foreign help? Do you expect a third world war?"

To this Chiang answered in part: "The first step, it seems to me, is for the United States to reactivate its policy of giving moral support to the Chinese government in its fight against Communism. . . . nor by her assumption of world leadership in the light against Communism will the United States exclude China from the scope of her aid. Otherwise the future of the fight by the Democratic countries against Communism will be gloomy indeed and a calamity for mankind will be irretrievable."

Millions More Asked For British Spending

LONDON, July 6.—(AP)—The labor government made a surprise request to parliament Tuesday for £21,338,894 ($85,355,576) more spending money.

The supplementary budget estimates came three months after the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Stafford Cripps, in a "hard labor" budget speech, called for a whopping £3,326,000,000 ($13,304,000,000) to run the country until next March 31.

Today's added requests surprised members of Commons who recalled that Cripps' budget speech had warned that only in "special cases, such as major changes of policy," would supplementary estimates be submitted.

Most of the new estimates were earmarked for use in British colonies.

The 40-year-old unemployed World War II veteran emerged from a deluxe "grave" Monday He had been underground just 40 minutes short of 45 days.

"I feel fine," he said. Then he sat down until he could get some strength in his legs.

The Zanesville man announced he was ready to defend his title anytime someone wanted to set a new mark. The old one, set in 1938, belonging to another Zanesville resident, L. G. McIntyre, who did his horizontal hibernation in Chicago.

Emmert was buried six feet under in a wooden casket, with a shaft leading from his face to the surface. Down the shaft came his food and wine, and thousands visited his burial place for a peek down the shaft.

Czechs Deny Visa To American Commentator

NEW YORK, July 6.—(AP)—Henry J. Taylor, radio commentator and writer, now on a round-the-world trip, has been refused permission to visit Communist Czechoslovakia, his office announced Tuesday.

The Czech consul in New York notified the office that his government had refused a visa to Taylor and had given no reason.

Taylor's secretary said an explanation would be sought from the State Department as to why American newsmen are barred from Czechoslovakia while our diplomats are welcomed.

Last week, the Czech government expelled an American correspondent, Harold Melahn of the United Press, and brought about the withdrawal of a British reporter, Godfrey Lias of the London Times. No reasons were given for these actions.

Aeschylus, greatest of the Greek tragic poets, won 13 contests until he was defeated in 468 by Sophocles.
