

Stevadore Firms Refuse To Parley With Bridges

HONOLULU, July 21.—(AP)—Employers objected Wednesday to negotiating Hawaii's 81-day dock strike with Harry Bridges in Washington. They withheld final decision, however.

"We don't want Bridges to be the hero that settles this strike," said a spokesman for seven struck stevedore firms.

Senator Douglas (D., Ill.) suggested that the president of the striking CIO International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union try to settle the wage dispute with a management representative and a federal conciliator.

Bridges agreed. But the employer spokesman said Bridges has never taken part in negotiations here and the dispute is too complex to be settled fairly outside Hawaii. The companies said they would give their answer upon the return from Washington of their attorney, James P. Blaisdell.

The ILWU seeks a pay raise from $1.40 to $1.72 an hour for stevedores. Negotiations broke off several weeks ago.

Actor Accused Of Failing To Support Twin Boys

WORCESTER, Mass., July 21.—(AP)—R. Joseph Kirkwood, Jr., 28, "The movies' "Joe Palooka" and a prominent golf star, was freed in $1,000 bail yesterday on a charge of failing to support the six-year-old illegitimate twin sons of an attractive theater cashier.

Kirkwood was granted a continuance until Friday at a private session before district court judge Walter D. Allen. No testimony was presented and Kirkwood was not required to enter a plea.

The screen star declined comment. He has not been adjudged father of the children, nor has he admitted parenthood.

The charge was brought by Miss Florence G. Heppenstell, 26, who worked as a waitress at a New Hampshire club where Kirkwood played golf in 1942.

Her twins were born in April, 1943.

Idea Of Making People Taller Via Shoes Pays Off For Shrewd Yankee

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK.—(AP)—There is one sure and simple formula for making a profit in America.

It is to ask a large number of people what they want—and then mass produce it and sell it to them at a price they can afford.

"I would be rich myself by following this easy formula except for one thing. Every time I ask people what they would most like to have they all say:

"Money!"

And I'll be darned if I can think up a way to manufacture money cheaper than the government.

But up in Brockton, Mass., there is a plain-spoken 53-year-old Yankee who was cagey enough ten years ago to ask this innocent question:

"Would you like to be taller?"

And one out of eight men said "Yes."

So Ben Stone did something for the "little man." He put a height-increasing shoe on the market. Now he helps grownup people grow up more—about two inches more.

It really wasn't a new idea. They say that Alexander the Great, who whipped the world and died trying to surround a wine jug, padded his sandals. They also say that Napoleon, a small fry with big fry ideas, fixed his boots so that there was considerable leather between his feet and the necks he sometimes walked on. And—sh-h-h-h!—Hitler hiked up his heels, too.

Film Notables Served

"But of course we don't like to mention Hitler wore height-increasing shoes," said Stone.

"We'd rather mention George Raft, Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby, Al Jolson, Billy Rose, Humphrey Bogart, Rudy Vallee and Dick Powell."

Stone says he has put his "elevators" on these gentlemen, and

Three Hurt In Automobile Upset Near Lakeview

LAKEVIEW, July 21.—(AP)—A convertible coupe turned over on its three occupants west of here Tuesday night, causing critical injuries to Grace Sharp, 23, of Klamath Falls.

Less seriously injured were E. A. Hamilton, Eugene, a District manager for an automobile firm, and Michael H. Schuster, Glendale, Calif.

Cecil Gibbons, west side rancher, discovered the wreck, extricated the passengers and brought them to a hospital at Lakeview. Miss Sharp's condition was described as "very serious" in a report from the hospital.

Hamilton had a shoulder injury and Schuster received multiple bruises.

Oregon Law Codification Job Starts About Aug. 1

EUGENE, July 21.—(AP)—Complete revision and codification of Oregon's laws will get under way about Aug. 1 under auspices of the Oregon State bar.

The last legislature authorized the work and K. C. O'Connell, professor of law at the University of Oregon, said here it would take three or four years.

He pointed out that only laws passed by the legislature, not the common law, were up for revision.

The legislature provided for a statute revision council and gave it $300,000 for the job.

In 1944 O'Connell, in the Oregon Law Review, said the state's statutes were badly in need of revision. In 1948 he traveled through the state, interesting county bar associations in backing the proposal.

BLIND, BUYS CAMERA

The man came in, asked for a camera he could aim by sound, found one he liked and bought it.

"I was too flabbergasted to ask what he intended to do with the pictures," said Gillins.
