Mutual Don Lee-KHJ's headline-making "Meet the Press" program will present a press conference on-the-air with C. L. O. President Philip Murray for its broadcast tonight at 7. The program will originate from Pittsburgh. Mr. Murray, in addition to leading the powerful Congress of Industrial Organizations, is head of the Steelworkers' union, which is currently in contract negotiations with the steel industry. A presidential truce has delayed a nationwide steel strike that would, it is claimed, paralyze American industry. Stay tuned for the "Blue Baron Show" at 7:30 . . . and Lou Franco and his "Happy Valley Cowboys" at 8, followed by a direct broadcast from Balboa Beach, featuring Woody Herman and his Orchestra.

SUNDAY: When a ship's distress siren is heard in the middle of an Arizona desert, it becomes a phenomenon to be solved by "Mystery Man" Roger Elliott on the "House of Mystery" at 1 p. m. . . . Stealing a cowboy's horse is as serious to him as trying to take his life. This happens to the King of the Cowboys, Roy Rogers on the "Roy Rogers Show" at 3 . . . Stay tuned for "Nick Carter, Master Detective" at 3:30 as he investigates the "Case of the Laughing Skull."

Alan Young will be starred when KHJ-Mutual Don Lee's "The Family Theater," heard 4:30-5 p. m. Sunday presents its adaptation of Frank Stockton's classic "My Terminal Moraine." Film star Patricia Neal will be hostess. The drama tells of a young boy who falls in love with a girl and finds that her father is determined that she shall make his own way in the world. At 8 p. m. tomorrow, Virginia Mayo, curvaceous blonde movie star, will play Mutual Don Lee's radio version of the "Twenty Questions."

Beginning Monday, July 25, through Friday, Aug. 5, Phelps Adams, noted newspaperman, will substitute for Fulton Lewis Jr. while Mr. Lewis takes a four weeks' vacation.
