

Umpqua Chiefs Defeat Prospect, 10-6

Batting Spree In 8th Frame Decides Game

Reed Blanks Visitors 'Til Injury In 4th; Koch Gets 3 Hits, Steals 5 Bases

By DAN MINDOLOVICH
News-Review Sports Writer
The Roseburg Umpqua Chiefs defeated Prospect, 10-6, in a Southern Oregon league game at Finlay field Sunday, but it wasn't easy.

After gaining a four-run lead in the first two innings, the Chiefs coasted along behind the two-hit pitching of Don Reed. Reed hurt his thumb while at bat in the fourth and Wally Richardson took over on the hill.

The visitors suddenly came to life, scored two runs in the fifth and three in the sixth, to go ahead 5-4.

Barney Koch, finally coming out of a batting slump by three for four, leveled the count at 5-11 in the sixth, scoring on an error after gaining first on a single.

Prospect went ahead in the eighth on a run by Gene Lendamen, who doubled, but Roseburg's Bunky Hill, pinch-hitting for Pete Coor, started a scoring spurge in the eighth that netted the Chiefs five runs and the ball game.

The visitors failed to do much in the ninth and Roseburg chalked up its 22nd win in 28 games this season.

Earl Hampton replacing Koch in the leadoff position, scored the first Roseburg run. He was knocked in by George Sanders who made first on an error. Sanders stole home putting the Chiefs ahead 2-0.

In the second, Ted Wilson reached first on an error, then came home on a passed ball. Koch followed with a single then scored on Reed's ground-out, pitcher to first.

John Gitzen, first man to face Richardson, walked in the fifth. Don Priene followed with a single then both advanced on Chuck Cubbedge's sacrifice. Pitcher Bob Cloud singled both men in.

In the sixth, the formerly list-

Weaver's Old Back-Pat Trick Defeats Jack Kiser; Williams, Hunter Win Other Mat Bouts

By CHUCK PLUMMER

Douglas county wrestling fans learned that Buck Weaver, the villain from Indiana, is out to win top money in the current wrestling tournament in any way possible, as he pulled every foul trick banned by the book to decision popular Jack Kiser in the two-out-of-three fall main event at the Armory Saturday night.

Less Prospect crew came to life. Chuck Campbell, leading off, reached first on a bad throw by Hampton. The next man grounded out, but Tom Colley followed with a single.

John Gitzen, next man out, slammed a two-bagger that scored both Campbell and Colley and tied up the game.

Hampton again plagued by bad luck, missed his throw to first after stopping Chuck Cubbedge's hit ball, allowing Gitzen to score. Koch tied up the game, then Prospect went ahead in the eighth.

Koch, leading off in the bottom half of the eighth, drove a hard one through second base, good for a single, then Hill followed with a high one into center field, on which Koch scored.

Wally Richardson beat out an infield roller, then Hill scored on Hampton's fly-out to center. Virg and George Sanders each drew walks, then West drove one through short, scoring Richardson and Virg.

George Sanders came in on Huggins' fly-out, to end the scoring.

The Chiefs batted completely around in the eighth.

Koch Pilfers 5 Bases
Barney Koch, in addition to putting on the best batting performance after asking for a lineup change, also managed to steal five bases, which is a record for any one Chiefs' game. He made the steals good for three runs.

Lendamen's two for four and West's two for five were second and third best batting efforts.

Stephens' Bat Sparks Bosox' Pace In Race

Yankees, Chisox Divide
Twin Bill; Dodgers Keep Slim Lead Over St. Louis

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sportswriter
If the Boston Red Sox fail to overtake the New York Yankees in the American league pennant struggle, it will not be the fault of Vern (Junior) Stephens.

Stephens currently is pacing the field with 23 four baggers and 93 runs batted in. His closest pursuer is teammate Ted Williams, who has 21 homers and 89 RBIs. Vern lashed out two homers and drove in all Boston's runs as the Red Sox divided a doubleheader with the Indians in Cleveland yesterday.

With first baseman Mickey Vernon knocking in three runs with a double and single, the tribe won the opener, 4-2. Stephens batted in both Boston runs with a home run and a single in the official times at bat.

The Bosox came back to win the nightcap, 2-1, as young Chuck Stobbs outpitched veteran Al Benton. Again Stephens fashioned both Boston runs. He singled to score Johnny Pesky with the tying run in the sixth inning, and won the game in the ninth with his 23rd homer.

The split prevented the two clubs from making any gain on the pace-setting Yankees, but the Red Sox were able to vault past Philadelphia into third place. The Athletics dropped to fourth place, losing a doubleheader to the Tigers in Detroit, 8-0 and 5-4.

Yanks, White Sox Split
The Yankees split a twin bill with the White Sox in Chicago. Joe Di Maggio's sixth home run in the seventh inning gave the Yankees the opener, 2-1, and Vic Raschi his 14th triumph against only two losses. The White Sox pounded Fred Sanford and Fran Shea for 14 hits to earn a 7-3 triumph in the nightcap.

Paul Campbell, little used first baseman, shared the hero's role with southpaw Ted Gray as the Tigers mowed down the As twice to climb within a game and a half of the Mackmen. Campbell slammed a home run with the bases full and added two singles as Gray blanked the As, 8-0, in the opener on three hits. The Tiger first baseman then won the second game with an 11th inning single that drove in the winning run in Detroit's second game 5-4 triumph.

The St. Louis Browns swept their first doubleheader of the season, taking two from the Washington Senators, 15-8 and 7-4. Rookie outfielder Roy Sievers, sparked the Browns' attack with five hits in seven times at bat.

Brooklyn retained its game and a half lead over the runner-up St. Louis Cards, edging out the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, while the Cardinals were beating the Giants in New York, 10-1. The third place Boston Braves lost ground, splitting a twin bill with the Cincinnati Reds, while Pittsburgh nosed out fourth place Philadelphia, 2-1. The Braves won the opener, 5-4, but the Reds came back to win the nightcap, 3-2.

Luis Olmo, recently reinstated Mexican league jumper, broke up the Cub-Dodger battle with a ninth-inning homer, his first of the season.

Red Mungor had an easy time winning his seventh game as his Cardinal teammates' Red Schoendienst and Eddie Kazak blasted home runs. The cards collected 13 hits.

Cliff Chambers bested Russ Meyer in a hurling duel as the Pirates gained a five-inning triumph over the Phils. Rain washed out the rest of the contest as well as the scheduled second game. Rain also cut the scheduled twin bills in Brooklyn and New York in half.

Eddie Sauer's ninth inning single with two out scored Eddie Stanky with the run that gave Boston its first game triumph over the Reds. Kent Peterson outpitched Johnny Antonelli in the nightcap.

Beavers Bid For Fourth Place In Coast Loop Race

By JIM BACON

Associated Press Sportswriter
The Portland Beavers, once thought to be permanent tenants of the Pacific Coast league basement, are moving upstairs—and fast.

The Beavers took a pair Sunday from the current cellar-dwellers, Los Angeles, 8 to 6 and 7 to 1. Portland's Sunday ace, Tommy Bridges, hurled a four-hitter in the finale.

The double win put Portland 12 1/2 games behind the league-leading Hollywood Stars and only a game and a half behind Oakland and Seattle, tied for fourth place.

Hollywood and second-place Sacramento split Sunday. The Solons took the opener, 4 to 2, and the Stars the nightcap, 6-5. The series could end 4 to 2 in favor of the sizzling Solons. The Stars are eight games in front.

Also splitting a pair were San Diego and Oakland. The Padres' Max West hit his 33rd homer of the year—a grand slammer—in the first game. Pitcher Xavier Rescigno helped his cause along with a third-inning double that drove in three runs. The Padres won the opener, 11 to 2. In the finale, homers by Loyd Christopher, Frank Kerr and Parnell Vernon knocking in three runs with a double and single, the tribe won the opener, 4-2. Stephens batted in both Boston runs with a home run and a single in the official times at bat.

The split prevented the two clubs from making any gain on the pace-setting Yankees, but the Red Sox were able to vault past Philadelphia into third place. The Athletics dropped to fourth place, losing a doubleheader to the Tigers in Detroit, 8-0 and 5-4.

All Seeded Duos Advance In Four Tennis Games

Four more matches were played in the city men's tennis tournament last weekend. All seeded teams advanced as no upsets were made.

E. Garrison and B. Randall continued to win by dropping only three games in whipping Wilkerson and Henry, 6-2, 6-1. They meet the winner of the D. Debernardi-Boyer and W. Henninger-Groves match in the lower bracket semi-finals.

D. Debernardi and Boyer reached the quarter-final round by taking a match from Lytle and Berrie, 6-4, 6-4. Henninger and Groves got in that round by virtue of a bye.

In the upper bracket Bruton and Miles met some stiffer competition in Lindbloom and Kent but finally won 6-4, 6-3. In the upper bracket semi-final round they met the winner of the L. Henninger-Van Horn and B. Garrison-Moore match. L. Henninger and Van Horn reached the quarter-final round by virtue of a bye and Moore, who replaced Tom Jacobson after the latter hurt his foot, and B. Garrison won the match from Klienfelt and Knox, 6-0, 6-2.

Marlene Yoder, YMCA general secretary, urges all tennis enthusiasts to be at the high school tennis courts tonight, Monday, at 7:15 to form a Roseburg Tennis club.

3 Top Teams To Battle For Softball Crown
A hectic week of City league softball is in store for fans this week at Finlay Field, as three top teams battle it out for first half crown honors in games starting tonight.

Sutherlin Gunner Winner Of Oregon Handicap Crown

SALEM, July 18 — (P) — W. H. McCrady, Portland, won the all-around championship of the Oregon PITA trapshoot in final rounds here yesterday.

George W. Cornish, Sutherlin, won the state handicap title, and F. L. Dambacher, Walnut Grove, Calif., and Bert Dampier, Seattle, tied for the out-of-state all-around crown. The out-of-state aggregate high honors went to Harry Shaw, Ellensburg, Wash.

McCrady and Clyde Fox, Merrill, Ore., tied for the all-around at 380 apiece. McCrady then broke 25 straight targets in both the 16-yard and handicap and had 21 in the doubles for the title. Fox missed three at 16 yards, one in the handicap and 23 in the doubles.

For the state handicap, Cornish won in a shootout with three others. Cornish, McCrady, Charles Wellington, Burns, Clay Dooley, Portland each had 96 of 100 targets. Then in the shoot-off, Cornish blasted 73 of 75 for the title.

Dambacher and Dampier were tied at 374 out of 400 and Shaw broke 94 of 95 for his out-of-state honors.

Dr. J. Martin Adams, Klamath Falls, annexed the preliminary handicap trophy Saturday. He won in a shootout with W. P. Janser, Grants Pass, and Forsberg, Portland. They had tied at 94 and Dr. Adams hit 46 birds in the shootoff. Janser hit 44 and Forsberg 43.
