Umpqua National Forest Shows Phenomenal 10-Year Increase In Timber Removal

FROM LAST TO 2ND PLACE

The Umpqua Natoinal forest, lying principally in Douglas county placed second in the Pacific Northwest in the amount of timber cut from national forests during the 1948-49 fiscal year.

Supervisor M. M. "Red" Nelson said these figures were revealed in a summary compiled by the regional forester's office. The Williamette National forest placed first, with a total of 210-000,000 board feet valued at $2,400,000. Next came the Umpqua National forest with a cut of 143-000,000 board feet valued at $1,200,000, for an average price of $8.61 per thousand. The Umpqua forest's cut has grown phenomenally since 1939, when the total cut was 12,000 board feet valued at $20,000 when the total cut was 12,000 board feet valued at $20 and averaging only $1.64 per thousand, said Nelson. It was then the lowest forest from the standpoint of
