Service Station Leased By Two Sutherland Men

Harvey Brown and Lewis Allen of Sutherland have leased the Associated Service station located on the east corner of Central ave. and Calapooia st. Sutherland, formerly run by Hansen Motors of Roseburg.

Brown was owner of the Standard station several years ago before going into the used car business.

Allen was affiliated with the Red and White store until about two months ago, when he sold his interest to Dee Atterbury.

The present building will be torn down and a modern building, including a service station, garage and show room, will be constructed.

The business will be known as the Brown and Allen Motor company and will have exclusive Chevrolet dealership in addition to service.

Small Boy Dies From Accidental Blow Of Bat

ASTORIA, July 18.—(AP)—A father was summoned home from Guam today to attend the funeral of a 6-year-old son, struck and killed by a baseball bat here.

James Robert Wheeler died after he suddenly looked up from the sofa in the family home, bringing his head into the path of the bat. An older brother, George, 13, was making practice swings with the bat in the living room.

The father, Robert C. Wheeler, was stationed with the navy on Guam.
