Vets' Insurance Checks Will Start In January

At 4:45 p.m. every Monday and Wednesday for the rest of the summer the children of elementary school age will have a chance to listen to a story.

The VMCA will be a story.

WASHINGTON, July 13—(P)—Dividend checks from national service life insurance probably will start going out at the rate of 200,000 a day next January, the Veterans Administration says.

ary school age will have a chance to listen to a story.

The YMCA, with the cooperation of station KRNR and six women of the community, will put on the program. The first story will be given next Monday afternoon and Mrs. Mary East man will be the story teller. Her story title will be announced be fore the end of the week.

Each woman will tell a story on a Monday and follow up with a different story on Wednesday. Some of the stories to be heard are: "The Little Engine That Could," "Little Black Sambo and the Baby Elephant." "Black Beauty," and "Hercules, the Old Fashioned Fire Engine."

All children are invited to listen
