Last Rites Set At Oakland For Pvt. D. G. Heaton

Functial services will be held at 2 pm. Sunday, July 31, at the Christian church in Oakland for Pfc. Dallas Gilford Heaton, who was wounded in battle on Oklnawa May 17, 1945, and died the following day. He was born April 24, 1926, in Roseburg, and attended the Oak-land schools. He graduated from Oakland High school with the class of 1944. He was married to the former Dorothhy Wood March 12, 1944, and entered mili-tary service in August of that year. watched the communist take ov-er one nation after another, have observed the civil war in Greece and the Soviet blockade of Ber-lin and have watched the pres-sures on Iran and Turkey.

tary service in August of that year. He took basic infantry train-ing at Camp Roberts, Calif., and received, additional combat in-struction in the Marianas islands prior to the Okinawa invasion. He was in the 382nd infantry reg-iment, 66th division. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. C. Heaton, and a son, Ronnie Joe Heaton, both of Sutherlin; a brother and sister, Lesile Heat-on and Mrs. Lois Tapp, both of Oakland, and a half-brother, Ced-ric Heaton of Eugene. Interment will take place in the I.O. O. F. cemetery. Oakland services will be conducted in Baird-Heaton post of the Ameri-can Legion. Arrangements are in care of Stearns mortuary, Oak-land. As a result of their experience with Soviet communism, Mr. Tru-man said, "they realize that they must have a shield against ag-gression to shelter their political institutions and the rebirth of their own economic and social life."

life." That shield, the president went on, does not yet exist in the United Nations. And again he blamed Russia for this situation. "So long as the danger of az-gression exists." he said, "it is necessary to think in terms of the forces required to prevent it. "Helping free nations to ac-quire the means of defending themselves," Mr. Truman contin-ued, "is an obligation of the lead-ership we have assumed in world

PARIS, July 25-(#)-A French priest was disciplined Saturday because of his alleged connec-tions with the Czechoslovakian Catholic action group whose lead-ers have been threatened with excommunication by the Vatican. Msgr. Roger Beaussart, acting head of the Paris Archdiocese, said Abbe Jean Bouller, a Roman Catholic priest of leftist sympa-thies, would be forbidden to say Mass after Sept. 14.

Msgr. Beausart said Abbe Boulier had already been forbid-den to hear confessions, to preach, to hold conferences in the Diocese or to perform Dio-mean functions
