

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Grant Bonebrake

The First Baptist church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday, July 2, when Miss Ada Lowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kruse, of Roseburg, became the bride of Vernon Grant Bonebrake, of Roseburg. Rev. H. P. Sconce performed the impressive ceremony at two o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

Floor baskets filled with phlox, gypsophelia, gladioli and white lilies, flanked by candelabra holding tall white tapers, formed the background. Mrs. Homer Grow, organist, played softly on the organ as the guests assembled and accompanied Mrs. Jessie Crenshaw, who sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Because." She played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bride party to take its place at the altar and at the close of the ceremony, she played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional.

Given in marriage by Wayne Crooch, the bride was beautiful in a gown of white nylon marquisette fashioned with a full train; long sleeves coming to a point at the wrist and a ruffle inset in the skirt edged with lilies of the valley as was the neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white ribbon. Onelda Hodson was matron of honor and wore a yellow gown and a corsage of gardenias. Bridesmaids were Miss June McGregor, Miss Peggy Urban and Miss Mary Ann Stritzke, who wore pale blue gowns with gardenia corsages. Dick Bonebrake, nephew of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were William Stock, Albert Hooten and John Dixon. Sandra Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Williamson, was flower girl and wore floor-length gown of pale green taffeta.

The bride's mother wore a pink and white sheer silk dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a black and white crepe with black and white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations. A reception followed in the church parlors. Beautiful arrangements of summer blossoms formed the decorations. The bride's table, covered with an attractive white lace cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bridal couple. The cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom and was served by Mrs. Wayne Crooch, Mrs. Dorven Kier and Mrs. Dean Smith served punch. Mrs. Nile Leach, older sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book. For traveling the bride chose a dove gray suit with white accessories. Following a honeymoon to California, the couple will temporarily reside at Melrose. The bride, a popular member of the younger set, was graduated from Roseburg Senior high school this spring. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1944 and served two years in the U. S. Navy. For the last year, he has been employed by Umpqua Plywood company.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Nile Leach and family from Port Angeles, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Riddle of Riddle, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Payne, Sweet Home, Ore., maternal grandparents of the bride; Mrs. C. H. Day Jr., of Portland, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller and daughter, of Port Angeles. Mrs. Miller is a niece of the bridegroom.

mitt, Mrs. Eugene Prinsen, Mrs. Senna Hiney, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. Hart, Miss Paul, members, and Martin and Chris Paul, guests. The afternoon's game prize was won by Mrs. Worthington. The club will meet Thursday afternoon, July 28, at the home of Mrs. Prinsen at 231 N. Chadwick street. Members are asked to bring game prizes to the meeting.
