Commentator Prefers The No-Brow

NEW YORK .- (A)-Are you a highbrow or a lowbrow? This is the biggest question today in the Salons and saloons of Manhattan.

Nobody Inquires any more whether you're in society's Blue Rook No one except maybe a visiting congressman asks whether you are or ever have been a member of the Communist Party. And who cares now whether you belong to the National Association of Manufacturers or pay dues to the Glass Workers Union? Echo answers: "Not a soul.

LAST LOOK—Ruth Steinhagen, flanked by Attorney Michael Brodkin and a policewoman in Chicago's Pelony Court, cranes her neck to see her hero, Phillies' First Baseman Eddie Waltkus (in wheelchair, right), whom she shot June 14 "for the thrill of murder." The Felony Court bound her over to the Grand Jury, which indicted her for assault with intent to commit murder. The proceedings in which Waitkus testified against her, took only 11/2 hours. She was adjudged insene at the hearing.

UNKINDEST CUT—When a nearby grocery undersold him on candy, gum and cigarets, Glen Park, Indianapolis, Ind., druggist retaliated by stocking some grocery items and slashing prices.

Park sells eggs at 49 cents a dozen against his rival's price of 65 cents.

Many local dairymen who depend largely on ensilage to feed their dairy herds during the late summer and fall have started using grass for ensilage instead

This is a recent innovation started for two reasons. One is that it is not always possible to produce a good corn crop so clos to the coast where cool nights are the rule rather than the ex-ception. It also allows farmers to use grass that is raised for hay but proves impossible to cure because of adverse weather condi-tions. When used for ensilage, the grass is allowed to cure very little after being mowed before being cut up and put in the silo.

$50,000 Blaze

Mine Damaged By

Historic Virtue

BAKER, July 7.—(P)—Possible actual loss from the fire in the Virtue mine east of Baker was estimated at between $50,000 and $60,000 by Anthony Brandenthaler, operator of the mine.

Although the fire is smoldering in the mine shaft for its fourth day. Brandenthaler said that earlier reports about possible damage were exaggerated Accurate information on the extent of destruction of the mine shaft and equipment will not be available until workmen are able to enter the now smoke-filled tunnel.

The Virtue Mine, located 11 miles east of Baker, has been one of the most prollfic producers in this state, in its heyday it is believed that the mine produced a hundred and fifty million dollars worth of ore. Production since the 1860s has been steady but not spectacular. Recently the mine company has employed only six full time workers but was intending to increase this force for a new operation to get under way soon.

About $100,000 worth of new equipment has been installed recently.

The mine, credited with "at one The mine, credited with "at one time saving the First National Bank from going broke," covers 400 acres, all patented. Discovery of the mine came in the early 1860s as goldseekers looked for the legendary Blue Bucket diggings reported by travelers in this area twenty years earlier. It was named after its founder, James W, Virtue, Baker County pioneer.

Sen. Vandenberg Urges Approval Of Atlantic Pact

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(27)—Senator Vandenberg of Michigan today asked the Senate to ratify the North Atlantic Pact as a shield for free men against "embattled, greedy communism."

He opened the second day of debate on the 12-nation alliance with the double-barreled statement that (1) communism is the sole threat to world peace and (2) its final target is the United States.

States.

The treaty will be a warning to would-be conquerors, Vandenberg said, that 300,000,000 people will resist aggression.

As Republican leader in foreign affairs, he added the weight of his prestige to that of Senator Connally (D.Tex.) who led off in the debate yesterday.

As Vandenberg spoke, Senate leaders saw a good chance to win final approval of the treaty in less than a week of debate. They were encouraged by a general
